

EVENING NEWS.

Thursday July 15, 1888.

FRAGMENTS.

A boy is wanted to do chores. See advt.

A bunch of keys will be presented only once, to-morrow evening.

Clouds ameliorated the condition of the atmosphere somewhat to-day.

Look out for paint in the post office. The wood-work of the lobby is being painted.

We hear little or nothing lately about the progress of the late mining boom in Cache Valley.

Sheep on the range are said to be suffering on account of the drought having so greatly injured the grass.

Laborers of land on the mountain slope near Mendon and Westville, in Cache Valley, have recently been fenced for pasture lands.

A drunken soldier who lay outstretched across a dry goods box in front of the Wasatch building this afternoon, all covered with flies, was a revolting spectacle.

There is one case of diphtheria in the city. It is in the family of a Wm. Rogers, in the Twenty-first Ward, and was reported yesterday by Dr. Clifton, quarantine physician.

With the gang of horse thieves examined in the police court yesterday was captured a saddle, lariat, spurs, etc., worth in all about $100. A gentleman accidentally identified the articles this morning as his.

Yesterday a gentleman drove in a buggy to a butcher shop on First South Street to get some meat. On getting into the buggy he went to turn the horse around when the animal stumbled and broke its shoulder, making it necessary to kill it.

The town of Grand Junction, Colorado, has not yet decided to construct water works. The question is in abeyance, and it will likely be decided so ahead with the work. In that case David James of this city will likely get the contract.

An inadvertence in Tuesday evening's News, appends the term "Liberal" to the name of A. F. Barnes, nominee for school trustee in the Seventeenth Ward. To all who know the gentleman it will be unnecessary to say that he is a People's Party man and that he is not a Liberal. There were no Liberals at the school meeting, and all the proceedings were perfectly friendly and pleasant. Mr. Barnes himself nominated Mr. Jensen who was elected.

LOCAL NEWS.

Weston.—This town in Cache Valley is very unfortunate this year. Grasshoppers are devouring the crops rapidly. One farmer has had a field of rye almost ripe enough to cut, completely eaten up by them. The scourge has devoured all the leaves on the wheat stalks in his field and is now consuming the nearly ripe heads. Hereafter much hay has been cut on the lands lying near the settlement, but the drought has completely destroyed the grass this year, so that little or no hay will be cut in the place.

Police Court.—Yesterday afternoon a party named Marriot was bound over for selling beer without a license. Ernest Williamson, Fred Smith, K. Kearley and George Austin were arraigned on a charge of horse stealing. Kearley was discharged, but all the others entered a plea of guilty and were bound over in $2,000.

All of the above defendants except Austin were next arraigned on a charge of petty larceny, stealing a saddle, etc., but all were discharged.

Williamson alone was then arraigned on another charge of horse stealing; pleaded guilty and gave a $1,000 bond.

The Approaching Election.—An official announcement by the People's Central Committee, of a convention to be held on the 24th of July, to nominate candidates for the general election to take place on the 2d of August, appears in this issue. The first matter to be considered is the election of delegates to the convention. They will be held in all the precincts of the county, at the usual places for holding elections, on Monday next, (July 19th), at 8 o'clock p. m. All members of the People's Party should attend.

Pleasing Performance.—Congregating the comedy "A Bunch of Keys," to be presented by the Sparks Company in the Salt Lake Theatre, next Friday evening, the 15th inst., the San Francisco Chronicle says:

"A Bunch of Keys" is crowding this theatre every night, and the audiences do not seem to enjoy it one whit less than before. Of all the best pieces, "A Bunch of Keys" is a long way the best in plot, character, and especially in the selection of music, which are very prettily sung by the present company. This is proved by the simple fact that even two or three visits do not exhaust the entertaining features. Standing-room only will be the announcement for the week."

Police Court.—This morning Mike Fleming was fined $10 for being drunk yesterday. He paid it.

James Hamilton, for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $10 which he also paid.

