Local and Other Matters.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY, JAN. 14.

For Europe.—A dispatch from Elder Geo. H. Taylor says the missionaries sailed to-day from New York for Europe on the Guion steamer Wyoming. All were well.

Address Changed.—The present address of Brother Edward Brain is: No. 4 Drummond Terrace, Fishponds, Bristol, England. So we learn from the Millennial Star of Dec. 23.

In England.—From a letter to Elder Joseph F. Smith, we learn that Elder E. M. Curtis arrived at Queenstown, Ireland, on the 2nd inst. He crossed the Ocean in the steamer Montana, nine days and five hours being required for the passage from New York.

The Utah Ladies.—In the telegraphic dispatches in another column will be found a report of a visit to President Hayes from the Utah lady delegates, in company with some others, members of the National Women's Convention. They tell him plainly what he is expected to do.

From Nephi.—A correspondent at Nephi writes to us that a number of young men have employed themselves in hauling wood to give to the poor, and that as a mark of appreciation of these benevolent actions, the members of the Young Ladies' Improvement Association tendered the benefactors a complimentary dinner and dance. Some sense in the Nephi folks.

The Indians.—An eastern illustrated paper publishes an expressive cartoon on the present condition of the Indians, with General Sheridan's remark, "For humanity's sake let us give him (the Indian) enough to eat, and integrity in the agents over him." The late outbreak indicates what the poor redskins can do if driven to desperation, and threatening language is reported from some chiefs, who say they will die before submitting to the oppression under which the officers of the government seem determined to bring them. Unless a change is adopted in the Indian policy a sanguinary war is imminent. The truth of President Young's remark, "it is cheaper to feed than to fight the Indians," may be discovered too late by the United States government.

New Names.—An order of the military authorities has changed the names of the posts and stations in the west, as follows:

DEPARTMENT OF DAKOTA.

The new post near Milk River, Montana, will be known as Fort Assinaboine.

Post on Bear Butte Creek, Dakota, as Fort Meade.

Camp Baker, Montana, as Fort Logan.

Post at Standing Rock Indian agency, Dakota, as Fort Yates.

Post at Cheyenne River agency, Dakota, as Fort Bennett.

Post at Lower Brule agency, Dakota, as Fort Hale.

DEPARTMENT OF THE PLATTE.

Omaha barracks, Nebraska, as Fort Omaha.

Sidney barracks, Nebraska, as Fort Sidney.

Camp Brown, Wyoming, as Fort Washakie.

Camp Douglas, Utah, as Fort Douglas.

Camp Robinson, Nebraska, as Fort Robinson.

DEPARTMENT OF MISSOURI.

Camp Supply, Indian Territory, as Fort Supply.

Camp near Pagasa Springs, Colorado, as Fort Lewis.

DEPARTMENT OF TEXAS.

Ringgold barracks, Texas, as Fort Ringgold.

Supreme Court.—The following business in the Supreme Court was transacted yesterday:

Edward Anthony et al.; respondents, vs. C. R. Savage, appellant; a motion in writing in behalf of the respondents, to strike out a part of the abstract of the record of this cause, and a request to determine the sufficiency of the said abstract were argued. Submitted and taken under advisement.

James Robbins, respondent, vs. Washburn Chipman et al., appellants; the mandate of the Supreme Court of the United States having been duly filed, whereby it appears the writ of error removing this cause to said Supreme Court, has been dismissed, it is now here ordered that said cause be remanded to the District Court of the First District to be there proceeded with in accordance with the judgment of this court heretofore rendered herein.

Thomas McLelland, administrator of the estate of Charles Roper, deceased, respondent, vs. James T. Dickinson et al., impleaded with others, appellants; a written suggestion of deficiencies in the records of this cause and motion to supply the same, were argued, submitted and taken under advisement.

On motion, the following gentlemen were admitted to practice at the supreme court: Rufus K. Williams, Mr. McBride, Robert B. Tripp, John A. Marshall, Alex. G. Sutherland.

By consent the appeal in the case of John P. Lawson et al., vs. John W. Kerr et al., was dismissed.

The case of the People vs. Samuel Barnes was placed at the foot of the calendar.

Court adjourned till 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY, JAN. 15.

Oregon-Butte.—After the adjournment of the Supreme Court yesterday afternoon, Judge Schaeffer in chambers heard arguments in the above-named mining controversy.

No Better.—We are informed that the family and friends of Bro. Dimick B. Huntington consider his condition about the same as when last noticed, though he thinks that he is much improved.

The Exponent.—No. 16 of the Woman's Exponent, the number for January 15, is just issued from the press, and a copy has been laid on our table. It is filled as usual with good and instructive reading matter for the ladies, and, as the champion of their rights, is a journal of which they may well feel proud.

Supreme Court.—The following business was transacted in the Supreme Court yesterday, after which an adjournment was taken to this morning at 10 o'clock:

E. Anthony vs. C. R. Savage; the certificate and stipulation on the last page of the abstract were ordered stricken out, and the appellant furnished another abstract of the record.

W. Bringham, vs. the Utah Coal Mining and Coke Company; the petition for a rehearing on the motion to dismiss the appeal was taken under advisement.

William Nelson, vs. William Clayton; submitted on the briefs and taken under advisement.

L. Livingston, vs. C. Madsen, et al.; Madsen being dead, his administrators were made parties to the suit.

W. N. Dusenberry was admitted to the bar of the Supreme Court.

The Court approved the accounts of the United States Marshal, provided in the presence of the District Attorney.

