

BIG FISTIC BATTLE IN OGDEN TONIGHT

Battling Nelson and Jack Clifford
Now Ready for the Gong.

FIERCE FIGHT IS EXPECTED

Both Men in the Pink of Condition
And Confident of Victory—Many Salt Lakers Going.

All is in readiness for the big fistic encounter at Ogden tonight between Battling Nelson and Jack Clifford, and barring an accident or a chance blow early in the bout the fans will see one of the fiercest ring battles in the history of such events in the Junction City.

That the principals are in the pink of physical condition and ready and eager to get at each other to settle the question of supremacy there is not the slightest doubt. Both have trained carefully for the struggle and have left nothing undone to fit themselves for a vicious battle.

"I am advising my friends to place a bet on me," said Clifford this morning, "am doing this because I firmly believe I will defeat Nelson tonight. If I do not win it will be because Nelson is a better man. I know he is a tough one and all that, but those who think he can stand up under my punches have another guess coming. I know that he can not. I do not beat him I will be ready to quit the ring."

"I am advising my friends to place a bet on me," said Clifford this morning, "am doing this because I firmly believe I will defeat Nelson tonight. If I do not win it will be because Nelson is a better man. I know he is a tough one and all that, but those who think he can stand up under my punches have another guess coming. I know that he can not. I do not beat him I will be ready to quit the ring."

"Well, I'm not dumb," replied the famous Dane, "but I haven't a word to say except that I will do my talking tonight with my fists. I'm not worrying a little bit. Clifford is a good puncher but—well, my fists will tell my story."

Referee Pollock has had a conference with the two men and they have thoroughly understood the rules under which the fight will be governed.

Two special trains will leave Salt Lake at 7 o'clock this evening for Ogden. One is over the Rio Grande and the other the Short Line. They are expected to leave Ogden immediately after the fight. A large crowd of Salt Lakers are going up on the special. Several local fans went up today, and the trains picked up quite a crowd at Farmington and other points along the road.

RIFLE CLUB SHOOT.

Johnson 80 82 73 75 75 4-5
Van Arman 72 74 76 78 78 4-5
C. S. Letchfield 77 77 74 82 74
K. Hirschvogel 71 78 80 73 80 2-3
F. Letchfield 69 69 67 73 82 2-3
T. O. Angell 62 67 61 61 62 4-5
Stenzel 66 63 70 61 61 1-2
Shepherd 62 64 62 61 61 1-2

MATCH NOT LIKELY.

Joe Gans Would Be Foolish to Take
On Young Ketchell.

Chicago, Jan. 12.—Followers of pugilism believe that Joe Gans has no intention of making good his offer to meet Stanley Ketchell, welterweight champion of the Pacific coast, at 145 pounds at 3 o'clock. Ketchell is one of the strongest and hardest hitting fighters of the day, and while he is undoubtedly best at 150 pounds he appears willing and eager to take on the lightweight. It would be a dangerous proposition for Gans to take on the westerner, and for that reason conservative fans believe that a match between the pair will never be made.

MONEY IN ATHLETICS.

University of Colorado Association is
$1,870.97 to the Good.

Boulder, Colo., Jan. 12.—The University of Colorado Athletic Association is at present $1,870.97 to the good, all bills having been paid, and this surplus remaining after paying the graduate manager $44.

BABY'S VOICE

It is the joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. How sweet the picture of mother and babe, angels smile at and commend the thoughts and aspirations of the mother bending over the cradle. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so full of danger and suffering that she looks forward to the hour when she shall feel the exquisite thrill of motherhood with indescribable dread and fear. Every woman must know that the danger, pain and horror of child-birth can be entirely avoided by the use of Mother's Friend, a scientific liniment for external use only, which toughens and renders pliable all the parts, and assists nature in its sublime work. By its aid thousands of women have passed this great crisis in perfect safety and without pain. Sold at $1.00 per bottle by druggists. Our book of priceless value to all women sent free. Address GRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

Confidentially, we are confident that Confidence is returning, by the way the people are buying our

$2.95 & $1.95
Special Shoes

They have Confidence in what we say and what we have to sell.

124 MAIN Robinson Bros. Co. 124 MAIN

Do You Enjoy Your Meals?

One of the Most Important Questions to Consider in the Search for Happiness and Health.

The burning question, to you, is, "Are you getting out of life all the pleasure and the health you are entitled to?" If not, why not?

