FRIGHTFUL DEATH BY FIRE.

Miss Della Biggs the Victim - Serious Gunpowder Accident. Special Correspondence. Franklin, Onelda Co., Idaho, July 15 We have had two terrible accidents recently at Franklin, by fire, one proving fatal. On Tuesday last a young man by the name of Nephi Hampton was up on Sugar creek herding sheep in company with another boy. They had some powder with them and Nephi had a pound can in his hands, and was on his knees on the ground, while the other had poured some out of the can on to the ground and touched it off. The wind blew the flame towards Nephi and the can of powder caught fire and exploded with terrific effect, tearing both of his hands to pleces, and he was burnt on his face badly. At first it was thought that he would lose one hand. He was taken down to Franklin to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hampton, and Dr. Adamson was sent for, who dressed the wounds, and it is thought that both hands will be saved. The boy is doing well so far.

The judge scored the jurors roundly or not following the testimony which warranted a verdict of guilty as charged. Thn addressing himself to the prisoner the judge delivered to him such a scathing lecture as only Judge Mc-Carty can. He said the jurors had wilfully made of justice a mockery and of the law a farce, and that the public's misfortune was Swigart's good fortune, for the state's evidence, added to his own confessions, had proved him to the minds of all unbiased men to be guilty of the crime with which he had been charged, and it was a burning shame that under the verdict returned the law permitted the judge to impose a sentence of only three months in the coun-

Colonia Morelas, Sonora, Mexico, July 4.-For the first time in the history of this colony a funeral procession has been seen to wend its way ground which has been dedicated as 3rd. The circumstances surrounding his death are sad and distressing, and called forth the deepest sympathy of the community. In company with other "Mormon" boys, James had been laboring for some time at Haco. Dur-ing his labors he contracted a severe cold, which resulted in inflammation of the bowels. Not being in a condition to work, he in company with three of his companions started for home, dis tant upwards of 225 miles. On their homeward journey, although not con-sidered seriously III, James complained of much suffering, but sat up and drove team part of the way. On arriving here they thought to rest up for a few hours and then journey on. The young man expressed himself as feeling much better and hoped they could continue the journey in a few hours. A few moments later Elder Nathan Robinson, who was in company with the boys, called at the wagon to see how James was feeling, and to his sad surprise found the boy had closed his eyes in death. The parents were still distant upwards of 150 miles with no direct way of apprising them of the sad event. Arrangements were hastly made and James was laid away with the fondest care kind friends could bestow and all that loving hands sive promise of a good return. The town is in a prosperous condition.