This afternoon the unsavory case of Laura Cornell, charged with keeping a house of ill-fame, was called. Mr. Kenner, her counsel, asked a continuance on the ground that Mr. Burmeister had not been engaged by the defense, and desired time to look into the case. Mr. Moyle, for the Prosecution, objected to any postponement, but on Mr. Burmeister stating to the court that the defense desired time to prepare for asking for a change of venue, the court granted a continuance until 2 p. m. to-morrow.

A case in which several soldiers were the defendants, was being investigated when we went to press.

A Shocking Casualty.—On Tuesday evening last, Elsie, four-year-old boy, son of W. T. Fletcher, 11-1/2 in the Eighth Ward, put a piece of glass, believed to be a set of a cheap ring, in his ear. On the same evening the child was taken to Dr. Anderson's office. It was too dark to do anything at that time, but yesterday the child was kept under the influence of chloroform about four hours, while Drs. W. F. and Belle Anderson worked to remove the obstruction. Their efforts were unavailing, however, and this morning the child was again put under the influence of chloroform, and for two hours the same doctors labored to remove the glass, still without success.

The child's father is absent from home, but has been sent for. On his return a consultation of surgeons will be held to determine whether to put into the structures of the head around the ear, in order to remove the piece of glass, or let it remain where it is. The child does not seem to suffer much pain, and yesterday afternoon was playing as usual.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

HEADQUARTERS PEOPLE'S COUNTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE, SALT LAKE CITY, July 14, 1888.

A People's Convention for Salt Lake County is hereby called to meet at the County Court House, Salt Lake City, on Saturday, the 24th day of July, 1888, at 10 a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates to be voted for at the general election to be held on Monday, the 2d day of August next.

Said County Convention will consist of 35 delegates allotted to the several precincts to wit:

Salt Lake City.
 First Precinct—Comprising First Second, Third, Eighth, Ninth and Tenth Wards. 8
 Second Precinct—Comprising Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, and Tenth Wards. 8
 Third Precinct—Comprising Sixteenth, Seventeenth and Nineteenth Wards. 8
 Fourth Precinct—Comprising Eighteenth, Twentieth and Twenty-first Wards. 8
 Fifth Precinct—Comprising Eleventh, Twelfth and Thirteenth Wards. 8

COUNTRY PRECINCTS.
 Mountain Dell and Sugar House. 2
 Farmers. 2
 Mill Creek. 2
 East Mill Creek. 2
 Big Cottonwood. 2
 South Cottonwood. 2
 Union. 2
 Butler and Silver. 2
 Little Cottonwood. 2
 Sandy. 2
 Herriman and Bligham. 2
 South Jordan, Riverton and Bluff. 2
 West Jordan. 2
 North Jordan and Granger. 2
 Brighton and North Point. 2
 Pleasant Green and Hunter. 2

Total. 60
 Primary meetings for the election of delegates to the County Convention will be held in the several precincts of the county, at the usual places for holding elections, on Monday, July 19th, 1888, at 8 p. m.

On the day of the election delegates properly authenticated by the chairman and secretary of the meeting electing and secretary of the meeting.

By order of the People's Central Committee of Salt Lake County.
 JOHN SHARP, Chairman.
 THOMAS MCKEAN, Sec'y.

Examination of the Lyncher.
 We went to press yesterday afternoon while the examination of nine men charged with participating in the lynching of Joseph Fisher at Bureka, July 6, was in progress, and while A. G. Sutherland, the attorney of Provo, was on the stand.

This witness was in Bureka on the day of the lynching. Was in the saloon where O'Connor's body lay. Mrs. O'Connor was frantic, and asked what they were going to do with the man who had killed her son. Heard old man O'Connor say he ought to be killed. Heard many men in the crowd talk about lynching, but could not identify them. Went to the jail as Fisher's counsel. He was wounded in the breast, and a bruise was over his eye. I was afraid at violence towards Fisher. A number of men were sent to help guard the jail. About dark a crowd of men marched to the jail; did not recognize any of them; I went up to the jail; some one threw a rope which dropped at my feet; old man O'Connor told me to go; said his boy had been killed and it was now a life for a life. A crowd of men in the crowd around the jail; pistol shots were fired and some men rushed up the hill. I heard yells for some one to give up the keys; I was afraid they had shot Stanley; everything then became more quiet.

