The branch office of the Deseret News in Ogden is at No. 200 Twenty-third street. The branch office is delivered on the same terms as the main office in Salt Lake City.

OGDEN NEWS.

OGDEN, March 30, 1900.

LECTURE BY PROF. STEWART

Republican Fete Day Tomorrow—Hon. Thos. Fitch Will Talk.

Ladies Will Hold a Reception in Honor of Hon. J. T. Hammond—District Court Tomorrow.

One of the most interesting lectures that has been booked in Ogden is to be given on Saturday, March 31, at 10 a. m., at the Ogden High school building. The lecturer is Prof. Stewart, of the State normal school. The professor has just returned from a year's study of educational methods of the public schools of Chicago, he has also taken a special course in psychology during his absence. For the purpose of making his lecture more interesting he will illustrate it with the Normal school exhibit which was sent to the N. E. A. at Los Angeles last year. The professor is still on before Judge Rolapp. He is still on before Judge Rolapp. He is still on before Judge Rolapp.

REPUBLICAN FETE DAY TOMORROW.

The Republicans are exerting every possible effort to make Saturday night one of the liveliest political events for Ogden that she has had for a long time. Not only will leading local speakers be present, but all arrangements have been made for the Hon. Thomas Fitch to be present and speak upon the great and important political questions of the hour. Mr. Fitch is a leading New York Republican, and has the fame of being one of the most brilliant orators in the United States. Hon. James T. Hammond will arrive in the afternoon with a large delegation of the Republican club have everything prepared for a grand reception to be tendered the visiting gentlemen and their ladies. The program will be interspersed with choice music from bands and vocal ensembles.

IN THE SECOND DISTRICT COURT.

The case of Crouse & Braudage vs. E. J. Harrold has been set for trial on April 4, 1900.

In the case of Murphy vs. Ganey ten days additional time was granted defendant in which to answer.

The case of T. C. Ford vs. Union Pacific Railroad has been set for hearing on April 4, 1900.

The hearing in the case of Abba vs. Smyth, action brought for $5,000 damages, is still on before Judge Rolapp. Both sides have so many witnesses to be examined is the reason for its taking so much time.

A young boy named Brunker was up before his honor for incorrigibility, but the lad showed a repentant spirit and was given another chance to reform, or else he must go to the State industrial school.

Marion C. son of Gilbert and Karen Ferguson, died at the family residence, 21 Twenty-first street, at 7:30 p. m., March 28, 1900, of congestion of the lungs.

HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI.

A meeting of the Alumni association of the Ogden high school has been called at the high school building at eight o'clock tonight. The purpose of the meeting is to complete the program for the reception to be tendered the coming graduates of the high school.

OGDEN NEWS BRIEFS.

A Westminster bicycle, belonging to Al West, was stolen a few days ago at Five Points.

E. Watson and W. Felker, both of Challis, Idaho, are in the city on business.

P. Ellison, of Layton, was in the city yesterday.

J. Silverthorn has gone east on a business trip.

The smallpox scare here in Ogden seems to have quieted down the last week, only one new case has been discovered and that is a very mild one.

HUNTINGTON.

Literary Club Banquet—Burglar Caught—Chicken Thieves Fined.

Special Correspondence. Huntington, Emery Co., March 26.—The Woman's Literary club of Huntington held a reunion on the evening of March 21st at the home of Mrs. Oliver Harrison. A most enjoyable time was had by those attending. The banquet was the feature of the evening. During supper many toasts were given by the ladies, with responses from the gentlemen, and much merriment was indulged in.

RELIEF SOCIETY HALL.

The Ladies' Relief Society have the pleasure of work putting in the foundation of a large hall, 34x65, the walls of the building will be of brick. A stage will occupy one end of the hall for theatrical purposes, and we hear nothing but praise and wishes for their success, as we have no place here adapted for dances or theatrical purposes, and when the house is finished it will be an improvement of which Huntington may well be proud.

BURGLAR CAUGHT.

Geo. Leonard, a young man of Ferron, and a late inmate of the penitentiary, is now waiting in the county jail to be sent back to the pen again. The story goes that Leonard was about to run away with a young married woman of Ferron, and having no money to pay expenses, he broke into the Ferron and Molen Co-op. store and stole $25 in cash and a few other small articles, but before doing this he had taken a couple of drinks of crime whisky juice too many, and he was so clumsy in his trying to get away that he got caught, and is now awaiting the action of the district court. When Leonard was sentenced before for the same crime, owing to circumstances connected with the case, the county attorney who prosecuted it, recommended that the court be merciful to him, and he was given the least term allowed—one year in the penitentiary. But this time the chances are that he will be several years older when he gets out. The woman in the case has unpacked her trunk and concluded to stay at home.

