EASTERN.

The Lee and Shepard Bankruptcy Case.

Boston, 30.—The committee appointed by the creditors of Lee and Shepard reported to-day. The report showed the total assets to be $152,208; direct liabilities $489,740; contingent liabilities $155,377; gross liabilities $625,274; net liabilities, that is deducting the contingent liabilities, which will probably not fall upon the firm, $578,250. Lee and Shepard make a proposition to pay 20 cents on the dollar, secured by notes on short term, without interest. The committee report the interest. The disaster as consisting in excess of business expenses, the deterioration of stereotype plates, and a loss of confidence.

Race for the Championship.

A large crowd attended the great stallion race at Beacon Park, today, between Smulger and Thomas Jefferson, for a purse of two thousand dollars and the championship; the race was won in three and a half heats by Smulger; time 2:23, 2:23 and 2:40.

Committed Suicide.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., 30.—Mr. S.
Wood, a prominent business man of the Greenfield Manufacturing Company, committed suicide at the Union Depot Hotel in this city today morning; financial troubles are the alleged cause.

A Denial.

NEW YORK, 30.—The Spanish minister at Washington, now in this city, states he has received a telegram from the Spanish minister of Cuba in relation to the reported landing of the expedition of the Uruguay, formerly the Odrera, in which the report of the expedition of the Uruguay has been made on this island, notwithstanding the American newspapers have published contrary.

ARMY REUNION CONCLUDED.

DES MOINES, 30.—The reunion of the army of Tennessee closed with a banquet to-night. Speech making did not continue until a late hour. Several toasts were offered and responded to in an appropriate manner by men of note. In response to the toast of the President of the United States, General Grant responded in a few words, returning thanks for the compliment.
Speeches were made during the evening by Generals Sherman, Pope, and Byne. General Sherman, in his speech, alluded to his march at that time, in speaking of his location, he said he would like to believe it to be true, and he still believed every word of it to be true. He wished to write it while the memory was fresh, and he said he would like to correct his errors, if any there were, could yet do it. In re-

there were, could yet do it. In response to the toast of the President
