

CARRIE NATION WAS PUT OUT.

She Insisted on Asking Dowie a Question and He Told Her To Sit Down.

ZION GUARDS SURROUNDED HER

Then With the Help of Several Policemen They Marched the Great Smasher Out of the Garden.

New York, Oct. 20.—Mr. Dowie, arrayed in evening clothes, talked for two hours tonight before a great throng in Madison Square Garden, the burden of his talk being denunciation of the clergy and the press.

When he began the huge garden was crowded and the police say 6,000 persons who could not gain entrance were turned away. In half an hour, however, the crowd began to surge out, and then the police refused to admit any late comers, saying they feared a riot. It was with difficulty that any semblance of order was kept. The speaker was repeatedly interrupted with hisses and shouts of disapproval. At one point Dowie ordered the police to arrest two men in different parts of the building who had interrupted him.

Carrie Nation, who occupied a seat near the front, asked "Elijah" to answer some questions. He refused and ordered her to sit down. Dowie then praised the spirit in which Mrs. Nation had warred on the saloon, but said she used wrong methods. Mrs. Nation again demanded the privilege of asking questions. At once the Zion guards surrounded her and with the help of several policemen they ejected her.

At this several hundred persons at the back of the garden made a rush to get out. The entrance was blocked in a moment, and Dowie shouting that the way had been blocked by the crowd outside for the purpose of creating a disturbance ordered the Zionists to keep their places. He then requested the audience to be seated and after having the side exits opened he asked the audience to rise in sections and go out at the sides.

The meeting was one of continuous disorder. Dowie had announced that he would reply to an attack by Rev. Dr. James M. Buckley, published in a magazine last year, but he only referred to this subject casually. He attacked Rev. Dr. P. S. Henson, Rev. Dr. Parkhurst, J. P. Morgan and others and announced that hereafter he intended to keep the newspaper reporters out of his meetings.

Rev. Charles H. Parkhurst sent the following open letter to Dowie:

"I do not want to be presuming, but I do not think it is any more presumption in me to come and try to clarify you than it is for you to come and try to clarify New York, and I do not know which of us has taken the heavier burden. I attended your service at Madison Square Garden last evening, and I want determined to enjoy it if I could be benefited by it and go away and refuse some of the charges that I had heard alleged against you. But it was of no use; your behavior on the platform crushed every throbb of sympathy I had with you. I never heard from a public speaker such a discharge of effervescent wrath and coarse invective. I went to hear you preach the gospel, and you preached the gospel of hate. I was ashamed of you, and almost ashamed to be in your audience. It was a long way below the standard even of the cruelties that I have seen in the same garden. The only consolation I could derive was that it was so abominable and so far beyond the bounds of respectability that even those in the congregation who did not know you as a Christian would have no idea that it had anything to do with what you were saying.

"Of course, the ridiculousness of the performance was only enhanced by the immensity of your pretensions. If you claimed to be only an ordinary man there might be some hope for you even with what you call the 'rabble,' but the rabble is discriminating and can discriminate as keenly as the keenest between a prophet and a juggler, between an Elijah and a motormen. "I say this in no spirit of slander, but either your head is twisted or your heart infected, or you have blundered badly in your mission. You can not bully people into Zionism nor black-guard them into the kingdom of heaven. I hope you will take this in the kindly spirit in which it is offered, and that it will be blessed to you."

WITNESSES VERY ANGRY.

At U. S. Attorney of Porto Rico For Calling Them Perjurers.

San Juan, P. R., Oct. 21.—The witnesses who testified before the federal grand jury when it found an indictment against Collector of Customs Alonzo Gruen for having received unlawful emoluments of $2,000, and who were accused of perjury in the endorsement with which the United States Dist. Atty. Pettigall nolle prossed the indictment, are threatening to sue him for slander. The district attorney declares that he may prosecute these witnesses. The case has aroused great interest throughout the island and

RUN DOWN AND NERVOUS.

VINOL COMPLETELY RESTORED MRS. BURNS' HEALTH.

Druehl & Franken and The Smith Drug Co. Agree to Return Money.

Refund If Vinol Fails.

"Many people right here in Salt Lake City are all run down, hardly able to drag about, don't know what ails them. This condition is probably caused by a cold, or cough, which is hard to cure, over-work or too close confinement to business. Such people need Vinol," said Mr. Druehl, and the following letter is only one of many which we are constantly receiving, showing what Vinol will do.

Mrs. W. T. Burns of Memphis, Tenn., who is national press correspondent of the W. R. C., writes: "Last winter I caught a severe cold which it seemed impossible for me to get rid of. I became much run down, lost my appetite and flesh and felt nervous and irritable. Vinol was recommended, and it certainly worked wonders for me. It increased my appetite, cured my indigestion, cough and nervousness, and I sleep soundly. I consider Vinol a wonderful remedy."