No matter whether every organ and member of your body is in a sound state of health and strength, if your stomach is in any way disordered, you are not going to be "yourself." You are going to be a worried, out-of-sorts, nervous or sullen individual, whose actions will reflect your condition inside, and people will naturally avoid you.

The world wants to smile and be cheerful, and unless you are cheerful and smile, at least occasionally, you will have few friends, fewer opportunities, no success and you will go down in defeat—defeated by dyspepsia and a bad stomach.

A good and thorough digestion has a quick, wonderful reaction upon the brain. You must have noticed it many times, for the brain and stomach are as intimately connected as a needle and its thread, one can hardly be used to advantage without the other.

Your stomach is slow and lazy in digesting your food, it will produce at once a slow, lazy and cloudy influence upon your brain. Mark it! If your stomach is absolutely quit work, acid fermentation is poisoning your vitals as a result, surely your brain is going to be sluggish and corresponding depression. No one need tell you that.

But why continue to suffer all the miseries and torments that a disordered stomach brings you?

If your stomach can not digest your food, what will? Where's the relief? Where's the cure?

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the relief and the cure. Why? Because, as all stomach troubles arise from indigestion and because one ingredient of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is able to THOROUGHLY and COMPLETELY DIGEST 3,000 GRAINS of any kind of food, doesn't it stand to reason that the result of this scientific discovery. They digest and digest thoroughly and well, anything and everything you eat.

So, if your stomach refuses to work or can't work, and you suffer from crickings, bloating, flatulence, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn, irritation, indigestion, or dyspepsia of what ever form, just take one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and the difference. It doesn't cost you much to prove it. Then you can eat all you want, what you want, whenever you want, if you use these tablets, look, you can eat and enjoy life with the face with a beaming eye and you will have a cheerful spirit, a pleasant face, a vigorous body and a clear mind and memory and everything will look and taste delicious.

Get a package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store on earth for 50c a package.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package, free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

as against $44 last year, and the advisory cost $500, against $200.

At the beginning of the present season the association was down to $1,200 which was the loss on the spring athletic. The money is partly invested in school war bonds bearing 6 per cent interest, and it is safe to say that the association is now for the first time in its history in a position in which it can begin to make investments, as even after the regular losses from the spring athletics are paid the treasury will have a large sum in its possession.

Graduate Manager Warren H. Bleeker, who submitted his report today, is now serving his second year in office, and the financial showing is made. The variety of the receipts of the larger teams were as follows: Denver, $1,200; Agassiz, $417; Nebraska, $962; Colorado college $963; Utah, $708; Mines, $3,490.

ATHLETICS AND MORALS.

Aside from its physical effect, the moral effect of athletics in the case of the soldier, at least, is of no small value. My experience has been that men are less likely to drink in the football or baseball season, even though they may be addicted to the use of intoxicants, and this though no special effort may have been made along these lines by those in charge of the sports. The class of men who go in for athletics and excel in such contests are the most desirable soldiers and the most reliable in the line of duty.

Vantage of athletics is that good athletic teams and the reputation for a post of having champion teams draw good recruits and soldiers to enlist there—Army and Navy Life.

THE JOY OF THE HOUSEHOLD.

It is the joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. How sweet the picture of mother and babe, angels smile at and commend the thoughts and aspirations of the mother bending over the cradle. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so full of danger and suffering that she looks forward to the hour when she shall feel the exquisite thrill of motherhood with indescribable dread and fear. Every woman must know that the danger, pain and horror of child-birth can be entirely avoided by the use of Mother's Friend, a scientific liniment for external use only, which toughens and renders pliable all the parts, and assists nature in its sublime work. By its aid thousands of women have passed this great crisis in perfect safety and without pain. Sold at $1.00 per bottle by druggists. Our book of priceless value to all women sent free. Address GRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

Confidentially, we are confident that Confidence is returning, by the way the people are buying our

$2.95 & $1.95
Special Shoes

They have Confidence in what we say and what we have to sell.

124 MAIN Robinson Bros. Co. 124 MAIN

Uncle Sam's Forest Charges Taken Back to Gorge on Native Heath.

AMERICA FOR CHRISTMAS.

Major Burke, Noted Gastronomist, Compares Holiday Cuisines of Various Lands, Glory to Columbia.

