LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

CORRESPONDENTS writing for publication are requested to write on one side of the paper only. No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Correspondents' names must in all instances accompany their communications, but as a rule will not be published, but as a rule will not be published, but as a rule will not be published.

THEATRICAL.—The comedy of "Sam," presented at the Theatre last night, with Mr. Wheatleigh in the title role, was a success. Time and space preclude anything like a full criticism of the performance on the present occasion; suffice it to say that every word uttered and every gesture made by Mr. Wheatleigh in the character of "Sam," gave unmistakable evidence of an artist of consummate skill and ability. Miss Lockhart and Miss Adams played excellently; Messrs. Lindsay, Graham, Harde and Margetta sustained their reputation, and throughout, the support rendered by Mr. Wheatleigh, was very creditable. The piece will be repeated to night, and all who wish to see an excellent comedy should not fail to attend.

NO TELEGRAMS FROM THE EAST.—The telegraphic wire is down at some point eastward to-day, which accounts for the lack of telegraphic news in to-day's paper.

POLICE.—Wm. Groves fined $5 for being drunk and disturbing the peace.

THIRD DISTRICT.—The trial of Wm. Foster, charged with murder, commenced yesterday morning and still continues.

BENEFIT PARTY.—Last night a dancing party was held in the 13th Ward Assembly Rooms, for the purpose of assisting Elder R. Beauchamp on his journey to Australia. The Committee of Arrangements were John T. Caine, John S. Lindsay, P. Margetta and R. F. Nealen, Esqrs., and owing to their efforts the affair was a complete success, the pecuniary results being all that could be desired. The committee wish to express their thanks for the support rendered by their friends on this occasion.

POSTAL MATTERS AT WILLARD CITY.—The correspondence over the signature "Improving," in to-day's paper, is to the point, and shows that there is need for improvement somewhere, so far as the carrying of mail matter to Willard, City, is concerned. We hope that those in whose province it lies to correct the evils complained of, will do so promptly; for there certainly can be no room for a delay of several days in the delivery of letters and papers at a place on the main road of travel and so near to this city, as Willard City, Box Elder County.

REFRESHING SHOWER.—Another splendid installment of the "early" rains descended this morning, refreshing the vegetation and herbage, and making the atmosphere cool and pleasant. The slow, but sure change taking place in respect to rain falls in this Territory is one of the most remarkable things connected with its history and settlement. A few years ago a shower of rain was almost as rare as the visit of an angel, and in order to raise grain, fruit or vegetables, the necessity for irrigation was absolute—it was irrigate, or nothing to eat. But for the last few years the number of refreshing showers has gradually increased, and in a very few years more, if the rain increases in the same ratio, the days of irrigation will have passed entirely away, and in place of Utah Territory being one of the most sterile and uninviting spots imaginable, it will be one of the most fertile and pleasant. Surely the promises with regard to the "early and latter rains," is being realized here!

MR. F. L. DAVENPORT ON SALT LAKE.—B. C. T., writing from Baltimore to the S.E. Times, speaks thus of E. L. Davenport, Esq., the actor:

"Ned is a jolly, good fellow, a fine actor, and spoke of California and his friends in San Francisco in the most enthusiastic manner. He played to twelve splendid houses in Salt Lake, and liked the theatre in that city as well as any he ever played in. He says that he never saw a more perfect association of ladies and gentlemen on any stage than he met at Salt Lake. It made him smile, however, he said, to hear the manager address an actor with, 'Brother Maurice, you will play the ghost to-night.'"

EXAMINATION IN CHAMBERS.—William Jarmon, who arrived here last Fall, and who, for six months since then has been a salesman at the Eagle Emporium, was examined yesterday and to-day before His Honor Judge Smith, in Chambers, for stealing several thousand dollars' worth of goods from his late employers, Wm. Jennings & Co. The examination was going on when we went to press.

Several other arrests, as accessories to the stealing, have been authorized.

ARRIVED.—We understand that a valuable addition is about to be made to the excellent stock company at the Theatre. Miss Annie Ward, who performs soubrette characters, arrived from the East last evening, and will shortly appear.

PROVO.—Bro. Peter Madison, and Bro. Mons Peterson, formerly assistant editor of the Standard and Stjerne, both of Provo, called to see us this afternoon. They report "all serene" in Provo. Crops look first rate. No signs of high water, Provo Lake being now about three feet lower than it was last year at this time.

CALIFORNIA PRESS ON THE U. P. R. R.—The San Francisco Times takes the correspondent of a morning contemporary to task for saying that the Union Pacific Railroad "is at present in an excellent and safe condition." The Times should like to make the acquaintance of that correspondent. He must possess, it thinks, a wealth of imagination and of hardihood which should secure him success as a writer of fiction. The Times says the Directors of the U. P. R. R. have declared that they intend to make a first-class road of their line, before they relinquish their labors. But it thinks there is not much time to be lost; for there is plenty of work for ten thousand men during the next six months, between Ogden and Echo, and as many more can find employment between Echo and Bryan. The Times says respecting the U. P. R. R. Company:

"Until they fulfil their promises, we shall advise no one to send ladies or children to the East by that route."

The criticisms of the California press upon the construction of the U. P. R. R. are severe. They are evidently based, to some extent, on prejudice arising out of sectional feeling.
