BREVITIES.

Prefer loss to unjust gains.

Fame is the perfume of heroic deeds.

Kings ought to be Kings in all things.

Mildness governs more than anger.

There are 40,000 spaniards in Louisiana. Bad for Louisiana.

We should live as though life would be both long and short.

Order, grace and beauty spring from God.

A wise man is never less alone than when he is alone.

He is doubly sinful who congratulates a knave.

He is truly rich who desires nothing; but poor, who covets all.

Barley was found wild in the mountains of Himalaya.

Everybody is anxious to go to heaven, but nobody is in a hurry about it.

Queen Victoria is twenty pounds heavier than she was a year ago.

"None but the brave deserve the fair," and none but the brave can live with some of them.

Mrs. Stowe has a book in press on the "Men of our times," which she thinks her crowning work.

Josh Billings says he believes in the final salvation of men; but he wants the privilege of picking the men.

A black and tan terrier is the idol of New York, for killing 200 rats in four minutes.

Advice is like snow; the softer it falls, the longer it dwells upon, and sinks into, the mind.—Coleridge.

The late Charles Kean was the first manager who took a strolling company round the world. He died worth £50,000.

Half a million dollars a week, are on the average, deposited in Massachusetts savings bank.

A techy husband told his wife they could not agree, and must divide the house. "Very well," said she, "you take the outside."

An English paper says a nurse, who is following her calling at Stratford Newtown, has entered upon her 101st year.

A beautiful and chaste woman, is the perfect workmanship of God, the true glory of angels, the rare miracle of earth, and the sole wonder of the world.

Since our Maker thought it wrong for Adam to live single when there was not a woman on earth, how guilty are old bachelors with the world full of pretty girls.

It is reported in a letter from Dresden that in a single District of Gumbinnen there are 40,000 families without food or fuel.

A Paris actress fell near the footlights, but escaped injury fron the circumstance that she had nothing on which could take fire.

A company has been formed in England with a capital of $10,000,000 to build a railroad across the republic of Honduras.

The "game of life" is very much like a game of cards. Time deals, death cuts, and everybody is waiting for the last trump.

Carlyle has lived in the same house—a small two story brick one, in a short, narrow street, near the Thames, in London—for over a quarter of a century. He is a widower, and childless.

Some calumniator has declared that ladies are the very reverse of their mirrors—the latter reflect without talking, and the former talk without reflecting.

"Are our girls fitted for wives?" queries a sober exchange. "Are they fitted for husbands?" retorts the itemizer.

The German element in St. Louis has triumphed in opposition to the law prohibiting the sale of lager on Sunday.

A gentleman who had built a small house in a sequestered part of his grounds for a private study, showed it to a friend, remarking, "Here I sit reading from morning till night and nobody a bit the wiser."

There is a greater depravity in not repenting of a sin when it has been committed, than in committing it at first. To deny, as Peter did, is bad; but not to weep bitterly, as he did, when we have denied, is worse.

A Frenchman, soliciting relief of a lady, said gravely to his fair hearer, "Madame, I nevaire beg, but dat I have von vife vid several small family dat is growing very large and nossing to make dere bread out of but de perspiration of my own eyebrow."

The yield of gold and silver in the United States in 1866, is estimated at $80,000,000; in Mexico and South America, at $40,000,000; in Australia, at $61,000,000; in British America, at $10,000,000; in Siberia, at $16,500,000; and elsewhere, $7,000,000.

One of the saleswomen at Queen Augusta's fair in Berlin, was Countess Von Seydewitz, whose charms were so powerful that she obtained two hundred thalers for a cup of chocolate presented by her fair hands.

Horses in Australia are a drug in the market, and cannot be gotrid of at any price. Two hundred were bought at twenty-eight shillings a-piece to feed pigs with, and a company purchased 1,000 of the noble steeds for the purpose of boiling down their carcasses.

A few Chinamen and several snow sheds have been destroyed by snow slides on the Central Pacific Railroad. The company regret the loss of the sheds.

"Oh, that my father was seized with a remittent fever!" sighed a young spendthrift at college.