Special Correspondence.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 3.—Uncle Sam's herd of 15 buffaloes which were taken from the New York Zoological Gardens to the Wichita national forest, Oklahoma, in the early fall, are doing well in their new home, according to advice which have been received by authorities of the forestry bureau here.

Since leaving New York the herd has celebrated the birth of a new calf named Calico, on of which has been named Calico, after the name of the director of the New York Zoological gardens which gave them to the government, and the other Oklahoma, which is the new state which has just been born at the herd's arrival.

Keeper Frank Rush, an old western cow-puncher and experienced buffalo man, who has handled the herd since it was taken from New York, says that alfalfa hay has put his charges in fine shape and that the big prairie beasts are again thriving in their native land. The buffaloes have a 3,000-acre fenced range in the Wichita forest in which they can charge and snort. During the winter the animals will be fed alfalfa hay and protected from the weather and disease in a number of large sheds which have been built in the enclosure. In the spring they will be let out to roam over the Wichita range and gradually they will be encouraged to graze on the native grass.

Government experts figure that in time they will regain the prowess of the plains before civilization made its march westward.

WASHINGTON FOR CHRISTMAS.

Major John M. Burke, probably the best known advance agent in this, or any other country, and who for years has looked after the interests of Col. W. F. Cody and "Wild West" shows have been the guest of Capt. Allison Haller, Jr., secretary general of the Southern Rite for the southern jurisdiction during the holiday season just ended.

Major Burke looks upon Washington as the ideal place in which to spend Christmas. In speaking of the joys of living in the national capital, the major, who is exceptionally well qualified to give an opinion, said:

"You ask me what was the most enjoyable, interesting holiday occasions occurring in my varied experience in many different localities. The season has found me in several cities of Europe and many places in this country, from San Francisco to New Orleans, New York and my favorite stopping ground on the festive season is Washington, D. C.

"It is here that the bill of fare in my humble judgment is most replete with delicacies and substantial from a market that for diversified supplies from land and seas, proximity to the four main methods of the housewife furnishes many products more than possible by the wholesale manufacturers—such side dishes as full corn hominy, 'sawp,' scrapple, cake sausage, pickled, pumpkin-pie, 'schmeer-kase,' home made pickles, pickled herring, steamed oysters (a rarity elsewhere); in fact the Baltimore and Washington sections excel in handling the bivalve whose worth is often ruined by inept handling. Then the corn bread, flannel cake, buckwheat, cornmeal and wheat, almost driven from the American table by the ignorance of treatment suggesting antipathy and with a malapropos handling by our now predominant chefs de cuisine as if desiring to eliminate them from our national menu.

"The older inhabitants of Washington and their old maid kitchen still retaining the legendary method of treating these; the real sweet sugar tasting yam, the po' man's pone, the 'possum, the endless number of fishes and the delicious terrapin. Well, the list could be gone over until memory acts on the taste glands of the writer and 'makes the mouth water,' on account of the very cosmopolitan character of the inhabitants of the national capital, the market includes in addition, everything palatable from every known clime.

BEST "GRAZING GROUND."

"In fact, from my experience," said the major, "I should say that a line drawn from Boston around New York via Harrisburg, Chicago, Richmond and Norfolk takes in the most varied and best known grazing ground in all the world.

"The vegetable products of the field, the barn-yard and henhouse, the slabs from the herds, old oyster cornucopia of the flimsy tribes, from perch to cod and from blue fish to shad, the winged frequenters of the coast marshes, from the sea bird to the land fowl, the variety where you can beat it for facilities of procuring them in their fresh and succulent conditions?

"Combine these with the ripened experience of such gastronomic hosts were John Chamberlain and Harvey and the old-time families, such as I have had the fortune to be 'at home' with, in a truly representative American mansion, the amiable wife being versed in every best thing brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"And heaven be praised my non-millionaire, piebald pocket has always been associated with a princely patrician appetite.

IN OTHER LANDS.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's repugnance to horse flesh; Italy with, I think, its fiery best things brought to the table though not on the carte du jour, a good appetite—why Lucullus never outlived us.

"After an experience under the mistletoe on several occasions in merry old England, with its roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, mutton chops, the sole that unequalled product of the sea—Burton ale, the Cheshire cheese; France with its exquisite many sided mysteries, its grand magnificence in cooking, inventiveness in menu, slightly handicapped by suspicious on account of indifference to one's rep