LOCAL NEWS.

Accident.—On Thursday a six-year-old son of Mrs. Ida Arnold, of the Seventeenth Ward, fell, dislocating his left arm at the elbow, and fracturing the bone. Dr. M. P. Hughes attended to the injured limb, and the little fellow is getting along nicely.
Outing.—The April number of this excellent illustrated magazine comes to hand more richly freighted, if possible, than ever. Having been enlarged to 128 pages, it is fully the equal of any of the magazines. Among a host of other entertaining articles in this number will be found the first chapter of Stephens' bicycle trip across the continent.
Police Court.—Patrick McCarthy for being drunk, profane and disorderly, was fined $10.
John Eskert, for drunkenness and trespass, paid $5.
J. T. Orion, drunk and profane, was fined $10.
James Hamilton, drunk and disorderly, was fined $10.
Henry Moore, arrested on the same charge, gave security for his appearance at 2 p.m. to-day, and went out and being unable to appear in court, got drunk again, now languishes in jail.
Improvement.—Mr. Elias Morris is enlarging his salerooms on South Temple Street, so as to get room to exhibit his fine stock of plaster-of-paris ornaments. The manufacture of these is at present a comparatively new home industry, but Brother Morris has now on hand centre pieces, brackets, cornices and ornaments of nearly all kinds, in variety to suit almost any taste.
We are requested to state that Rev. S. J. Corvill will preach at the Methodist church to-morrow at 11 a.m.

The Orchestral Concert.—The vocal and instrumental concert to be given under the direction of Professor George Carless, in the Theatre, on Wednesday evening, will surpass anything that has been attempted in this city in the past, and lovers of music will be well repaid by attending. The list of performers is the largest local combination ever announced to appear in Utah, and includes Mrs. Carless, Miss Russell, Professors Krouse and Weidman, Messrs. Gorinski, Nelson, VanPraag, Weihe, Clive, and about thirty others.
The programme consists of an overture, "Evening Thoughts," composed by Mr. W. C. Clive, for this concert; song, "The Vain with Hearts," by Mr. A. Nelson; overture, "William Tell," song, by Miss Edna Russell; duet, two pianos, "Homage to Handel," by Prof. Kadiolfe and Mr. Carrington; violin solo, "Concerto," by Mr. Weihe; patrol, "American," written by Prof. Carless for this concert; overture, "Die Felsenmühle," piano solo, "Concerto," by Prof. Krouse; solo, "Pregiera," by Mr. R. Gorinski; cello solo, by Mr. H. VanPraag; song, "I Love Thee," by Mrs. George Carless; and a grand finale, "Un Ballo in Maschera," by the orchestra.

Primary Conference.—The Quarterly Conference of the Primary Associations of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion convened in the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms at 10 o'clock this morning. President Ellen C. Clawson, presiding, Counselor Lydia A. Wells, and several other sisters present on the stand. There was a large attendance, many being unable to obtain seating room. After prayer and singing, a report of the Associations was read, followed by the reading of a manuscript paper, "The Children's Helper," from the Fourth Ward Association; "The Lord's Prayer," a song, by the members of the Thirteenth Ward; dialogue by two boys from the Fifth Ward; flute solo, by a seven-year-old boy from the Twelfth Ward; organ solo, by a little girl from the Twentieth Ward; recitations by little girls from the Third, Seventh, Tenth and Sixteenth Wards; and a song by three girls from the Twenty-first Ward. The programme was well rendered. Remarks were made by Sisters Clawson, Carrington, Horne and Wells, and the conference adjourned for three months to meet in the Salt Lake Assembly Hall.

Benefit Entertainment.—A musical and dramatic entertainment will be given in the Salt Lake Music Hall on Tuesday evening next, the proceeds of which are to be used for the immigration of the wife and family of Joseph Nattress. An attractive programme will be presented, in which some well known local talent will figure, and we feel safe in promising all who choose to patronize a performance gotten up in so worthy a cause the full value of their money in real enjoyment. The general price of admission is only 25 cents, while children will be admitted on payment of 15 cents each. The doors will be open at 7.30 and the performance will commence at 8 o'clock.

