Moss has been destroyed by fire and his large clear factory is now burning. The loss views, regarding great fortunes, is at-tracting attention here. In Mr. Car-negie's article he expresses the belief that a millionaire ought to share his wealth with the poor, but with the lim-fation that his fortune should not be divided before the millionaire's death. Then the community should exact a

The closing of the Thirteenth ward store marks the passing of the era in which it thrived. It was located on upper Main street, before there was any particular Main street, and for over 30 years has done business as a general utility establishment, such as would properly supply the miscellaneous needs of a thriving village. It was first start-ed over 30 years ago by H. S. Eldredge, who had been manager of Z. C. M. I. He employed J. P. Freeze as manager, and Mr. Freeze gradually got control. It is to him the property is assigned, and he lives in Murray, where he builds aut rents houses. Several years ago the store moved to its present site from across the street, and before that it occupied a site slightly north of its present location. ## PRESIDENT SMITH SPEAKS.

Among the memorable things of the evening were the remarks of Presi-dent Smith. He related how the de-mands of the Church schools on the authorities had grown from $67,000 a AT THE WHITE HOUSE. Authorities had grown from $62,300 a few years ago to upwards of $223,000 this year, and referred to the words of Instructor Milne respecting the used of a new physical practise build-ing. "For the benefit of the university authorities," continued President Smith In effect, "I wish to offer a crumb of comfort. The Church is now entirely out of debt. This means a saving of from $20,000 to $60,000 in interest. I should very much like to see at least some of this means spent upon a suitable gynnasium for the university. I hope to live long and this block. President Smith said he regretted the fact that the Church had not purchased the property known as RIVALING JOSÉPH. In the matter of new bills, C. E. Marks is vieing with Harry Joseph in the preparation of favorite measures. Joseph will deal especially with the mining phase of the situation, while Marks is preparing to submit an amended juvenile court measure, cal-culated to strengthen the present law and make it more effective. He is also behind a bill to amend the garnishment law, hy designating a percentage of a man's salary which shall be exempt, and by making it possible for one gar-nishment to continue in operation from month to month, till a bill collector is satisfied. This is meant to save the garnishee the cost of frequent garnish ments from one source. The caption building sinking fund, proposed last year, by Mr. Marks will again go in the year-by semeone clae if Mr. Marks is elected speaker.

THE BIG MEASURES.