Here witness was excused. Mr. Dickinson stated to the court that he had to go to Ogden, and asked to have an examination continued until Saturday, which was ordered, 11 a. m., being the hour fixed. A number of witnesses who had been summoned from a distance and were without means to pay their expenses, would have been placed in a dilemma, but at the instance of the People's Party, the court granted a continuance until Saturday, which was ordered, 11 a. m., being the hour fixed. A number of witnesses who had been summoned from a distance and were without means to pay their expenses, would have been placed in a dilemma, but at the instance of the People's Party, the court granted a continuance until Saturday, which was ordered, 11 a. m., being the hour fixed.

Laid to Rest.—The obsequies of the late Elder E. T. Munford were held at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Beattie, in the Twelfth Ward, at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, (July 14th). A large number of the relatives and friends of the family were present. The services were conducted by Bishop O. F. Whitney, who also offered the opening prayer. Appropriate discourses were delivered by Elder John Nicholson and Bishop Waltey, and the benediction was pronounced by Elder Robert Campbell. The singing exercises were rendered by a select choir, led by Brother Geo. D. Feyer.

Deceased was born June 27th, 1808, in Lutes County, N. Y.

He removed from there in 1818 to Chautauque County, in the same State. He resided with his parents till he was 21, and at the age of 22 years married Hannah C. Crosby, the issue of said marriage being two daughters and one son.

He embraced the Gospel about the year 1830 and journeyed to Nauvoo in 1840, and came to Utah in 1849. In 1851, 1852 and 1853 he was one of a number called to settle at Fort Supply, near Fort Bridger, and remained there a year and a half, returning to Salt Lake valley on the approach of Johnston's army. In 1868 he went to the Missouri river as captain of a company to bring the immigrating Saints to Utah. He resided in this city until two years ago, since which time he lived in Pleasant Grove, Utah County, where he died. He leaves a wife, living in Pleasant Grove, a daughter, Mrs. M. T. Beattie, of this city, and numerous grandchildren.

College Circular.—We are in receipt of the circular which ushers in the ninth collegiate year of the Brigham Young College of the Saints. The circular gives the courses of study, rules of tuition, board, etc. The curriculum is extensive and the charges for tuition and board are very moderate.

The present collegiate year is divided into three terms of twelve weeks each. The Fall Term commences September 13th, the Winter Term on December 6th, the Spring Term on the 7th of March. There will be a vacation from December 24th to January 8th.

The Brigham Young College should be very truly designated as the University of the Latter-day Saints. It is one of the very few educational institutions in existence in which the true science of theology is taught, and this fact alone should fill it with pupils, the students of the Saints to the utmost capacity. The college buildings are commodious, the grounds and surroundings are beautiful, retired and attractive; the instructors competent, faithful, diligent and self-sacrificing towards their pupils; the dormitories home-like in their comfort, and the influences which surround the pupils are of the best and most wholesome character. We heartily and earnestly wish the College success. Full information may be obtained by addressing J. E. Price, secretary, at Logan.

College Circular.—We are in receipt of the circular which ushers in the ninth collegiate year of the Brigham Young College of the Saints. The circular gives the courses of study, rules of tuition, board, etc. The curriculum is extensive and the charges for tuition and board are very moderate.

The present collegiate year is divided into three terms of twelve weeks each. The Fall Term commences September 13th, the Winter Term on December 6th, the Spring Term on the 7th of March. There will be a vacation from December 24th to January 8th.