Relief Society Conference.—The Relief Society of the Salt Lake Stake met in quarterly conference, at 10 a.m. yesterday, in the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms. Sister M. Isabella Horne presiding; Counselors E. S. Taylor and H. M. Whitney present. The morning session was occupied in reading reports from thirty-nine branches of the Society in this Stake, and an interesting address by Sister Helen May Whitney.

At 2 p.m. the conference again assembled, and were addressed by Sisters E. S. Taylor, S. M. Kimball, Phoebe W. Woodruff, B. W. Smith, E. B. Wells, R. M. Carrington, M. W. Wilcox, H. T. King and M. T. Horne. The conference then adjourned for three months.

Another Family Subpoenaed.—Thursday evening the house Mr. E. B. Kelsey was visited by subpoena servers, who summoned his entire family to appear before the grand jury yesterday. It will be remembered that Mr. Kelsey left the Church at the time of the Goddette movement, but he did not see fit to put away all of his wives but one, and has continued to support and live with two of them ever since. The charge upon which they are trying to bring an indictment is doubtless that of unlawful cohabitation, as, of course, he has taken no more wives recently. Mr. Dickson disclaims the responsibility of originating this case, and Mr. Kelsey thinks it is the result of some private grudge.

A Patent Fan.—Mr. Frank, of this city, had on exhibition and trial, at Young Brothers' store, this morning, several varieties of fans, the patent for which he has secured. Two styles of the fan are for attachment to sewing machines, and are run without any additional effort on the part of the operator, causing a gentle breeze, which can be controlled at will. Another style is for table and office use, and is driven by treadle power. The fan is an ingenious device, and is also endeavoring to perfect a motive power by means of weights, pulleys and springs, to drive sewing and other light running machines, and he feels confident of success.

District Court Proceedings.—The arguments in the case of A. M. Eddy et al. vs. E. A. Ireland, were finished this morning and the jury instructed by the court. Exception was taken to the instructions, and the jury retired.

The defendant in the case of Flora B. Gochers vs. Robert Warnock filed a motion to strike out part of the complaint, and proceedings were stayed pending the motion.
E. Eisebach et al. vs. Wm. M. Lacy. Plaintiffs moved for a continuance for the term at their own costs.
The case of Henry Denhalter vs. Wm. W. Lacy is in progress. A jury was waived and several witnesses for the prosecution were examined.

Morgan County.—Mr. H. S. Pugh, who came down from Morgan last evening, informs us that everything is quiet and peaceable in that section. The people are in a comparatively new home industry, but Brother Morris has now on hand centre pieces, brackets, cornices and ornaments of nearly all kinds, in variety to suit almost any taste.
We are requested to state that Rev. S. J. Corvill will preach at the Methodist church to-morrow at 11 a.m.

BEAVER COURT ITEMS.

BEAVER, March 2, 1885.

Editor Deseret News:

The Peace trial is still progressing. The Court has got through with the examination of witnesses for the prosecution, and is now examining witnesses for the defense. All the jurors have been discharged except the panel for hearing the present case, and when it is through with the case will adjourn.
Bishop Fotheringham was indicted on the 13th inst. by the grand jury for unlawful cohabitation, and was arrested this morning by deputy marshal Armstrong. He was immediately taken before the District Court and put under bonds of $1,500 for his appearance. Messrs. Barnsworth and Barnrough becoming his sureties, after which he was discharged from custody.
MOONSHIRE.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

CULLED FROM LATEST EXCHANGES.

—James Wardwell's saw mill at Emmetsville, Idaho, was burned on the night of the 14th inst. The work is supposed to have been that of an incendiary, as there had been no fire about the mill for some time. Two men were sleeping in the mill at the time of the fire, who barely escaped by knocking a hole through the roof and leaping to the ground. The mill is a total ruin. Loss estimated at about $10,000. No insurance.

