FORECASTS TILL 6 P. M. SUNDAY.

Local forecast for Salt Lake City and vicinity:

Rain or snow tonight and Sunday; colder tonight.

Forecast made at San Francisco for Utah:

Rain tonight and Sunday; colder tonight; snow in the mountains.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The map this morning is a very remarkable one. The storm central along the Washington and Oregon coast and extending eastward to the middle Rocky Mountain slope has been accompanied by general precipitation west of the Mississippi river. The crest of an area of unusually high pressure lies north of Montana. Very steep barometric gradient appears between Spokane and Calgary, the range being from 29.62 at Spokane to 30.40 inches at Calgary. In Montana the temperature ranged from 2 to 8 degrees above zero.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Seven cases of "smallpox" are reported at Deseret, Millard county, and vicinity.

Rev. W. Daunt Scott has gone East and will probably remain there. He is still in the ministry.

The telephone line from Corinne to Malad was completed yesterday, and the two towns are now communicating with each other.

Two crippled horses were shot today that had been condemned by the Humane society. The animals belonged to Ralph Doran and Edward Crouch.

A $10,000 residence of colonial design is being planned by Architect J. A. Headlund, for F. L. Parker. The residence will be built on east South Temple street.

The date of the benefit to the Veteran Phil Margetta has been deferred for a week or ten days so as not to bring the event too near the Alice Nelson engagement.

Colonel W. F. Beers of the National Guard entertained the officers of the Guard in a handsome manner at his home on B street last evening. The topic discussed was "How to suppress a riot."

An amendment to the articles of incorporation of the Alberta Land and Stock company has been filed with the county clerk, increasing the capital stock from $150,000 to $200,000 in shares of the par value of $1 each.

Mrs. Louisa Paul of 275 I street, fell while alighting from a streetcar on the corner of Fourth and B streets, and injured her shoulder very badly. She is 60 years of age and the accident will consequently go harder with her.

The people of Cache county are discussing the location of the sugar factory to be built there. At present Logan seems to be the favorite place, owing to the excellence of its water power facilities.

Millard County Progress: Millard county has the honor of electing the first woman in Utah to the office of justice of the peace. This was done Nov. 6th, last, at the precinct of Durban, and Mrs. Jane E. Ketchum is the lady.

The funeral over the remains of the late Joseph Acomb were held in Granger ward today, and the body of the deceased was brought to this city this afternoon and interred in the city cemetery. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends.

The handsome new terrace that is to be erected by Mrs. E. F. Holman on the corner of First and State streets, is being planned out. The sketches provide for 150 feet front on First street and 104 feet on State street. The cost will be about $75,000.

Four children have been taken in hand by the Utah juvenile society. Their names are Hendrickson, Thayer, father is said to be a drunkard and their mother is an invalid. The society will endeavor to secure good homes for the children, three girls and one boy.

The elevator operators of some of the large buildings in the city suggest that

APACHES ATTACK MORMON COLONY

Twelve of the Former and Four of the Latter Killed—Indians Attempted to Drive Away Stock.

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 17.—A dispatch received at midnight from Pacheco says:

In the attack on the "Mormon" colony here twelve Indians and several "Mormons" were killed and wounded. The governor of Chihuahua has ordered out Mexican troops and rurales. A squadron of cavalry has been dispatched from the military post at Ascension, fifty miles from Pacheco, but it is feared that they are insufficient to cope with the Indians, who are expected to fight desperately now that they have taken the warpath.

BAND OF REDSKINS.

The band of redskins are believed to have escaped from the San Carlos reservation in southern Arizona, where several hundred are kept in nominal confinement. The dispatch states, however, that the Mexican authorities were not positive whether the Indians were Apaches or Yaquis from Sonora, but the general belief was that the attack was due to Apaches.

CAUSE OF THE TROUBLE.

A special dispatch to the Republican from Casas Grandes, Mexico, says:

A band of Apache Indians attempted to drive away a bunch of stock at the "Mormon" settlement near this place this morning.

The settlers gave chase and in the fight killed four of the whites were killed and several wounded.

The Indians lost ten killed and seven injured.

It is said that the raiders were from the San Carlos reservation in Arizona, but a message from there says no Indians have escaped. The party is probably composed of Chiricauva Apaches, who fled into Mexico many years ago, when the Indians were rounded up on the reservations. It is believed here by many that the raiders were Yaquis, although only scattered members of that tribe, now at war against the Mexican troops, are to be found in the upper ranges of the Sierra Madre. No troops were nearby, but a message says that a posse is being formed to chase the hostiles.

OFFICIAL REPORTS.

A dispatch from El Paso to the Salt Lake Herald says:

Official reports were received yesterday afternoon from Casas Grandes, Mexico, seventy miles southwest of El Paso, saying a band of Apache Indians attacked the American "Mormon" colony of Pacheco, Mexico, last evening and the redskins were repulsed with difficulty after a hard fight.

Twelve Indians were killed and several "Mormons" were killed and wounded, the exact number was not given, although said to be at least four.