The Right Feeling.—We have been permitted to read a letter from a lawyer in the East to his cousin, who is a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, living in this city. The former gentleman writes that though our religion has been misrepresented and slandered and the members of our Church persecuted and maligned, yet, after all, he is satisfied that we are right, and says we will continue to maintain our integrity and organization to the end. The pretensions and pride of the so-called Christians in his neighborhood have disgusted him, and he now regrets that he did not come out with us when he left home on his search after truth. The letter is indicative of a thinking mind, and is filled with good wishes for the prosperity of this people. It is gratifying to see that eminent men and women in all parts of the world are beginning to manifest an interest in the gospel, and though violent opposition is met with in many quarters, we should steadily devote our time to the better preparation of ourselves for what we are required of us, being satisfied that on the closest scrutiny our principles can not be found wanting in the slightest particular, or the divine recognition of them in the least questioned.

Coasting.—In all parts of the city, at this time, where a gentle declivity is convenient, is found a large number of boys with their sleds, who assemble to indulge in what is really a pleasant pastime. And while we do not wish to speak against the enjoyment of the youth in any legitimate manner, we must mention the fact that unless more with an accident, and perhaps a very serious one. The practice of coasting is always disagreeable and dangerous on streets where pedestrians are continually passing; but in certain places in the 18th and 19th Wards it is especially so, because the speed acquired in descending the hills carries the boys across the streets and street car tracks where teams and the horse cars are continually traveling to and fro. A case came under our own observation where a little boy was carried right under the feet of a passing team. Had not the horses become frightened and turned around, the boy's death would, in all probability, have been the result. Many will remember that a few years ago a boy was run over and killed in the 17th ward in this very manner. A moment's reflection will convince any one that where teams and pedestrians are steadily moving by, such practices as we allude to must be stopped, or bad consequences will be almost certain to follow.

Since writing the above we hear that a son of Bishop John Henry Smith was coasting in the 17th Ward yesterday afternoon, and in attempting to steer out of the way of another sled, struck his head against the corner of it and received a dreadful cut. He was taken home insensible, but afterwards rallied.

We also hear that a boy had his leg broken on the same hill last evening. The particulars we are unable to obtain.

Museum.—Mrs. Martha J. Coray writes from Mona, Juab County, respecting an Indian relic noticed in our columns, as having been found in that locality and presented to the Museum. Sister Coray states that the stone implement, found at a depth of two and a half feet, was struck against by a plow when excavating for a canal. It is a very curious-looking stone implement, resembling a war club in shape, about 22 inches in length, 12 1/2 inches in girth, tapering to the handle, which terminates in a knob. It seems that the implement had been placed upright in the ground like a tombstone, and was close to a patch of earth which looked like a place where some one had been buried. Sister Coray suggests that it may have been an ancient grave. Fragments of bone were subsequently found, and dark deposits of earth, in the immediate vicinity. All of these facts are very interesting and worthy of being placed on record, especially as coming from a lady, who is a close observer and whose statements can be relied on.

The history of the former races who lived in these valleys is at present unwritten, and everything calculated to throw light on the past should be preserved for future reference.

This interesting relic was found near the foot of Mount Nebo, on the western slope of that venerable old mountain, tending toward Salt Creek. It is already attracting the attention of intelligent visitors to this city, who desire to become acquainted with ethnological facts relating to the pre-historic races.

The curator also acknowledges the receipt of the Annual Catalogue of Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Maine, for 1878-9. Also coins received from Dr. J. S. Richards, among which may be named a copper medal of George II. date 1745. The obverse represents the king, the reverse shows the islands of Great Britain surrounded by ships and a sword held aloft directed menacingly towards the highlands of Auld Scotia, alluding to the landing of the Pretender in that part of the British dominions.

City Council.—Last evening the City Council met at the usual time, Mayor Little presiding. The following business was transacted:

A petition was received from Henry Wagner, representing that owing to pressing business, etc., he had been unable to make the necessary improvement on his awning, and asked that he be allowed until more favorable weather to make the alterations required, and he will have the improvements made in spring. Received and laid on the table.

A petition was received from Henry Wagner, asking that he be allowed to leave his empty beer kegs on the sidewalk until he can have them removed to his brewery. The petition was received and laid on the table.

A petition was received from J. K. Trumbo, asking that an auctioneer's license be granted him for one year. Petition received and the prayer thereof was granted.

A petition was received from Mrs. Mary George, asking that her job wagon license be given her for the year as she was in rather poor circumstances. Petition granted.

The committee to whom was referred the chief engineer's annual report, reported that they had examined the same, and recommended that the annual appropriation of $500 to the firemen be made; that the water tanks in the city be cleaned out; that additional hose be purchased as soon as possible, and that the chief engineer be allowed to have his report printed; they also reported that they found great care was taken of the property of the department by the members thereof, and all the apparatus was in good condition. The report was accepted and the recommendations thereof adopted.

The committee to whom was referred the city sexton's report for 1878, reported that they had examined it and recommended that an appropriation of $99.20 be made to cover the deficiency; also recommending an appropriation for the improvements suggested by the sexton to be made in the coming spring. Adopted.

The salary of the clerk in the assessor's and recorder's offices for the year was appropriated.

The bill of Wm. Hyde, jailor, for feeding prisoners—1,796 meals at 10 cents per meal—$179.60, was presented, and the amount thereof appropriated.

The council then took up the bill for an ordinance controlling the distribution of waters flowing into the city, which was read, and pending consideration, was laid over for one week.

The Council adjourned till next Tuesday evening, at 6.30 o'clock.
