The President has informed Mr. Kearns that he will have the naming of the surveyor general. Mr. Kearns has already selected the man for the place but will not give his name out for publication.

The President is expected to send to the Senate either this afternoon or tomorrow the name of the surveyor general for Utah.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed of Salt Lake are the guests of Senator Kearns.

Postmaster appointed: Utah, Murray, Salt Lake county—J. P. Gibson, vice M. A. Williamson; Nevada, Reno, Washoe county—J. A. Walker, vice Catherine Thorne, resigned.

Wyoming, Lovell, Big Horn county—district court here today by Warden McCloughry of the federal penitentiary to be present when the arguments for his release pending the appeal of his habeas corpus proceedings in the United States Supreme court. The prisoner appeared to be in good health.

"I am innocent of the charges upon which I was convicted," are the opening words in Carter's affidavit, "and believe that the court-martial proceedings will be declared null and void by the Supreme court, and the consequent recovery of my liberty will not vindicate my honor nor proclaim my innocence to the world."

Carter's special plea for liberty is that he may secure a civil trial at Atlanta, Ga.

Continuing, the affidavit attempts to account for the sums of money expended by Carter in excess of his pay, stating that they were given him by his father-in-law. Two physicians offered affidavits to the effect that the prisoner was a sufferer from neurasthenia and if confined for any length of time would suffer mental collapse and become insane.

Brady's Campaign Ended.

Columbus, O., Feb. 15.—Attorney General Sheets said today that when Judge Hollister announced that the proposed prize fight at Cincinnati would be enjoined, Wm. A. Brady, the manager of Jeffries, said:

"This ends my management of such enterprises. I believe the opposition to contests of this kind is all fanaticism, but the fact is that popular sentiment is overwhelmingly against it, and there is but one thing to do, and that is to quit. Contests have been driven from this State, the limits in which they could be gradually narrowed until there has long since ceased to be any money in it."

"I am not going to follow it any further. This settles it with me."

More Joints Raided.

Wichita, Kansas, Feb. 15.—A Beacon special says:

About a hundred prohibitionists, men, women and children, living mostly outside of Peck raided two joints in that town last night. The citizens looked on in indifference, little excitement prevailing. The raiders waited on George Hattie, who ran one saloon, and told him he would have to move out at once. Hattie owns the building and he refused to budge, then the crowd entered his store and removed every fixture and all his goods to the depot.

Then they visited Carey Leedman, another joint, and carried out the same program, exacting a promise from him not to re-enter the business. The goods were shipped to Wichita today.

POWERS OF U. S. MARSHALS.

Judge Acheson Decides They Can Make Arrests Without Warrants.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 15.—In the suit of John B. Bennett, against Secret Service Agents Flynn and Berriman, and Deputy United States Marshal W. S. Blair, who were charged with malicious trespass, assault and battery in connection with the arrest of the plaintiff, Judge W. M. Acheson, in the United States court handed down an important opinion. He makes a precedent in deciding that United States marshals or their deputies, can make arrests in emergency cases without warrants.

House Proceedings.

Washington, Feb. 15.—This was private bill day in the House under the rules, but Mr. Cannon, chairman of the appropriations committee, desired to proceed with the consideration of the sundry civil appropriation bill and moved that the House go into committee of the whole for that purpose. The motion was contested by the friends of private claims as this would be the last opportunity the House would have in this Congress of considering such bills. In anticipation of a contest over the right of way Mr. Underwood (Alabama), the Democratic whip, sent out notices yesterday to all the Democrats to be present today and there was an unusually full attendance on that side of the House. When Mr. Cannon saw the drift he called across the aisle to Mr. Richardson, the minority leader: "You're trying to loot the treasury again."

On a rising vote Mr. Cannon's motion was defeated, 62 to 74, whereupon the chairman of the appropriations committee demanded the ayes and noes and the clerk called the roll. The motion was lost, 105 to 125. Just before the vote was announced Mr. Cannon changed his vote from yes to no in order to be in a position to move a reconsideration of the vote. Immediately upon the announcement of the vote he entered his motion to reconsider. Mr. Richardson made the point of order that the motion was dilatory.

