U. S. Supreme Court Decision.

WASHINGTON, 26.—The Supreme Court, in an Illinois case, made a decision, to-day, in effect that the journals of the House and Senate of a State may be produced and accepted as evidence that a bill did not pass these bodies on account of not being properly recorded in one of the books; also that reference to the act by subsequent legislative acts did not give it any additional force; that a law which was never formally passed cannot be given vitality by such means.

The Treasury Department Regulations.

The Secretary of the Treasury, to-day, issued the following regulations:

First, the force employed in this department and in each division and bureau, will be carefully corrected to the number and grade fixed by law and the appropriation therefor.

Second, where the law does not fix the number or compensation of employees, as in the case of temporary clerks or persons paid from appropriations for specific purposes, the number at no time shall exceed the demands of the service, and the compensation shall not exceed the rates paid for similar service in private establishments.

Third, Each head of a bureau in this department will be strictly holden to the enforcement of the foregoing rules, and will report in writing to this office within ten days, and from time to time thereafter, the names of all persons employed under his direction, who by reason of incompetency, bad habits, neglect of duty, or any other cause, ought not to be retained longer in the service; also those whose services are no longer required for the conduct of the business entrusted to his charge. When a vacancy in any grade above that of class one occurs, in any bureau, and the public service requires that it be filled, the head of such bureau will report in writing the names of persons of a lower grade who, by reason of industry, integrity, and competency, are most deserving of recognition by promotion thereto.

Fourth, Appointments of temporary clerks will hereafter be made only for a limited time, not to exceed the exigency which calls fer their employment, the period of service to be stated in the letter of appointment.

Fifth, Hereafter no person will be appointed or employed in this department unless the written application for employment and all papers and recommendations pertaining thereto, intended for file in this department, shall have been filed in the appointment division of this office, and merely verbal applications or recommendations for appointment or promotion will not be entertained.

Sixth, Under the requirements of the joint resolution of Congress, approved March 3d, 1867, preferences for appointment will necessarily be given to honorably discharged soldiers or sailors of the United States, and under the provision of the act of March 3rd, 1875, directing the appointments of this department to be so arranged as to be equally distributed between the several States of the United States, Territories and District of Columbia, according to population, no person whose legal residence is in any division of the country above mentioned, which has received already its full number of appointments in accordance with the distribution directed will be appointed, and all the appointments will be subject to the examination required by the provision of section 164 of the Revised Statutes.

Exonerated from Charges of Fraud.

The Solicitor of the Treasury has submitted a report to the Secretary of the Treasury, exonerating the officials of the department from the charges of fraud. He says it is not known, up to the present time, that with the exception of $240 imprudently paid out in 1876, any amount has been paid as unclaimed interest which has not been paid back or will not be paid back. As the result of the present investigation, no loss has resulted or can result to the United States, the Treasurer being liable upon his official bond for all disbursements made to persons not authorized to receive the same. Several thousand dollars appear to have been fraudulently paid out, but this cannot be determined without judicial investigation.

Attempt to Rob a Mail Car.

ROCHESTER, 26.—An attempt was made to rob the mail car on the New York Central Road to-night. The robbers entered the forward compartment, and being discovered by the clerk, a fierce encounter followed between the two. The other clerks, hearing the noise, rushed in, whereupon the robbers jumped from the train.

Steamer Ashore.

NEW YORK, 26.—The new excursion steamer Rockaway went ashore at Atlantic City, and is broken in pieces.

Open to New York.

ALBANY, N. Y., 26.—The ice barrier gave way to-day, and the Hudson River is open to New York.

Gov. Hampton Accepts President Hayes' Invitation to Visit Washington.

COLUMBIA, 26.—Gov. Hampton received yesterday the letter of the President inviting him to come to Washington. He has written the following reply:

"I have the honor to acknowledge your communication of the 23rd inst., addressed to me by your private secretary. As you express a desire for a personal conference with myself, I accept, through motives of proper courtesy to yourself, the invitation you have extended, though I cannot hope by doing so to throw additional light upon the questions which have already been so ably and thoroughly presented, and the solution of which is so obvious and simple. My understanding from the communication I have received is that the object contemplated by the proposed conference is solely that I might place before you my views of the impediments to a peaceful and orderly organization of a single and undisputed State government in South Carolina, and of the best methods of removing them.

"I shall avail myself of your invitation so that I may reiterate in person what I have the honor to submit in writing, that in my judgment all impediments to the objects so earnestly desired by yourself and so anxiously expected by the people of this State, can at once be removed by the withdrawal of the federal troops from the State House. This action on the part of the commander-in-chief of the United States forces would not only be hailed by our people as an evidence that the civil authority is no longer to be subordinated to the military power in our country, but it would establish law, insure domestic tranquility, revive our wasted industries, and give assurance that this State is to be restored to her just rights under the constitution. Whatever grievances exist, whatever wrongs we suffer, we propose to redress them not by resort to force, but by legal and constitutional agencies. In seeking such redress, I feel sure I represent fully the determination of the thoughtful, conservative portion of our whole people when I give the assurance that no proscription shall be exercised here on account of political opinions; that no discrimination shall be made in the administration of justice, and that all citizens of both parties and both races shall be regarded as fully protected by and amenable to the laws.

