SAMUEL M. BARRATT DEAD.

Sudden Demise of a Useful Young Man of Seventeenth Ward.

Hemorrhage of the Lungs Carries Cff an Indefatigable Worker-Funeral Tomorrow Afternoon.

Samuel M. Barratt dled at his home esterday morning with hemorrhage of he lungs. The sudden death of this ung man was such a severe shock oung man was such a gever show o his mother that her condition has become serious, and the hosts of friends of "Sam" Barratt will be at a loss to ind expression for their grief. It was not generally known that he was even cick, having been seized with his first ittack last Thursday, Although he had suffered some irritation with his lungs on Wednesday, he went to his work the next day, but before evening e was lying upon his death bed. Dr. Vright, the family physician, assisted by Drs, Richards and Beatty, did all that they could for him, but the con-lition of the young man continued to grow worse, and on Saturday night the heartbroken mother realized that the pall of death was hanging over the bed of her darling son. The love and de-votion of those two people was poetic in its tenderness. The mother's only

A coincidence worthy of note is the fact that his father died some years ago on Christmas day.

The deceased was one of the most useful members of the Seventeenth ward. He was the president of the M. I. A., and chorister and teacher in the Sunday school. A few years ago he performed a faithful mission in Engand. He was religious in his nature, never affecting a piety that he did not el, but he was naturally a good young ian. He was honest, upright and ighminded, evincing no element of the or the purse proud, although he vas heir to a goodly fortune. MISS LEVY'S MARRIAGE. It Took Place Secretly at Farmington On December 10.

A shock of surprise was sent through the community on Christmas day when the announcement was made that Miss Lottle Levy, the well known singer, and daughter of Mr. Sam Levy, had been clandestinely married to Mr. Ferdinand Kahn, bookkeeper in the store of Kahn Bros. The marriage took place on the 10th at Farmington, Elder Nephi Pal-mer officiating. After the ceremony the young lady returned to her home and the young man resumed his place at his desk. Miss Levy appeared in public as usual and sang in orchestral concert at the Grand, giving no Intima-tion to any one of the step she had tak en. The affair remained a secret till Christmas eve, when Mr. and Mrs. Levy were made acquainted with the facts, and Mr. and Mrs. Kuhn then went to he Manitou hotel where they are now esiding. The parents were naturally ently affected by the sudden an-

TRAVELING PASSENGER AG'T

Appointment Was Made Dec. 11, but Has Been Kept Quiet-Railroad News.

The successor to T. J. Clark, traveling bassenger agent of the Rock Island with headquarters in Salt Lake City, who was recently appointed general agent for the same road in Los Angeles, is expected to arrive in this city this afternoon in the person of E. Drake. It has leaked out that Mr. Drake was appointed traveling passenger agent, Rock Island, December 11th. He has been cleaning up his business in Kansas during the past two weeks preparatory to moving to this city. Beyond the fact that prior to his appointment he was division passenger agent for the Rock Island, with headquarters at Wichlita, Kans., no further information is forthcoming.

If this plan is followed, the main line of the system will come west from Wyoming, enter the Lost rives section and pass through Custer county to a point near Goat Lake. The Sawtooth will be tunneled and the road will follow down the south fork of the Payette. From Goat lake the line will run down the Salmon, following closely the route laid out for the Midland. This line will probably be connected up with the sys-tem at Billings. Business between coast points and the Montana region will pass over this line.

The road will reach Boise by a stub from Emmett. It is said that the Idaho Northern is an indirect factor in the plan; and that another feature of the general program is the suppression of the Midland project. MRS, SMITH'S PLAINT.

Emma J. Smith filed a divorce suit against Benjamin J. Smith, in the Third district court today, praying for an annulment of the marriage ties on the ground of failure to support. The complaint alleges that plaintiff and defendant married each other in this city on Christmas day, 1899. Ever since the day of the marriage, the com-plainant further alleges, defendant has failed to provide his wife with the common necessaries of life, compelling plaintiff to live upon the charity of her friends and relatives, notwithstanding the is an able-bodied man abundantly able to support a wife. Plaintiff's malden name was Rhodes, and she prays that she may be allowed to resume it. She also prays for alimony, suit money. attoreny fees and costs. Judge Samuel McDowall is Mrs. Smith's attorney.

WANT THE CASE REVIEWED

Isaac Bagg and Wife of Bingham, Petition the District Court.

Claim They Were Taken Advantage of in a Certain Action in Justice Morris Sommer's Court.

Isaac Bagg and wife, residents of Bingham, have petitioned the district court for a writ of certioriari directed against Morris Sommer, justice of the peace for the Second precinct, who, it is alleged in the affidavit accompanying the petition, exceeded his jurisdiction and acted without jurisdiction in the case of E.Lichtenstein vs Isaac Bagg. an action to recover $299. Petitioners say that they were not served with a summons, although the return made by constable Brig. E. West certifies that personal service was made on Isaac Bagg on March 31st, 1900. Judgment was rendered against the Baggs on April 11, 1900, and on December 14th, Joseph Lippman, attorney for Lichtenstein, rocured an order in supplemental pro-eedings directing Bagg and his wife to appear before Justice Sommer and testify in regard to the property they Through mistake and inadvertence the parties did not appear, when petitioners say they were served with a writ of attachment, Constable West notifying them that they were under arrest. Affiants then go on to say that they are unable to read or understand the English language, but that they were persuaded by West and another man named Anderson, who acwere under arrest. They further claim that they were compelled to pay their own fares to and from Bingham. tice Sommer, afflants say, notwith-standing their objections to his nonjurisdiction, fined Mrs. Bage one day in the county jail and $25 costs for nonappearance and on the hearing and examination at the proceedings alleged to an additional one day's imprisonment and $50 for refusing to answer a question that she was instructed by her at tornev. Frank Hoffman, not to answer on the ground that Justice Sommer had no jurisdiction. Bagg was fined $100 and two days' imprisonment on similar grounds.