The House, by a vote of 120 to 102 adopted Mr. Richardson's motion to go into committee of the whole to consider private bills.

DELEGATE WILCOX SCORES TRIUMPH.

House Committee Confirms His Right to a Seat.

THE VOTE WAS UNANIMOUS.

The Case Not Considered in Its Technical Aspect, but Rather on Broad General Grounds.

Washington, Feb. 15.—Delegate Wilcox of Hawaii today scored a distinct triumph in securing a unanimous vote of House committee on elections No. 1, confirming his right to a seat in the House of Representatives and holding that the charges filed against him were not sufficient to warrant his removal.

Chairman Taylor was authorized to make the report to that effect, which will be submitted in about a week.

After the meeting Mr. Taylor explained the general considerations which had influenced the decision of the committee. The case was not considered so much in its technical aspects but rather on broad grounds, all the circumstances, conditions and surroundings applicable to Hawaii as one of our new insular possessions being taken into consideration.

As a delegate from a new Territory it was not felt that Wilcox should be met with the same strict construction required in sustaining the right of a representative in Congress to his seat, as the delegate has only limited powers and is little more than an agent. As to the charges of treason, the letters placed in evidence were written prior to the organic act making Hawaii a Territory and there was no disposition to go into these prior issues. Whatever may have been the technical irregularity of the election, there was the saving fact that a perfect machinery of election was established, a ballot box was regularly provided, practically every one participated in the voting and the will of the people was expressed.

"And on broad political grounds," said Mr. Taylor, "we felt that the people of these insular possessions should understand that they were not to be met by mere technical objections which would deprive them of representation."

THIRTY PASSENGERS HURT

Street Car from Dayton, Ky., to Cincinnati, Jumps the Track.

Plunged Over an Embankment Fifty Feet High—Some of the Injured May Die.

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 15.—A street car containing thirty passengers en route from Dayton, Ky., to Cincinnati, jumped the track today on a down grade and plunged over a fifty-foot embankment into a small stream, injuring all but one of the passengers. Several may die.

Among the most seriously injured were: Motorman Samuel Yates, fatally.

W. H. McCormick, Bellevue, may die.

Miss Edna Contans, Bellevue, may die.

Wm. Spencer, Dayton, Ky., may die.

Miss Ella Huxell, Westwood, may die.

W. H. Wagner, Bellevue.

The others injured received cuts and bruises.

Miss Emma Hampton was the only passenger who entirely escaped injury. She was taken from the wreck in a fainting condition.

The car was running at a lively speed when it struck some small obstruction on the rail and instantly veered across the track. Motorman Yates stuck bravely to his post in an endeavor to apply the brakes, but his efforts were unavailing, and the car crashed over the embankment. He received internal injuries that will prove fatal. The accident occurred on the Kentucky side.

GERMAN ARMY IN CHINA.

Herr Babel's Statements About It Denied in the Reichstag.

Berlin, Feb. 15.—During the debate on the Reichstag today the minister of war, Gen. von Gossler, replying to Herr Babel's attacks on the conduct of the troops in China and Field Marshal Count von Waldersee's methods of warfare, said Herr Babel's statements were without foundation. When Herr Babel asserted that a Prussian sergeant major could have better conducted the campaign than Field Marshal von Waldersee, he displayed extraordinary ignorance of the circumstances and country. They ought to be grateful to Field Marshal von Waldersee that, with his devotion to duty and high intelligence, he had accepted the position entrusted to him by the emperor and had established a certain amount of order in China. The troops also deserved well of their country. There existed in China a factory of lies. Field Marshal von Waldersee had reported that the conduct of the war at the commencement was more cruel than it would have been in Europe because of the atrocities of the Chinese, but since his arrival he had endeavored to check the cruelty and protect peaceable people.