The report of the mayor of Juarez, Mexico, this afternoon in the shape of a dispatch from the mayor of Casas Grandes, it was supplemented by a request for troops to drive the Indians off.

some one offer a small cash prize for the most artistically decorated elevator during the holiday season. They think that this would encourage the boys to keep their elevators in a more tasteful condition.

The funeral services over the remains of little Clyde B. Sharp, who was killed by a R. G. W. train, will be held at the Cannon ward meeting house tomorrow, Sunday, at 11 a. m. The funeral cortege will leave the Sharp residence, near the corner of Twelfth South street and the Redwood road, at 10:15 a. m.

Box Elder News: P. N. Pierce, the owner of the "Farm, northeast of the city, is getting a large flock of turkeys in the pink of condition for Thanksgiving day. He is receiving orders for them daily, but he has enough, he thinks, to supply all demands. From his milk, butter and poultry, Mr. Pierce is building up a good business.

A. B. Sawyer & Co. has turned the water of the "Farm" canyon stream into its ice fields. By a recent decree of the court Sawyer is allowed that proportion of the stream every year from November 15th to March 1st. Unless the water supply is augmented by rains the city will suffer.

The battery boys are preparing to give their second annual ball, at Christensen's hall Nov. 20th's eve. It will be quite a pretentious affair. The hall will be decorated profusely, an enlarged orchestra will discourse the music, and Governor Wells and staff, and the Twenty-third infantry will be the special guests of the evening.

Eight new cases of "smallpox" have been reported to the local authorities, as follows: Tessie Smith, aged 13; Belle Smith, aged 5, 433 west 13th street; Edward P. Munn, aged 23; Lincoln house; Effie Sholes, aged 3, 946 south West 7th street; Mrs. Liza Taylor, aged 27, colored, 1016 south First street, and her three children, Myrtle, aged 6, Wesley, aged 8, and Thelma, aged 16 months.

A runaway occurred in East Temple street yesterday afternoon, and many women very narrowly escaped being knocked down. Gus Summers, a book agent, was driving a team into a saloon and when he came out, he saw his horse running north as fast as it could go. On reaching Second South the animal dashed into a hack standing near the curb. No damage was done except to the runaway horse it having received a cut on the leg.

The result of the pharmaceutical examinations that have been held the past few days was the granting of first-class certificates to Ford Howard of Ogden, Harvey Bennett of Beaver, and E. Kolpin of Salt Lake, and a second-class or assistant's certificate to Theodore Cleghorn of Salt Lake. The examinations hereafter will be held in the months of January, April, July and October. There will be no examinations until next April.

The report from the Great Salt Lake indicates that that body of water and salt has remained stationary, as to height for the past two weeks in this month. It is reported that the lake has raised only 2 inches in six weeks. Prof. Jones thinks, however, that the watchman took the measurement when the wind was forcing the water two inches higher than normal and that there has been no actual rise in the lake level for the past six weeks. He thinks there will be no rise until next March.

The funeral of Miss Inez Soderberg, who died of typhoid fever few days ago, was held from the home of Mrs. Julia Brixen, 300 Fourth street, yesterday afternoon. Bishop George Romney conducted the services. The speakers were Bishop Romney, Elders H. P. Nielsen, Theodore Tobison, Charles E. Forsberg, Henry Plerson, James Sharp and J. F. Simmons and President Angus M. Cannon. Miss Soderberg came here from Sweden about three years ago and was a member of the business society she had in this country. Mrs. Brixen took her into her home when she became ill and there did all she could for her.

dians out of the Boarding Mountains, towards which they fled after attacking the settlers.

The military forces forwarded the message to President Diaz and the Mexican officials will be ordered out at once. A company of soldiers has already been dispatched to the military post at Ascension, fifty miles from Pacheco, but it is feared that they are insufficient to cope with the Indians, who are expected to fight desperately now that they have taken the warpath.

Just how many Indians participated in the expedition is not known, but from the reports it is thought that there were more than fifty. They left the "Mormon" settlement after the fight and fled west. It is supposed that they either went into the Yaqui country, or returned towards the reservation in Arizona. No one knows how they escaped without the agent knowing it, but they perhaps are supposed to be hunting.

NO FURTHER INFORMATION.

Further information could not be obtained this evening. All that is known is what is given in the mayor's report from Casas Grandes, and he may be mistaken as to where the Indians belong. The Yaqui Indians in Sonora have been doing a great deal of damage of late.

It is true that this was a band of Apaches, the probabilities are that the trouble will not end for many weeks, or until every one of the band has been slain. If they follow the precedent of Gerónimo and other chiefs, it is not so many years ago that they were so troublesome along the border that the United States and Mexico entered into an agreement permitting the armed soldiers across the border whenever a raid was perpetrated, and in this manner the Indians were finally almost exterminated or brought to terms.

Orders have just been received at the Mexican military post at Juarez, across the river from this city, to dispatch without delay fifty soldiers to pursue the Indians.

