

SNOWSLIDE BRINGS DEATH AND DISASTER

Fourteen Miners Employed at Shenandoah Mine, Silverton, Colo., Killed.

WERE EATING THEIR DINNER.

It is Reported That Twenty-One Were Caught and Seven Dug Their Way Out.

Silverton, Colo., March 19.—Fourteen miners employed at the Shenandoah mine were caught by a great snowslide early this morning and swept to their death. Their bodies have not yet been recovered. Assistance has been summoned from Silverton to help dig the victims from beneath the snow.

KNOWN DEAD.

Jacob Theobald, Jesse Shaw, Gus House, Peter Coleburg, Bert Albert, Edward Kirk, formerly of Ouray, "Slate" Branton, Emil Ross, Gustavson, Tom Obero, Condi Vagaglio, James Vagaglio, W. J. Thompson, George Abbott.

According to a report received from Howardville, the men were killed by a snowslide, which struck the boarding-house at the mine while they were at dinner.

It is reported that 21 men were caught in the slide and that seven dug their way out, more or less injured.

A man who escaped hurried on to Howardville, three miles down the gulch, and telephoned to Silverton for help.

The Shenandoah mine is located on the east slope of King Solomon mountain, in Cunningham gulch, nine miles north from Silverton. All telephone wires to the section north of Howardville are out and communication with the mine is impossible.

The mine employed about 75 men and is one of the largest in the San Juan country. The thermometer fell to 29 below zero last night and today dawned clear, with the mercury rising. It has been a week since a train left here, and it will probably be several days before the Rio Grande line can be opened to Durango.

The Gladstone & Northern has a large force at work clearing the line to Gladstone.

The financial loss by the destruction on Saturday of the Green Mountain mill and the Silver Lake tramway line is estimated at $250,000.

On Sunday another slide came down on the Green Mountain property and swept away the boarding-house. The men had all come down. A cottage near the Old Hundred

AWAIT GERMANY'S FINAL CONCESSIONS

France Absolutely Against Placing Casa Blanca Under International Command.

INVOLVES POLICE QUESTION.

At Algiers Opinion Gains Ground Whole Question Will Soon be Settled.

Paris, March 19.—Officials here say that France's position is absolute and final against placing Casa Blanca under international command. It is maintained that this is not a question of detail, but one that involves the entire Franco-German controversy over internationalization of the police.

The changes at the various capitals, officials declare, in another vote will show that France is supported by Great Britain, Spain, Portugal and Russia, with Austria doubtful and Italy and the United States abstaining.

Austria's doubt is due to Vienna's wavering in the support she has heretofore given to Germany. The current opinion in official circles is that Germany intends to recede from her position. The semi-official Times says: "We await Germany's final concessions. If we wait in vain let Germany say so and let the conference record a failure of which German diplomacy must bear the responsibility before the world."

However, statements in the semi-official press are sometimes designed to satisfy public opinion and the indications are that Foreign Minister Bourgeois is adopting a less peremptory tone.

THINGS LOOK FAVORABLE.

Algiers, March 19.—The opinion has gained ground all day that a settlement of the Franco-German controversy before the conference is a matter of hours. It was currently reported this evening that the terms of a compromise had been practically arranged, and that announcement of an actual settlement probably would be made at the next plenary sitting of the conference, the date of which has not yet been definitely fixed, but which is expected to be held either tomorrow or Wednesday.

Details of the compromise are not obtainable, but it is stated that the concessions relate to both the police and the customs questions, the outstanding points of which are subject to mutual concession from the apparently rigid standpoints which France and Germany hitherto have maintained.

It is understood that the forward move is the result of pressure from the representatives of the neutral powers, who have displayed considerable impatience over the delay and urged that increased efforts be made by the French and German delegates toward a practical solution of the difficulties.

WITTE REPORTED TO BE READY TO RESIGN.

St. Petersburg, March 19.—In high circles tonight the rumor was current that Count Witte had definitely decided to retire from the premiership.

From an absolutely authoritative source it can be stated that Count Witte, at a session of the council of the empire this afternoon, made an enigmatical statement which is interpreted by many members of the council as a virtual declaration that his career as premier is ended and that he will be succeeded by Privy Councillor Kokovtsov, former minister of finance.

A project for the solution of the agrarian problem by the purchase of lands from the nobles and other large proprietors through the peasant banks, and their resale to peasants on long-term installment payments, was under discussion.

As the treasury is in no condition to advance the money to the banks for the purpose, Count Witte advocated a scheme under which the banks should purchase the land with 15-year credit bonds instead of cash. A very marked division of the cabinet developed.

Finance Minister Shipov opposed the premier. Suddenly M. Kokovtsov arose and in a warm speech earnestly supported Count Witte's views.

When he had concluded, Count Witte closed the debate by saying that he was apologizing for his seeming indifference, and thanking M. Kokovtsov for his support, adding:

"I also might have made a better defense had I been as much interested in the future as Alexander Nikolievitch," meaning Kokovtsov, Russians, even on formal occasions, referring to persons by their Christian names.

On what is apparently reliable authority, it is said that the condition of Count Witte's health is quite unsatisfactory. He has lately experienced a rather alarming attack of heart trouble a few days ago. His physician advised him some time ago to give up work.

