

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THESE PUBLISHERS writing for publication are not responsible for the contents of the paper only. No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Correspondents' names must in every instance accompany their communications, and are not necessary for publication, but as a guarantee of reliability.

THEATRICAL.—This evening "The Ragged Dicks" will be performed. It is a long time since this favorite drama has been played here, and when performed it was a great favorite, and a decided success. There are a number of excellent parts in it, which are well cast. Mr. McKenzie playing Father Jean, Mr. Lindsay Pierre Garouso, Miss Adams Marie, Mrs. Alexander Maragran, and Mrs. Bowring Madame Polard. The story is the capital one of "A Ragged Dick" with an excellent distribution of characters.

REXITT.—Mr. J. C. Graham, the popular comedian, is up for a benefit on Tuesday night, and has a splendid bill in preparation. The excellent Burlesque of "Jack in the Water," with Mr. Graham as the hero, leads the bill. Then comes a recitation and a fancy dance, and a good old English comedy "A Royal Obedience," concludes the entertainment, making a fine variety bill.

FIGHTING INDIANS.—The following we clip from the Denver Tribune:
"An heroic frontiersman, named Fickey, who was thrice wounded by Indians on Plum Creek, came into town recently. It appears from his story that he was driving along one of the highways of that region in a lumber wagon, accompanied by his boy, some seven or eight years of age, when suddenly the Indians surrounded them, cracking away with their guns and revolvers. Having a Spencer rifle with only one cartridge, he fired at the nearest, knocking him out of the saddle, then springing from the wagon, and telling the boy to lay down flat and slip the horses into a dead run, he climbed his rifle and began whacking at them right and left with all his might. A great many shots were fired at him, three of which took effect, but he succeeded in mashing in the skull of one gentle savage, and otherwise damaging several others, and the enemy finding him a dangerous fellow to fool with soon drew off their forces. He retreated in good order keeping his gun constantly pointed at the foe. At length they caught him a second time, when the old timer was rescued, to the complete discomfiture of the entire band."

SURGICAL.—Bro. Wm. E. Baker, of West Weber, informs us that a child of his who had the misfortune to be born with a "hare lip," was successfully operated upon by Dr. Anderson, assisted by Dr. Bernheim, and that the child is now well and bids fair to recover perfectly from the effects of the operation and from the disfigurement. The operation is one which requires considerable skill and dexterity to successfully perform.

SHOOTING.—The Cheyenne Leader of the 10th has the account of a shooting case in a car of one of the U. P. R. R. trains, on last Saturday evening, by which a young man lost his life. The victim was involved in the matter. Before reaching Haxard Station the conductor in collecting tickets was threatened by a man named Richard Dalmage, who drew a revolver on him for asking the ticket. The conductor pacified him, and after a time again asked for the ticket with the same result. Finally he got into a struggle with the man, who then drew a second revolver and shot him. The man named Henry Grid who died the next day. Dalmage was placed in charge of the military at Fort Sanders.

QUIET AGAIN.—"The street" seemed to have resumed its condition of semi-quietness, or Saturday business to-day, most of our numerous friends who were in at conference having returned home. Several hundred pedestrians and a few score of wagons and wagons, gave a little life to the scene.

"THE OVERLAND MONTHLY."—We have received the October number of this magazine, from the publishers, A. Rompage & Co. It opens with a paper on the subject popular in this western country. "What the railroad will bring us." The future of California, and especially of San Francisco, is dwelt upon in connection with the junction of the two lines of railway now meeting from the east and west, and the vast commerce and traffic which will cross it. "The vineyards of California" is an article that will repay perusal by our horticulturists and vine-growers. "Did Sir Francis Drake discover San Francisco Bay?" is a well-written effort to give the great English circumnavigator the credit of having discovered and spent thirty-six days in San Francisco Bay, in the summer of 1579. "The story of a dictator," "Confessions of a Sublimity," "The old East and the new West," "Old Texan days," "At home and abroad," and "The gentleman from Reno," are very readable articles, and the number fully sustains the reputation of its predecessors.

Mr. Dwyer, of the Railroad News Depot in this city, has also laid a copy on our table. He has them for sale.

IS THE COLD.—We noticed an "establishment" to-day out in the cold—out in the street—away from home—strayed; but with prospects of being taken care of. E. Stevenson's tin shop was on the move, and came to a stand in the middle of East Temple Street. We wait further development of the matter.

Died:
In this city, on Thursday morning, October 8, Henry James, son of John and Ann Maria Sharp, aged 3 years, 4 months and 2 days. The funeral will take place on Sunday, at 10 a.m. Friends are invited to attend.
[MIL. Star, please copy.]

In this city, Sunday morning, October 4th, Claude D., son of William and Anna Brown, aged 1 year, 4 months and 2 days.
In St. George, Sept. 23, Benjamin Johnson, only son of Benjamin and Anna Johnson, born in Santiago, Sep. 23, 1899.
Deceased was almost instantly killed by being caught in the sweep of a molasses mill. He was a faithful son, and a promising lad, and his sudden death cast a gloom over the whole neighborhood in which he lived; and his father wishes this notice published, as a warning to all parents to keep their children out of danger.

In Tooele, Oct. 5th, of fever and diarrhea, Mary Agnes, daughter of Philip and Jeannette DeLaMare, aged 1 year, 8 months and 23 days.
Also, on Oct. 5th, Hyrum, son of Philip and Mary De La Mare, aged 1 year and 2 days.

Special Notices.
The establishment of Messrs. Brown & Mathews, Merchant Tailors, of Chicago, is well worth the attention of our business men and others going east; and the visit of Mr. Mathews to this city should not be permitted to pass without his receiving orders that will give him a connection in our Territory that will be of mutual benefit. The best materials of the European markets are imported by them, and they furnish to measure every article in the outfitting line. They have unusual facilities for supplying uniforms, and will furnish bands and military organizations at reasonable prices. Every article of uniform required in the United States Army, from a Second Lieutenant's forage cap to a General's complete uniform, with promptness. Mr. Mathews has with him a full line of samples. He is stopping at the Town and Country House.