BEARDSLEY'S TAVERN

The Superb Eating House Opened This Morning.

Handsomest Restaurant in the West—A Place Worth Visiting.

The long felt want of this city for a strictly first-class, up-to-date restaurant, was met in a most admirable manner in the opening of Beardsley's Tavern in the Hooper block this morning. What Delmonico's is to New York and Knickerbocker is to Chicago, that Beardsley's is to Salt Lake, a place where ladies as well as gentlemen can be served with the best viands of the land at fair prices.

On entering, one's gaze is met with decorations patterned after the old time Flemish taverns, being finished in black Flemish oak with the antique furniture in the same rich material. The wall and ceiling decorations are all in vogue as in the rest of the unique interior arrangement. It consists of finely tinted burlap paneled with Flemish oak and very fine electric light fixtures of the modern type. A long dining room is provided for the general public, the old-fashioned stalls with wooden benches for those who desire partial retirement and the beautiful little private dining room for the use of private parties. A separate entrance is provided for the ladies and the proprietor says that ladies may visit Beardsley's at all times unattended and have their luncheon with as much privacy as if at home. There is also a carriage entrance in the rear that will be pleasant for dinner parties.

To describe the kitchen would require a column, but nothing is lacking in the mammoth range, patent dishwasher and broiler, the complete bakery, cold storage rooms, the gas coal and coke heat, a cellar 100 feet long, and all the appliances that go to make up a first-class kitchen in such an institution. Mr. Joseph Negro presides as chef over this department. He was for a number of years at the head of the cooking department at Delmonico's in San Francisco. Nothing will be lacking in his department that is to be found in the very best restaurants in any part of the United States.

Mr. Willis T. Beardsley is well known by many Salt Lake residents and the traveling public in general, he having been proprietor of the Rio Grande Western eating stations for a number of years. His name as a caterer is so well established here that a further mention would not add to his reputation. Mr. Beardsley is the son of the late M. H. Beardsley, who conducted a tavern in Ohio and this fact suggested the name for "Beardsley's Tavern" in Salt Lake. He will be ably assisted by Mr. H. G. Sheridan, who was cashier of the Beardsley eating house system for a number of years.

Mr. Beardsley states that he intends to cater to the very best people in this community as well as to furnish good lunches and dinners for the business people. He promises a first-class lunch for 25 cents and a fine dinner for 50 cents, sparing no effort at any time to give perfect satisfaction. A visit to the place will be then an article of duty for every day. Health follows.

CHRISTMAS "NEWS."

The Christmas edition of the "News" will this year be printed on December 15th, 1900. It will be the most elaborate compilation of the resources and attractions of Utah yet issued.

It will commemorate the proposed union of Salt Lake and Los Angeles by rail, and will contain many special illustrations and articles relating to the great capital of southern California as well as the route proposed to be traversed by the new railroad.

It will have the largest circulation of any paper ever printed in Utah, a great part of it being distributed in and around the city of Los Angeles.

Specially attractive articles will be prepared by a corps of selected writers, and leading men of the community will contribute articles on topics of the day.

The date on which the holiday number will appear (December 15th) renders it of especial value to the local advertiser who wishes to reach the Christmas trade. Its wide circulation outside of the State and in lower California especially, will make it an invaluable medium for the general advertiser and for the State at large.

Dealers and agents of the "News" are requested to send in their advertising orders at once. Advertisers who apply earliest will receive the best positions.

THE DESERET NEWS.

PRIZES FOR THE CHRISTMAS "NEWS."

The Deseret News offers the following cash prizes for contributions to its Christmas edition to be issued Saturday, Dec. 15, 1900.

First, $50 for the best Christmas story, not to exceed 8,500 words (about seven columns of the "News" type).

Second, $25 for the best Christmas poem, not to exceed 1,200 words.

Third, $25 for the best Christmas carol, (unaccompanied), music to be set to the verses printed below.

All contributions to be in the "News" office not later than Nov. 23, 1900. Nothing received later than that date will be considered. Contestants are requested to sign their contributions with an original letter or a copy of the poem, to be written "Proper name of —" (here indicate the initial or non de plume used). All members of the "News" staff will be excluded from the contest. The awards for the story and the poem will be made by competent judges, to be announced later. Professors Stephens, Daynes and McCellan will act as judges of the carol contest. The decision of the judges will be final.

The successful Christmas carol will be rendered by the Tabernacle choir on Sunday, December 23, 1900.

CHRISTMAS CAROL.

When Christ was born in Bethlehem, 'T was night, but seemed the noon of day;

The stars, whose light

And with the bright

Shone with unwavering ray;

But one, one glorious star

Guided the Eastern Magi from afar.

Then peace was spread throughout the land;

The lion fed beside the tender lamb;

And with the kid,

To pasture led.

The spotted leopard fed;

In peace, the calf and bear,

The wolf and lamb reposed together there.

As shepherds watch their flocks by night,

And angel, brighter than the