—A special to the Butte Miner from Bozeman, Montana, dated March 18th, says: "James Ponder and party, which went up Bridge Canyon to rescue the Schlansman party, buried in a snow avalanche, returned to-day with the bodies of Schlansman, one of the Hazard brothers and P. J. Smith. The other Hazard could not be found. The slide had broken in the cabin and all were badly crushed. They were dug out of eight feet of snow with timbers across their bodies. The corpses were hauled by hand through the deep snow, five miles, to where horses could be used. The parties must have been dead three weeks. All were buried this afternoon."

—Last Saturday night a bloody row occurred at a dance in Corvallis, W. between the floor manager, William Beard, and one Joe Crouch. The dispute commenced in the hall, but they soon adjourned to the outside and a terrible fight soon commenced. In a few moments Crouch was seen to draw a slung-shot, or some other heavy article, and strike Beard over the head, knocking him down, a second blow being given him on the back of the neck as he fell. Crouch, thinking he had killed his antagonist, fled, and thus far has eluded all search. A doctor was called, and after an examination, declared that the injured man was in a very critical condition and the chances were against his recovery.

—Some lively shooting was done in Omaha the other evening. Mr. George and his wife were going toward their home, when a stranger came out from a saloon and they passed him. Mrs. George by the arm. The indignant husband knocked the man down and passed on, but the latter, after regaining his feet, fired at George, the ball penetrating the lower part of his body, inflicting a painful flesh wound. George turned and drew a revolver, which he snapped, but as it was empty it had not even a moral effect. The stranger fired three shots, one of which struck George in the right arm above the elbow, and another grazed his left wrist, while a fourth missed him entirely. George and his wife went home and a doctor was called to dress the wounds, which are not serious. Officers were soon on the track of the shooter, and after a short search, arrested him in a saloon.

—Last Thursday morning a desperate though unsuccessful attempt was made at Laramie to murder Mr. E. S. Dixon, an old resident of that place. It seems that he had had in his employ for several years a man named E. Embree, who had fallen desperately in love with Mr. Dixon's wife, but she did not reciprocate his affections, and had resented his advances on several occasions. Some time ago the two men had some difficulty and Embree ceased to work for Mr. Dixon, but he still bore him affection for the lady did not diminish. On the morning mentioned he called at Dixon's house, and finding Mrs. Dixon alone, locked all the doors and proceeded to make love to his unwilling listener. The husband, however, unexpectedly broke upon the scene, and with words of reproach by more force than politeness, ordered the unwelcome guest to depart. Instead of obeying, Embree drew a revolver and deliberately fired three shots at Mr. Dixon and fled. Strange to say none of them took effect. The officers were informed of the affair and were soon in pursuit. The would-be murderer was doubtless being made for, for it is feared that if he is allowed to go free, he will return to complete his work.

CONFERENCE rates on the various railroads have not yet been fixed. The railroad officials are discussing the matter at Denver, and a decision may come by telegraph at any time.

CORRESPONDENCE.

HENNEFER JOTTINGS.

HENNEFER, March 17, 1885.

Editor Deseret News:

There has been a good deal of sickness here during the past winter, and quite a number of cases among the latter was that of Sister Elizabeth Francis, wife of Brother John Francis, who died on the 12th inst. as she lived, a faithful Latter-day Saint and passed away without a struggle. She leaves a husband and two young children whom they adopted, to mourn her loss.

The snow is nearly all gone from the level, and the land is drying fast, ready for the tillers of the soil, who at present are busy repairing their farming implements.
Our Sabbath meetings are well attended, and also the Y. M. M. I. meetings, which are presided over by Brother W. T. Stephens. Our Sunday School is in a flourishing condition, under the superintendency of Brother J. Jones. Our district school is in a healthy condition, also with Brother James Ure and Principal and Brother William Brewer as his assistant.
Children seem to be troubled with ringworm and crabs in this place; if any of your readers know of a good remedy for ringworm, and they would please circulate it through the News, it would be gratefully received. Respectfully,
ROBERT A. JONES.