Gen. von Gossler, continued:

"Only a few serious offences have been committed by the troops and the guilty men have invariably been punished."

The English and French reports have acknowledged the correct behavior of the German troops. It is difficult to understand how a German deputy could slur German troops who are doing their duty under difficult circumstances."

The bill passed its third reading.

THIEL SENTENCED.

He Gets Three Years' Penal Servitude and Deprived of Citizenship.

Berlin, Feb. 15.—Criminal Commissioner Thiel was today sentenced to three years' penal servitude and five years' deprivation of citizenship owing to the charges brought against him on account of his connection with the Sternberg case.

It was announced Dec. 5 by the state's attorney, during the trial of Sternberg, the Berlin banker, for an alleged offense against morality, that Criminal Commissioner Thiel had made a full confession to the examining judge that he took bribes from Lappa, an agent for Sternberg, for official reports and evidence against Sternberg, and that he had also admitted the truth of the statement made by Inspector Sternstodter that Thiel had tried to bribe him (the inspector) by offering him a villa on Lake Geneva.

The state's attorney also said that Thiel's confession implicated Dr. Werthauer, one of the lawyers for the defense, Thiel having accused him of having received purchased documents. A motion was made by the state's attorney for an immediate search of Dr. Werthauer's office, but the court declined to grant it on the ground that such a step would be illegal.

Lappa, acting as agent for Sternberg, purchased false evidence. It was assumed that between five and six millions marks were expended in this way. Lappa fled out the middle of November.

May Fight in San Francisco.

New York, Feb. 15.—Jim Jeffries and Gus Ruhlin may fight for the heavyweight championship in San Francisco within a month or two. The San Francisco Athletic club wants the bout and has made a big offer through its eastern representative, J. Edgar Moore. Mr. Moore today wired the club's inducements to Wm. A. Brady, and his acceptance or refusal is expected any minute.

If the men agree to fight on the coast, Mr. Moore says the club will post $5,000 in cash as a guarantee to pull off the fight without the least opposition, and will allow the men to fight under the same conditions that were to have governed their bout tonight in Cincinnati.

Blown Up With Dynamite.

Cumberland, Md., Feb. 15.—News has been received here of an explosion of dynamite at Patterson Creek, on a Baltimore and Ohio branch today. Two unknown Italians and John Boarder are reported to have been blown to atoms. Edmund Anderson had both legs blown off and will die. Three others are said to have been seriously injured. The men were engaged in cutting a tunnel through a mountain and it is said the explosion was caused by an attempt to thaw several sticks of dynamite.

ALL QUIET IN MADRID.

Still Under Martial Law but No Signs of Disturbance.

Madrid, Feb. 15, 2 p. m.—This afternoon all signs of disturbances have disappeared. The city has apparently resumed its normal condition. Martial law continues and may be maintained through carnival week, when it is feared the fete will give an opportunity for renewed disorder.

The discussion in the ministry, caused by the attitude of the government in dealing so severely with the populace, appear to have been at least temporarily healed. The dissenters have agreed not to provoke a crisis in the present situation. The government is adopting a waiting policy. It hopes that, with the royal wedding over, and the departure of the Casertas, the excitement will subside.

The censorship of the press is the most rigid ever imposed.

NO FIGHTING IN OHIO.

Gov. Nash is Determined It Shall Cease at All Hazards.

Columbus, O., Feb. 15.—Governor Nash is determined that there shall be no more prize fights in Ohio. Hawley, who has 20 shares; Joseph C. Sharp, 20 shares; E. E. Barker, 10 shares; and 10 in trust; William G. Swann, 15 shares; and George C. Gunn and E. A. Brough one each. P. E. Barker is president; Curtis B. Hawley, vice president and manager; and Joseph C. Sharp, is secretary and treasurer, whom, together with Messrs. Pull and Swann, constitute the board of directors.

LATE LOCALS.