"Joining most heartily with you in the earnest desire you express that you may be able to put an end as speedily as possible, to all appearance of intervention of the military authority of the United States in the political derangements which affect the government and the people of South Carolina, and fervently trusting that the auspicious result may soon be reached, I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

"WADE HAMPTON,
"Gov. of South Carolina."

Gov. Hampton leaves to-morrow night, and will arrive in Washington on Thursday morning. Everything is quiet throughout the State.

The Situation to Remain Unchanged.

NEW ORLEANS, 26.—The Times publishes the following dispatches:

"Washington,
March 26th, 1877.

"To Hon. S. B. Packard, New Orleans, La.

"Your dispatch of the 24th received. The Secretary of War has sent to General Augur the following:

"To General C. C. Augur, New Orleans, La.

"A commission will shortly visit Louisiana. In the meantime the President desires that the situation remain unchanged. Please report changes in the situation, if any have occurred since the close of the late administration.

"(Signed) W. MCCRARY,
"Sec'y of War.

"(Signed) R. B. HAYES."

The following is from Kellogg:

"Washington, D. C.,
March 25th, 1877.

"Governor S. B. Packard, New Orleans.

"President Hayes said yesterday to Ellis and others in the presence of congressmen, that Nicholls has no legal courts. His Supreme Court is rendering judgments and entangling property when its judgments are entirely worthless.

"(Signed) W. P. K."

Something Must be Done.

CHARLESTON, 26.—The Chamber of Commerce held a large meeting to-day, to take into consideration the propriety of sending a delegation of responsible men to Washington to confer with the President on the gubernatorial difficulties. In opening the meeting President Tupper said:

"Our business is languishing, capitalists have become tired and are withholding their substance, property is depreciating in value, and a feeling of uncertainty and gloomy depression pervades the State. It is believed that President Hayes has not been properly informed as to the true condition of things in South Carolina. Too many politicians, too many candidates for office, and men claiming to be in office have been interviewing and supplicating him in their own behalf as well as in ours. It is time for the merchants, bankers, and business men of Charleston who want no office, and will accept none at his hands, to speak for Hampton and South Carolina."

It was then resolved that a commission should be sent to Washington to represent to the President the true condition of affairs here, and the terrible effect the political complications are exerting on the business interests of the State and city.

WESTERN.

The Chico Massacre—The Murderers Confess.

SAN FRANCISCO, 26.—A Chico dispatch says, in all twelve arrests have been made, five for the murder of the Chinamen and the others for complicity in various incendiarism committed in the vicinity during the last four months. Two of the parties charged with the murder have made full and sworn statements, which agree in alleging that the party first went to the cabin with a view of its robbery, but before entering they decided to kill the Chinamen to make everything secure. The statements also throw light upon the number of cases in which Chinese buildings and manufacturing establishments employing Chinamen were burned. Several of the parties arrested are ascertained to belong to the labor union, but none are yet identified as Caucasians. A Chico correspondent expresses the opinion, from the facts thus far gathered, that a scheme existed to desolate that part of the country, and that its ramifications will be found to exist all over the state, wherever the labor union and order of Caucasians have secured a foothold.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Warlike Preparations—Turkish Rebels Under Arms.

LONDON, 26.—The Times Belgrade correspondent says in Bosnia the Turkish rebels are all under arms, and the national militia are being armed and drilled. A special commission has been appointed to see that no person liable shall avoid military service. The militia have received Snider rifles, and money, shoes, and horses are given to the authorities for the newly mobilized militia, and camp equipage is held ready for use. The Ulemas and Dervishes continue to excite a warlike feeling by fanatical addresses. Insurgent bands are appearing in hitherto undisturbed districts, and as the weather is becoming mild enough to make life in the mountains endurable, these bands will receive large accessions from the rayah population, who were driven to desperation by misrule. Letters from Bosnia and Bulgaria assert that the tax gatherers exact tithes twice, the second batch declaring that the first were unauthorized. Confusion is becoming more aggravating every day.

Other dispatches say Kustenage has been strengthened, and that Odessa is completely secured against a sea attack, and garrisoned by 10,000 men, while other troops are in the neighborhood.

A Mysterious Bark.

QUEENSTOWN, 26.—The master of the ship Royal Oak encountered a suspicious looking bark in the Atlantic on the 17th instant, in latitude 49 deg., 41 min. north, longitude 44 deg., 17 min, and on his signalling for her name, the word "Confidential" was shown, and when he bore down and hailed for explanations, he was told by several voices to mind his own business. No officers were visible on deck, and the ship appeared to be under the control of the crew, amongst whom there was apparently much confusion. The captain of the Royal Oak made out the vessel to be the Mary K. Campbell. She was heading northwest, not her proper course.

The British bark Mary K. Campbell, Captain Gray, sailed from New York on February 27th, for Bordeaux.

DALMATIA.

More Turkish Outrages.

RAGUSA, 26.—Some peasants who, to escape massacre, took refuge in Austrian territory, have returned to their homes. Five hundred Bashi-Bazouks fell upon the village of Otchieva, where returned refugees were rebuilding their dwellings, and burned the partly restored houses and murdered ten of the refugees, with nameless horrors. Others fled across the frontier at Glamosh.

There was another butchery; a Greek of the Orthodox Church had celebrated his marriage with a girl of the same faith. The bridal procession was stopped by Turks, who cut down and beheaded four of the guests, and exposed their heads on poles. The bride died from outrages inflicted upon her.
