DESERET EVENING NEWS: THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1901.

Warrant Sworn Out Against North Ogden Hoodlums - Death of Mrs. Nixon-New Oil Company.

Suit was filed in the Second district court by Mary E. A. Higman, as adminstratrix of the estate of Daniel Higman, deceased, against the Southern Pacific Rallroad Co., for $1,999 damages: The complaint sets forth that the plaintiff was appointed administratrix of the deceased's estate October 21, 1901, and prosecutes this action as such. On April 7, 1901, Daniel Higman was employed by the defendant com-pany as fireman upon one of their lootive engines, and was fatally injured in a wreck caused by a defective wheel.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and sub-stance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only. DEATH OF MRS. JAMES NIXON.

Judge Joseph Hall received the sad intelligence yesterday afternoon by telegram of the death of his sister, Mrs. James Nixon of Salt Lake City, who died at Portland, Oregon, yesterday, there on a visit to her daughter Mrs. C. H. Moore. Mrs. Nixon was ad-vanced in years but was enjoying quite ood health, and the news of her sudden death was a severe shock to her relatives in this city. The remains ac-companied by Mrs. Moore will pass hrough Ogden Friday en route to Salt Lake where interment will take place. NEW OIL COMPANY.

Last evening a meeting was held in the office of the oil companies for the purpose of perfecting the organization and inconformation of another big oil pany. There were present some of leading ladies and gentlemen of company. the city. The name of the new com-pany will be the La Grande Oil company. The principal place of business of the corporation will be Ogden City, Utah. The capital stock of the corpor-ation is $500,000 divided into 509,000 ver. shares of the par value of $1.00 per share. The officers chosen for the en-suing year are J. C. Nye, president; Frank Francis, vice president; J. H. Knauss, secretary; R. T. Hume, treasurer; A. B. Hayes, attorney; directors, J. C. Nye, Frank Francis, M. S. Pey-sert, Thos. W. Jones, T. C. Foley, A. W. Meek and W. L. Burt.

The company has a considerable amount of oil land situated in the Hilinduct of oil and situated in the Hil-liard. Wyoming, and Green River, Utah, oil districts. Their properties are considered some of the best in those districts, and it is expected the work of development will be pushed by the corporation, which is a strong one.