The Brigham Young College should be very truly designated as the University of the Latter-day Saints. It is one of the very few educational institutions in existence in which the true science of theology is taught, and this fact alone should fill it with pupils, the students of the Saints to the utmost capacity. The college buildings are commodious, the grounds and surroundings are beautiful, retired and attractive; the instructors competent, faithful, diligent and self-sacrificing towards their pupils; the dormitories home-like in their comfort, and the influences which surround the pupils are of the best and most wholesome character. We heartily and earnestly wish the College success. Full information may be obtained by addressing J. E. Price, secretary, at Logan.

College Circular.—We are in receipt of the circular which ushers in the ninth collegiate year of the Brigham Young College of the Saints. The circular gives the courses of study, rules of tuition, board, etc. The curriculum is extensive and the charges for tuition and board are very moderate.

The present collegiate year is divided into three terms of twelve weeks each. The Fall Term commences September 13th, the Winter Term on December 6th, the Spring Term on the 7th of March. There will be a vacation from December 24th to January 8th.

The Brigham Young College should be very truly designated as the University of the Latter-day Saints. It is one of the very few educational institutions in existence in which the true science of theology is taught, and this fact alone should fill it with pupils, the students of the Saints to the utmost capacity. The college buildings are commodious, the grounds and surroundings are beautiful, retired and attractive; the instructors competent, faithful, diligent and self-sacrificing towards their pupils; the dormitories home-like in their comfort, and the influences which surround the pupils are of the best and most wholesome character. We heartily and earnestly wish the College success. Full information may be obtained by addressing J. E. Price, secretary, at Logan.

College Circular.—We are in receipt of the circular which ushers in the ninth collegiate year of the Brigham Young College of the Saints. The circular gives the courses of study, rules of tuition, board, etc. The curriculum is extensive and the charges for tuition and board are very moderate.

The present collegiate year is divided into three terms of twelve weeks each. The Fall Term commences September 13th, the Winter Term on December 6th, the Spring Term on the 7th of March. There will be a vacation from December 24th to January 8th.

The Brigham Young College should be very truly designated as the University of the Latter-day Saints. It is one of the very few educational institutions in existence in which the true science of theology is taught, and this fact alone should fill it with pupils, the students of the Saints to the utmost capacity. The college buildings are commodious, the grounds and surroundings are beautiful, retired and attractive; the instructors competent, faithful, diligent and self-sacrificing towards their pupils; the dormitories home-like in their comfort, and the influences which surround the pupils are of the best and most wholesome character. We heartily and earnestly wish the College success. Full information may be obtained by addressing J. E. Price, secretary, at Logan.

College Circular.—We are in receipt of the circular which ushers in the ninth collegiate year of the Brigham Young College of the Saints. The circular gives the courses of study, rules of tuition, board, etc. The curriculum is extensive and the charges for tuition and board are very moderate.

The present collegiate year is divided into three terms of twelve weeks each. The Fall Term commences September 13th, the Winter Term on December 6th, the Spring Term on the 7th of March. There will be a vacation from December 24th to January 8th.

The Brigham Young College should be very truly designated as the University of the Latter-day Saints. It is one of the very few educational institutions in existence in which the true science of theology is taught, and this fact alone should fill it with pupils, the students of the Saints to the utmost capacity. The college buildings are commodious, the grounds and surroundings are beautiful, retired and attractive; the instructors competent, faithful, diligent and self-sacrificing towards their pupils; the dormitories home-like in their comfort, and the influences which surround the pupils are of the best and most wholesome character. We heartily and earnestly wish the College success. Full information may be obtained by addressing J. E. Price, secretary, at Logan.

College Circular.—We are in receipt of the circular which ushers in the ninth collegiate year of the Brigham Young College of the Saints. The circular gives the courses of study, rules of tuition, board, etc. The curriculum is extensive and the charges for tuition and board are very moderate.

The present collegiate year is divided into three terms of twelve weeks each. The Fall Term commences September 13th, the Winter Term on December 6th, the Spring Term on the 7th of March. There will be a vacation from December 24th to January 8th.