It is known that Count Witte, believing that he had weathered the political storm, formed a determination to relinquish the premiership upon the meeting of the national assembly.

Recently, however, the strength of the reactionaries increased, and the premier was obliged to keep up the fight against heavy odds. It may be that his endurance was thus exhausted, and that, feeling that his health was declining, he has reached the decision to retire immediately.

MINERS AND OPERATORS TO HAVE A CONFERENCE.

Indianapolis, March 19.—That there will be a second joint conference of the coal operators and miners of the central competitive district, comprising the states of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Western Pennsylvania, was definitely determined this afternoon when the operators of the four states met in convention and adopted a resolution setting forth their willingness to meet the representatives of the United Mine Workers.

Subsequent arrangements between J. H. Winder, the newly elected chairman of the operators, and President John Mitchell of the Mine Workers, fixed the first session of the joint conference for tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Following the retirement of F. L. Robbins, president of the Pittsburg Coal company, as chairman of the operators, and the election of J. H. Winder of Ohio, as his successor, a resolution was adopted providing that the operators of the four states should elect their own spokesmen and that there be no official representatives of the four states collectively either in joint convention or joint scale committees.

Separate sessions of the national convention of the United Mine Workers and the operators of the central competitive district were held today.

Beyond listening to an address by Mrs. Langdon of Denver, on the Colorado situation and disposing of a number of resolutions, among which was the Stanley resolution prohibiting the signing of the wage scales not providing for a run of mine basis, the Mine Workers transacted no business of importance.

The operators organized by the election of J. H. Winder of Ohio as successor to F. L. Robbins, retired chairman of the operators, and the appointment of committees, after which a resolution expressing the willingness of the operators to meet the representatives of the miners in joint conference was adopted.

MURDERED BY INDIANS.

Johnnie and Joe Ihapah Found Guilty in the First Degree.

Elko, Nev., March 19.—After being out for hours in the courtroom, the Indians Johnnie and Joe Ihapah, brought in a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. They will be sentenced Friday morning. The verdict will ask for a new trial, and failing to secure it will appeal to the supreme court.

The crime was committed at Montello on Dec. 27. A one-legged white man's throat was cut, his arm broken, an eye cut out, his face horribly mutilated and the remains placed on a fire.

Both Indians have broken down. Ihapah has cried ever since the verdict was rendered. Ihapah is a Goshute, Johnnie is a Shoshone.

BOTH MUST DIE.

RIO GRANDE WRECK INVESTIGATION.

Canon City, Colo., March 19.—Coroner W. C. Stephenson today started an investigation of the Denver & Rio Grande wreck at Adobe. Several witnesses were examined. Operator Lively of Swallows, who is said to be responsible for the collision, was present.

The investigation started at 2 o'clock and adjourned at 4 until tomorrow afternoon, when it is hoped Lively can be produced and placed on the witness stand. There were no developments of note today.

J. C. NAYLOR MURDERED.

Portland, March 19.—A special dispatch from Pendleton, Or., states that the verdict of the coroner's jury in the case of J. C. Naylor, found dead in a mill race yesterday, was that death had been caused by a blow on the head, inflicted by unknown persons.

It was the opinion of the jury that Naylor was first murdered and the body thrown into the race.

There is no clew to the murderer, though suspicion has been directed against a relative of the dead man, with whom Naylor had trouble.

No. 5 Making Medicine History

Several years ago, a thousand of the leading druggists throughout the United States organized themselves together in a co-operative company to produce remedies which they could back up with their own names and their own reputations.

The first object of this co-operative company was to produce a line of remedies that every druggist would know thoroughly. There were to be no secret formulas; the ingredients of every remedy would be known to every druggist.

Each of these thousand druggists contributed to the organization all that his knowledge and experience had brought to him in the way of advice as to different remedies. The formulas of something like 2,000 or more remedies were sent to the company. A committee of experts was appointed and this committee went over the various formulas conscientiously and earnestly for a long period of time and selected about 200 standard remedies, the manufacture of which the company then undertook.

The company in the meantime had erected a perfect laboratory—large, well-appointed, with every appliance known to modern skill. The combined capital of a thousand druggists made it possible for the company to purchase in the largest quantities the fundamental drugs and herbs, etc., that form the ingredients of the various remedies.

This meant not only the highest quality in manufacture, but the very greatest economy—the cutting out of every wasteful item and every unnecessary expense.

The remedies when manufactured were shipped directly from the laboratory to the retail druggists. This insured their freshness and made it impossible for their quality to deteriorate. Not only that, but it also did away with the jobbers' profit. Here again the co-operative system added not only quality but brought about economy.

Most of our patrons are familiar with these facts. Most of them are already acquainted with the formulas of Rexall Remedies which are manufactured by the United Drug Co., with laboratory and principal offices in Boston, Mass.

These are the remedies and this is the co-operative company that we believe has done more to bring about a change in patent medicine conditions than any other element in existence.

Each of the Rexall druggists knows absolutely what each Rexall remedy contains. He has the formula of each remedy on file in his safe. He will gladly give it to anyone who is interested. There is nothing secret about any of the Rexall formulas. On the contrary, we are thoroughly proud of them. We want you to know about them.