LEHI.

Political Rallies—Work on Meeting House Begun.

Special Correspondence. Lehi, Utah Co., March 30.—Quite a large crowd was out in attendance to the Republican rally held last evening in the Lehi opera house. Mayor Mosiah Evans acted as chairman and after the band played a few selections Mr. Thomas H. Cutler was introduced as the first speaker, who spoke at some length on the tariff and silver questions. Major Grant followed, occupying over one hour's time, principally on the question of expansion and giving the reasons why the Philippines should be retained by the United States.

Tomorrow evening Jas. H. Moyle and C. R. Land are billed as the speakers at a Democratic rally to be held in Garfield Hall.

Mr. Kietling, architect, of Salt Lake City, came down yesterday with the plans for the new meeting house and made arrangement for the commencement of the concrete part of the foundation, which work began this morning under the supervision of Mr. Franz Salzer. The concrete foundation, according to the plans, will be 8 feet wide and four feet deep. In the course of a few days the Branch Co-op. will commence the erection of a new two story building, 32x81 feet, and will be built of pressed brick. Mr. Kietling is in charge of the architect work for this building.

NEPHI.

THE "MIKADO" OPERA

Successfully and Artistically Presented by the Bassett Company.

Special Correspondence.

Nephi, Utah Co., March 28.—Last night the Nephi Opera company gave their third performance of the "Mikado," under the direction of Prof. E. K. Bassett, to a full house, showing the appreciation and loyalty of the citizens of "Little Chicago" to their home talent and enterprise.

Prof. Bassett may well be proud of his achievement and success, but the ability and talent manifested by his company have aided him in attaining his successful rendition of the "Mikado." Though burlesque and nonsense run through every line sang or spoken of this production, the old adage was proven correct, in this instance, "A Noddie nonsense Nephi Yum Yum," is relished by the best of men, and many of the best of Nephi's citizens laughed and clapped their hands during the evening, delighted at the burlesque and nonsense of the scenes enacted.

A. Stout's impersonation of Katiska, with his splendid make-up, his one upper tooth projecting over his fan, kept the house in an uproar of laughter whenever he appeared. Pooh Bah was well sustained by Sidney Dawes.

Eugene Blackett as Ko Ko, lord high executioner, was well played, especially in the scene where he requests the death of the prisoner, Yum Yum, that he may get insured to his sufferings.

Yum Yum by Miss Marie Fowler, was very well sustained. Pitti Sing, by Lucille Bassett sang her part in a manner that was a great aid to the success of the piece.

The sweet little Jap maidens of last evening are this morning transformed into clerks, school teachers and demure little maidens attending to the domestic duties in their fathers' home.

Katiska, the elderly lady, this morning is busily engaged in the grain department of the Executive. Mr. Bassett is still on before Judge Rolapp. He is still on before Judge Rolapp. He is still on before Judge Rolapp.

PROVO.

ELDER HENRY W. BERG.

Remains Will Arrive on Saturday—Funeral Sunday Afternoon.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, Utah Co., March 30.—Word has been received by Mr. H. O. Berg of Provo that the remains of his son, Elder Henry W. Berg, who recently died in Nauvoo, will arrive in Salt Lake City Saturday morning at 3:30 o'clock, and will at once be forwarded to his home in Provo. The funeral services will be held at the State tabernacle on Sunday at 1 o'clock p. m.

A Fleeting Attack.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly cost him his life. He came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy seemed to help him until he took your health. Only $2 at Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

COLD BUT FINE WEATHER.

The farmers are busy putting in crops. The apricots and some of the pears, plums and cherries are out in blossom. It has been threatening a storm for a few days, but it cleared up last night without any rain or snow, and this morning we have had ice on the water, the first ice we have had for the last month and there is danger that some of the early fruit will be damaged.

HANKER ROUTS A ROBBER.

J. R. Garrison, Cashier of the bank of Thornville, Ohio, had been robbed of health by a serious lung trouble until he tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Then he wrote: "It is the best medicine I ever used for a severe cold or bad case of lung trouble. I always keep a bottle on hand." Don't suffer with Coughs, Colds, or any Throat, Chest or Lung trouble when you can be cured so easily. Only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free. Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

MEADOW.