Sheriff Naylor went to Mercer today on business connected with his office.

Big business in the Salt Lake Theater last night meant small business for the Grand. "The Blue and Gray" was presented to the most meager audience of the week.

LEGISLATORS AT LOGAN COLLEGE.

Utah Law Makers Invade Cache County, County Seat, on a Trip of Inspection Today, and Are Entertained.

[SPECIAL TO THE "NEWS"]

Logan, Feb. 15.—At a few minutes after 8 o'clock the legislative special pulled out of the Oregon Short Line depot at Salt Lake. The Oregon Short Line company had again furnished a magnificent train, vestibuled in its entire length, consisting of six handsome chair cars and the baggage car, pulled by engine No. 401. There were 108 passengers on board. The Senate was well represented, only Senators Alder, Allison, Bennion, Kiesel, Lawrence, Love and Murdoch being absent. The only missing faces from the House were those of Representatives Christensen, Fry, Harmon, G. W. Johnson, N. L. Morris, Smith and Van Horne. Senator Barnes joined the party at Ogden and Speaker Glasmann left the train there, being called home to attend his little daughter, who fell out of a swing recently, badly injuring her spine, and has to be fixed up in a plaster of paris jacket every week.

DISTINGUISHED GUESTS.

Among the distinguished guests of the party were Governor Wells and his sister Mrs. T. H. Sloan, W. S. McCormick, Mrs. F. S. Richards, Mrs. Bagley, Game Warden John Sharp, Secretary of State Hammond, wife and son, Mrs. J. G. Felt, Mrs. Louise Spencer, Mrs. George D. Pyper, Prof. Richard R. Lyman of the State University, and F. M. Lyman Jr., Prof. Frank Metcalf and wife, of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum, ex-Representative John Fisher and wife, John R. Barnes of Kayville, Gas Anderson, and R. B. Haywood, L. C. Thorsen, Dan Spencer, chief clerk of the general passenger department Oregon Short Line and H. L. Dunn, traveling passenger agent, looked after the comforts of the guests on the trip.

There was some discussion on the train as to when the special will return. Some of the party would like to return home at 6 o'clock but it is understood that the people of Logan have arranged a most elaborate program, including a concert and ball in the opera house in the evening, and many of the guests would be loath to miss the evening festivities. After a consultation with the legislative committees, Mr. Spencer announced that the return train would leave Logan at 9 o'clock, arriving in Salt Lake about half a hour after midnight. An effort will be made to have some street cars still running at that hour to convey the junketers to their homes. Lunch was served at the college about noon. It is thought that the inspection and exercises will be completed about 5 o'clock, after which the visitors will become the guests of the citizens of Logan.

ARRIVAL AT LOGAN.

When the train pulled into Logan the Hyde Park band was raising the echoes with martial strains of music. Almost all the available carriages in town were in waiting to carry the visitors over the two miles to the Agricultural college. The carriages were strung out over a distance of a mile. The college authorities received the legislators with a military salute. Two companies of the college cadets were paraded in front of the buildings with guns at the present. The roar of seventeen guns, the governor's salute, rent the air and made some of the more timid horses prance restively. President Kerr and the college faculty was on the steps and tendered a hospitable welcome to the legislative party.

By 12:20 the visitors were assembled in the large chapel and the governor, Secretary Hammond, W. S. McCormick and a large sprinkling of the legislative orators ascended the platform.

Prof. Kerr opened the meeting by introducing Mayor Anderson, of Logan, who extended the party a hearty welcome to his city. The mayor spoke of the growth of education which has come to Logan as the result of the establishment of the Agricultural college, and trusted that the Legislature would see its way towards granting the appropriation asked for.

William Edwards, chairman of the board of county commissioners, made a few timely remarks. He concluded by saying that the legislators and their friends welcomed by the people of Logan as freely as if "it had been vaccinated at the hands of Dr. Beattie."

PROF. KERR'S PLEA.