Vinol cures such conditions because

It is the only preparation in the world that contains every one of the fifty odd medicinal curative elements found in fresh cod livers and without one drop of useless oil, which characterizes old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions. It imparts to a natural manner strength and vigor to every organ of the body, aids digestion and makes rich, red blood.

Vinol is not a patent medicine, everything is printed on the bottle; it contains iron, and in a highly concentrated form, all of the vitalizing properties contained in cod liver oil. It is delicious, and the weakest stomach can retain it.

We ask every run down, nervous, debilitated, aged or weak person in Salt Lake City and every person suffering from stomach troubles, hanging-coughs, bronchitis or indigestion, to try Vinol on our guarantee. It costs nothing if it fails to give satisfaction.—Druehl & Franken and Smith Drug Co.

The final action of the court is anxiously awaited. The local press sustains the grand jury in its action.

Cubans to Occupy Coast Batteries

Havana, Oct. 21.—Four coast batteries here, evacuated by American troops and delivered to Cuba, are to be occupied by Cuban artillery.

Dynamiter Couldn't Give Bonds.

Helena, Mont., Oct. 20.—Isaac Gravelle, the man arrested on the charge of being the Northern Pacific dynamiter, who took to flight before a justice today and charged with assault in the third degree, his hearing was fixed for Saturday next. Bail was fixed at $10,000, which Gravelle was unable to furnish.

J. T. Sheridan of Vose identified Gravelle today as the man he met about three weeks ago at a haystack about 30 miles from Helena, where 30 pounds of dynamite was found. He also identified one of the horses as the animal ridden by the man at the haystack.

Yellow Fever at Laredo.

Laredo, Tex., Oct. 20.—Tonight's official yellow fever bulletin shows: New cases, 20 deaths, 2 total cases to date, 431 total deaths to date. One of the victims who died today was an American, John B. Hayford, a lawyer, San Antonio, Tex. There were six deaths, six new cases and 12 suspects in Monterey on Sunday last.

Pension Clerks Promoted.

Washington, Oct. 20.—About 40 clerks employed in the pension office today received promotions and after the announcement was made, Commissioner Ware called them into his office for a lecture. He told them that they had been promoted on their respective records and immediate recommendation of their immediate superiors in office only. He advised the clerks to seek the recommendation of only their chiefs, and added that any recommendation for the advancement of an employee out of an outsider and with the knowledge of the employee would have the effect of degrading the employee from advancement. He stated that he had recently been compelled to tell a clerk that if he did not stop steering statesmen up against him he would be compelled to dismiss him.

"I am determined," he said, "that promotions shall be on merit only and not because this person may be the nephew of a senator. No man can be loaded on to the office because he can't make a living on the outside."

He concluded by saying: "There are more apples on the same tree, but they will not be shaken into the laps of those who have not earned them."

A MARRIAGE NOT MADE IN HEAVEN.

Count von Larrisch-Moennich Tells Of His Dealing With Some Matrimonial Brokers.

THEIR FEE WAS CONTINGENT.

He Did Not Win a Countess von Tamber but Wedded a Miss Saterlee Of Pennsylvania Instead.

Berlin, Oct. 20.—Count von Larrisch-Moennich, an Austrian nobleman, in testifying today against the syndicate of money lenders who are accused of attempted extortion, said that immediately after his wedding at Buffalo with Miss Mary Saterlee of Pennsylvania in June, a New York bank sent him a draft for $50,000, forwarded by the syndicate, which he refused to pay.

This count said was the beginning of prosecutions by the money lender group, which was composed of four merchants and six mortgage agents, of whom Ernest Rosenthal and Ludwig Ziner were directors of a savings bank. This draft was based on one of the several notes which the count signed in 1900, aggregating $250,000, payable on the condition that he married one of three young Countesses von Faber of Nuremberg (daughter of Baron von Faber, the famous pencil manufacturer), each reputed to have a dowry of $20,000,000.

After giving the money lenders the promissory notes the count went to Wiesbaden to court one of the Faber girls. They discouraged his advances, and later, at his own expense, the count went to America and eventually married Miss Saterlee. On motion of counsel for the defense, the case was postponed in order to summon witnesses from America.

Count von Larrisch informed the Associated Press today that the countess is in Vienna, that she knew all about the case and that she had known about it before their marriage. The count claimed as "absurd" some of the statements published in the United States that the countess intended to sue for a divorce.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 20.—The Detroit board of commerce at a general meeting tonight adopted a resolution favoring Canadian reciprocity and urging the immediate reconvening of the joint high commission for the purpose of negotiating a new reciprocity treaty with Canada.

SWINDLER BELL'S ESCAPE.