Bright and Promising Career of Eric A. Pearson Closed in Death.

Special Correspondence.

Meadow, Millard Co., March 27.—Meadow, in all of her history, has but few times been overshadowed with a gloom so universally felt by all as yesterday, when all that was earthly of Eric A. Pearson was laid away in the silent tomb.

The deceased was the son of Peter and Carrie Pearson and was born in Sweden, November 11, 1875, emigrated to this country when a mere boy, about ten years ago. He was universally esteemed for his industry and integrity, and nobility of character. To pay for his own emigration and also to assist in bringing his father's family from Sweden, he followed sheep herding, enjoying the confidence of all who employed him. Being ambitious to obtain an education, he left sheep herding and went to the B. Y. academy, Provo, part of a year. Part of the next winter he spent in the Agricultural college in Logan and to that institution he had again returned this year, after the holidays.

The first intimation of his sickness was on the receipt by his parents of a telegram on the 21st inst. to go and nurse him. Accordingly his parents left the same day arriving in Logan the 22nd. He rallied and seemed better, but not to last, and continuing to grow worse his spirit took its flight in the afternoon of the 23rd. All day his hands could do was done, but to no avail. His remains were brought home on Sunday and as stated were buried yesterday.

The young man was shortly to have been married to a worthy young lady, Miss Lucy Bennett, daughter of Bishop Bennett.

Elders John A. Beckstrand, of Meadow, and Joshua Greenwood, of Provo, officiated at the funeral, which was largely attended. Twenty-eight vehicles followed the remains to their last resting place. The family and dear ones have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.

THE TRUCK PATCH.

Every farmer should have a good truck garden, says a writer in Garden and Farm. I mean something more than a small garden that every farmer is supposed to have. Not many farmers but what make a pretense, anyway, of having some sort of a garden, and usually the better the farmer the better the garden and the more of it. The wide-awake farmer wants plenty of vegetables, and in as great a variety as possible for his table. He not only enjoys better health because of their use as a food-supply, but he eats them because he likes them and believes that an animal or meat diet should always be accompanied by plenty of good vegetables.

Too many farmers, however, think that small business to "putter" (as they call it) with a truck patch. They think they haven't time to spare from their money crops on the farm. This is a mistake in most cases, for the average farmer need never be so busy but that he can plant and tend a good sized truck patch. He might as well try to do without his meat supply as without a vegetable supply—one without the other is an unbalanced ration.

Every farmer should lay off a piece of ground near the house for the special purpose of growing a full supply of early and late vegetables for his own family use, and the supply should be ample. This plot of ground should be laid out in rows, and the rows should be straight and the plants put in as straight a line as possible. A little care in planting will greatly increase the yield.

Early peas, beans, sweet corn, beets, onions, lettuce, radishes, and any other early vegetable that you like, should be planted as early as the ground is in fit condition, which here in when it can be sown. I always make my early garden in seedling time, and at the same time plant some of the later varieties, so that we can have a continuance of the good things.

When the ground becomes warmer, then plant carrots, parsnips, salsify, turnips and a later planting of the earlier varieties; then come melons, cucumbers, squash, cabbage and tomatoes. In cultivating the earlier plantings, also go over the ground meant for later plantings; in this way a great many weeds can be destroyed.

If the family fond of greens you should have an early supply of them, such as spinach, cress, etc.

Pick out a rich, warm corner of the garden near the house and sow the seeds as early as you can rake a little of the frozen ground over them, and they will be along early and give you a succession of greens as long as you want them.

WHAT WAR MEANS.

During the last two years 41,275 men have been killed in battle.

thought that over seventy per cent of the registered voters will be got out on election day.

LICENSED TO WED.

The county clerk today issued marriage licenses to L. O. Raynolds of Sevier, and to M. E. Keller, 21, of Minshall, Indiana. Justice Holdaway performed the ceremony. A marriage license was also issued to Andrew Kangas 37, and Hilma Alpel, 29, both of Winter Quarters, Carbon county, Utah.

The Emery Stake Academy at Castle Dale will close at the end of this week.

Bulk Perfumes

We mean perfumes that you can buy in any quantity, from 10c up—any odor your fancy may choose is here—but one thing to remember, only the best odors from the best makers. Each one has his specialty, each perfume makes other odors better than the other; these are the kinds that you'll find here. Just now Carnation Pink is all the rage. Two new makers, just to hand, Lazell's and Palmer's. One thing you'll notice about our perfumes, they last. Maybe because we know how to keep them.