Prof. Kerr then gave an exhaustive explanation of the work of the college and its practical nature. He told how the ladies were taught the various arts which would assist them in adorning the home. The men, he said, were grounded in engineering, agriculture and business training generally. "Notwithstanding the nature of the work," said he, "they do not overlook the disciplinary element, aiming to unite the practical with the purely theoretical. Exactness is our watchword, and it is instilled into all the work. It is our aim to make our students loyal to their country and useful to their fellow man."

"The work of an institution of this kind is of necessity very expensive—the engineering shops, laboratory and agricultural work are the most costly that have been undertaken at any educational institution."

"The agricultural work is of very great importance to the agricultural classes throughout the State. We must be provided with additional equipments in the dairying. It is necessary that there should be pure bred stock. A cattle barn, sheep barn, hog house and additional yards are required, which will cost at least $10,000. The Wisconsin Agricultural school has farm buildings, aggregating a sum of $40,000. Their stock is estimated at $50,000, and their dairy, which cost $20,000, has recently had an $18,000 addition. The demand for these improvements we ask for you will see is imperative."

WHAT IS NEEDED.

The irrigation system and vegetation house were briefly touched on. "In the whole institution," said the speaker, "we have not a room in which the agricultural classes can be held. We have to make shifts as best we can. Three new class rooms are our most pressing need. One for soil physics, one for agricultural mechanics and another for a museum for agriculture. The chemistry department is also sadly hampered. In one of the agricultural colleges in the east there are twenty-one rooms set apart for this branch of study alone. We have three. We ought at least to have seven; a large room for elementary work, one for quantities analysis, one for organic synthesis, one for chemical research, a chemical room, a museum, a lecture room." These are the most pressing wants felt, except perhaps the library, whose needs were fully explained by the speaker.

GOVERNOR H. M. WELLS.

Prof. Kerr was followed by Governor H. M. Wells, who said in part: "There is no institution that I feel more kindly towards than the Agricultural College. I have great and abiding love for our pioneers, the men who dug ditches and killed snakes, and there is no training which our young folks can undergo in which they will more nearly approximate the work of our pioneers. You may believe, so far as the chief executive is concerned, that your president will meet with no difficulty in having the needs of the college supplied."

SYSTEM IN ROAD BUILDING

New York's Governor Would Have Old State Highways Reopened.

New York Tribune. The governor in his message wisely emphasizes the desirability of system in road building. He would have the old state roads reopened and others constructed, so that the improved highways would form continuous lines, traversing county after county throughout the whole extent of the State. Such roads would, of course, connect the principal cities and large towns of the various counties and correspond somewhat to trunk lines of railroad, giving good traveling from town to town and from county to county. The governor seems to think it appropriate that the State itself should take the initiative in the building of such roads, because they will serve general and not merely local interests; and it is probably desirable that they should be constructed first of all.

CHICAGO SALT EPIDEMIC.

Physicians throughout Chicago are complaining that an "epidemic of salt" has broken loose, says the New York Tribune. They say these days when they are called to attend a patient about the first thing they hear is, "Doc, don't you think an injection of salt would cure me?" This is attributed to the recent agitation of the merits of salt solution as given publicly through the scientific discoveries recently made by Professor Jacques Loeb of the University of Chicago and Dr. W. Byron Cook, a North Side physician. Dr. Elmer E. Prescott of the West Side recently expressed the opinion that no prevalent had become the idea that salt would cure any ailment that if the public was not put on its guard the whole city would be suffering from scurvy inside of six months. Dr. Prescott said: "The normal saline solution is not to be used in chronic cases, but only in emergency work. There is no factor in the surgeon's operating list so important as the sterilized salt solution. There is not a surgeon today and there has hardly been one for years but has had his salt solution ever at his side. I would as soon do a major operation without my artery forceps or ligatures for tying an artery as to start a surgical case without my salt ready for an emergency. I was called some days ago to attend a woman suffering from scurvy. She had been complaining for several years from a nervous trouble, had become depressed and dependent when some time ago she read of the discovery of the elixir of life in the common table salt or chloride of sodium. She immediately began putting salt in her drinking water, eating salted meats and using it in every conceivable way in the hope that the alleged discovery would prove a panacea to her ills. She began to get weak rapidly, her limbs became very tender to the touch, and finally the hemorrhagic stage of the disease made its appearance under the skin and in the connective tissues of the body, having very much the appearance of the black and blue spots following an injury. If the public is not put upon its guard, it will not be six months before half the town will be suffering from malnutrition anemia, scurvy and the other allied symptoms of blood impoverishment."