The Brigham Young College should be very truly designated as the University of the Latter-day Saints. It is one of the very few educational institutions in existence in which the true science of theology is taught, and this fact alone should fill it with pupils, the students of the Saints to the utmost capacity. The college buildings are commodious, the grounds and surroundings are beautiful, retired and attractive; the instructors competent, faithful, diligent and self-sacrificing towards their pupils; the dormitories home-like in their comfort, and the influences which surround the pupils are of the best and most wholesome character. We heartily and earnestly wish the College success. Full information may be obtained by addressing J. E. Price, secretary, at Logan.

AN OPPRESSIVE PROCEEDING.

THE SUIT AGAINST S. S. JONES, UNJUST AND TYRANNICAL.

To-day a representative of the News had a conversation with S. S. Jones, Esq., of Provo, who has been sued by the government for $48,000 for alleged violations of the timber laws.

The complaint alleges that he has consumed a certain number of cords of firewood, which is valued at $48 per cord. This wood is nearly all dead pinon pine, and has been used by Mr. Jones in burning charcoal in Spanish Fork Cannon, for mining purposes. The price put on it by the government is double what handlers will deliver it for at the mine. The wood item figures up to about $87,000.

Cedar posts are rated in the complaint at 15 cents each, lumber at its full value, viz. $15 per thousand feet and railroad ties at their full value. The government depends for its knowledge concerning the quantities of all of these, that Mr. Jones has cut or manufactured, upon information furnished by the Interior Department by agents who have compiled reports upon evidence, the character of which is known only to the agents. It is said that the nature of these reports came, and in the past has been, very materially affected by the indications of a money, and that, had Mr. Jones so preferred, he could have escaped being sued.

Concerning the main item, which is for firewood, Mr. Jones is confident of making a successful defense, as he used in the mining of the mine, to make for minor purposes. He proposes to make a strong fight, and has engaged several attorneys of Provo to conduct the defense.

THE SECOND SCHOOL DISTRICT.
 SALT LAKE CITY, July 15, 1888.
 Editor Deseret News:

Noticing in the News that the report of trustees elections have been received from all the precincts of the city excepting the second, I have requested the reporter to call on Mr. Rose, Jr., who is elected trustee of the second district, vice Geo. Pope.

F. B. BARNETT, Clerk of Trustees.

Gone to the Bad.—During the greater part of the time for nearly a year past, the firm of D. J. Williams & Co., of Price, Emery County, have had in their employment a man named C. Halvorsen, a native of Denmark, who, however, has lived in different places in this Territory for many years. He was a man of more than average intelligence, and was quite prominent and very generally respected in the community in which he resided. Since he removed to Price he has been in a straightened, almost destitute circumstance, and Williams & Company have given him employment, more out of sympathy and respect than because he was really a valuable hand.

Recently C. Halvorsen mysteriously began to suspect him of stealing goods and to money from the store, and yesterday had a search warrant issued, resulting, as we learn by private advice, in the recovery of several hundred dollars worth of goods which he had stolen. He was held in $2,000 bond to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of grand larceny.

The fall of Halvorsen from the standing of an honest man, respected by his neighbors and fellow citizens, to the low level of a thief and robber of his friends and benefactors, has constituted a profound sensation throughout Emery County.

The Iowa State Register speaks thus of the "grand old man": "In America we call a man old at 60, and are apt to be impatient under the advice or leadership of those who have passed the full meridian of vigorous youth. The thought of Gladstone, at the age of 77, marshaling the advocates of liberty and Irish home rule in Great Britain is both a reproach and a lesson to us. So man is old, who still retains, unimpaired, every mental faculty, whose heart answers quickly to every call for sympathy and best responsive to every sentiment of truth and justice, and whose feeling flows yet with the full current of gladness is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth. His career is an inspiration to every ambitious youth, an encouragement and promise to the old. Gladstone is not so far from real force and vigor as is commonly supposed. He is simply ripe. The sun of seventy-seven years have perfected and developed and matured his strength. They have kept his blood warm so that it pulsates through every vein and artery at a rapid rate, as sufficient now to supply mental and physical nourishment as in his youth