U. S. Attorney Not Satisfied with The Deputies' Story of It.

Philadelphia, Oct. 20.—United States Dist. Atty. Holland is not satisfied with the story of the escape of Alfred E. Bell, alias Crosby, the confessed mail pouch thief and swindler, who was brought from Denver to Philadelphia. The district attorney learned today direct from Deputy Baker and Davis, who had charge of Bell, the circumstances of the escape. After hearing the statements of the two men, Mr. Holland said:

"I can hardly credit the stories told by the two deputies; I can scarcely believe that such was the case. The district attorney, however, refused to discuss what flaws appeared to him in the statements of the deputies. In his statement to the district attorney, Deputy Davis said neither he nor Deputy Baker had ever been in Philadelphia before. According to the records of the United States marshal's office, Davis was in Philadelphia on April 24, 1900, having brought to this city T. J. Stewart, a national bank robber who had been arrested in Denver. Bell is still at large, no trace of his whereabouts having been discovered.

INVESTIGATING PROTECTION.

Mr. Chamberlain's Agent in United States for That Purpose.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—The Tribune today says: "Representatives of Joseph Chamberlain, for whom he is investigating the results of the protective tariff in the United States, Ernest Augustus Hamlyn of the Hampshire Artillery company of London,

Stop tearing your throat! One dose of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

reached Chicago last night. The results of Mr. Hamlyn's investigations thus far are embodied in a preliminary report which he forwarded to London from Chicago. In it he declares the commercial greatness of this country is due to the tariff, adding that it would be "the salvation of England."

Mr. Hamlyn summarized his report to Mr. Chamberlain as follows: "Your protective tariff policy will be the salvation of England. The manufacturers and tradesmen I have seen during 6,000 miles of travel, while visiting the trade centers in this country, frankly admit that it will be best for England."

The report concludes with an offer by Mr. Hamlyn to contribute $500 to a fund with which to bring to America 100 English workmen from 50 manufacturing cities to study the effects of a tariff on the wages and living expenses of the working class.

Sam Parks Again Indicted.

New York, Oct. 20.—Another indictment was returned today against Sam Parks, the walking delegate. This time Parks is indicted for perjury, it being alleged that he committed the crime during his own trial when he swore that he did not see Josephus Plentz, the New Jersey contractor, pay over $200 in cash, which it is alleged Parks received for ending the strike.

United States May Protect Belgium

New York, Oct. 21.—Baron Moncheux, Belgian minister to the United States, arrived today on the steamer Kronland from Antwerp. He was shown the city of Brussels dispatch stating that Belgium was willing to give important commercial privileges to America in trade with China, Japan and Korea, provided that the United States would give Belgium her protection out there. He said:

"I believe that statement is true, though I am not prepared to give details."

ANGLO-FRENCH TREATY.

It is Only the Beginning of What Is Soon to Come.

New York, Oct. 21.—In regard to the Anglo-French arbitration treaty, just concluded, Baron D'Estournelles de Constant is quoted by a Herald dispatch from Paris as having said:

"This convention is only the beginning of what is to come. Negotiations are in progress for four other treaties of a similar nature with Italy, Holland, Sweden and Norway. There is nothing in the way for a speedy conclusion of a treaty with Italy. In a few months, perhaps even earlier, the clauses will be settled and the agreement may be published before the visit of President Loubet to Rome. As regards Holland and the government of that country, as well as of Sweden and Norway, proposed a treaty of arbitration long ago, but no action was taken in the matter by France. This is now being done."

"The United States helped the cause of peace by submitting the first case to The Hague tribunal and I believe American statesmen would do well to come into closer contact with Europe. On this ground I have been invited to visit America next year. I shall go to the St. Louis fair and deliver a series of lectures on the subject. My main object will be to obtain the formation in America of a group of congressmen favorable to arbitration, who will afterward visit France and help the great movement for the world-wide adoption of arbitration between nations."

The Medicine That Cures

Forty years ago Dr. Joseph Rhodes Buchanan was at the head of the leading medical college at Cincinnati. He afterwards became a leader for his time in medical research at New York, Boston and San Francisco. His widow, Dr. E. Buchanan, survives him and she is also an able writer and lecturer. She is an authority on the science of medicine and certainly appreciates the great work physicians are doing for the relief of sufferers. But this does not deter her from expressing her views in praise of Wine of Cardui. No woman could say more than this:

Wine of Cardui absolutely does cure sick women. I consider it the most valuable medicine, and it is the cheapest cure any sick woman can use, as it takes as a rule, only a very few bottles to effect a complete and profuse or scanty menstruation and it is a most valuable adjunct to recovery.

It should have a place in every home as it is a true friend to wife, mother and maiden and I most heartily recommend it.

Mrs. Buchanan's high intelligence and long and successful experience render her advice of great value. Wine of Cardui regulates menstruation, cures bearing down pains and relieves suffering women of the pain and misery to which their sex is heir. You have the word of Dr. Buchanan and thousands of other eminent women that Wine of Cardui will completely cure you. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