ALL QUIET IN MADRID.

Still Under Martial Law but No Signs of Disturbance.

Madrid, Feb. 15, 2 p. m.—This afternoon all signs of disturbances have disappeared. The city has apparently resumed its normal condition. Martial law continues and may be maintained through carnival week, when it is feared the fete will give an opportunity for renewed disorder.

The discussion in the ministry, caused by the attitude of the government in dealing so severely with the populace, appear to have been at least temporarily healed. The dissenters have agreed not to provoke a crisis in the present situation. The government is adopting a waiting policy. It hopes that, with the royal wedding over, and the departure of the Casertas, the excitement will subside.

The censorship of the press is the most rigid ever imposed.

LEGISLATORS AT LOGAN COLLEGE.

Logan, Feb. 15.—At a few minutes after 8 o'clock the legislative special pulled out of the Oregon Short Line depot at Salt Lake. The Oregon Short Line company had again furnished a magnificent train, vestibuled in its entire length, consisting of six handsome chair cars and the baggage car, pulled by engine No. 401. There were 108 passengers on board. The Senate was well represented, only Senators Alder, Allison, Bennion, Kiesel, Lawrence, Love and Murdoch being absent. The only missing faces from the House were those of Representatives Christensen, Fry, Harmon, G. W. Johnson, N. L. Morris, Smith and Van Horne. Senator Barnes joined the party at Ogden and Speaker Glasmann left the train there, being called home to attend his little daughter, who fell out of a swing recently, badly injuring her spine, and has to be fixed up in a plaster of paris jacket every week.

DISTINGUISHED GUESTS.

Among the distinguished guests of the party were Governor Wells and his sister Mrs. T. H. Sloan, W. S. McCormick, Mrs. F. S. Richards, Mrs. Bagley, Game Warden John Sharp, Secretary of State Hammond, wife and son, Mrs. J. G. Felt, Mrs. Louise Spencer, Mrs. George D. Pyper, Prof. Richard R. Lyman of the State University, and F. M. Lyman Jr., Prof. Frank Metcalf and wife, of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum, ex-Representative John Fisher and wife, John R. Barnes of Kayville, Gas Anderson, and R. B. Haywood, L. C. Thorsen, Dan Spencer, chief clerk of the general passenger department Oregon Short Line and H. L. Dunn, traveling passenger agent, looked after the comforts of the guests on the trip.

There was some discussion on the train as to when the special will return. Some of the party would like to return home at 6 o'clock but it is understood that the people of Logan have arranged a most elaborate program, including a concert and ball in the opera house in the evening, and many of the guests would be loath to miss the evening festivities. After a consultation with the legislative committees, Mr. Spencer announced that the return train would leave Logan at 9 o'clock, arriving in Salt Lake about half a hour after midnight. An effort will be made to have some street cars still running at that hour to convey the junketers to their homes. Lunch was served at the college about noon. It is thought that the inspection and exercises will be completed about 5 o'clock, after which the visitors will become the guests of the citizens of Logan.

ARRIVAL AT LOGAN.

When the train pulled into Logan the Hyde Park band was raising the echoes with martial strains of music. Almost all the available carriages in town were in waiting to carry the visitors over the two miles to the Agricultural college. The carriages were strung out over a distance of a mile. The college authorities received the legislators with a military salute. Two
