OGDEN NEWS.

OGDEN, APRIL 17, 1900.

SALE OF OGDEN CITY BONDS

Arbor Day Observed by the School Children, Who Plant Trees.

Annual Ball of the Columbia Club—An Elitist Affair—Boys Arrested for Housebreaking.

Arbor day was generally observed in Ogden by the schools, business houses and public as a holiday.

In the evening there were a number of balls and entertainments. The public schools did their part to commemorate the day. At all of the schools exercises were rendered appropriate to the occasion, and each department in most of the schools planted a tree as a remembrance. These exercises were carried out during the morning, and in the afternoon school was dismissed. In the Weber Stake Academy each of the departments observed the day. The program rendered at the State School for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind was very interesting, and enjoyed by a number of visitors.

ARRESTED FOR HOUSEBREAKING.

Yesterday afternoon Detective Pender arrested two boys about 15 years of age on the charge of housebreaking. They gave their names as Oscar Mortensen and Orlando Calvin, both living at the north end of the Union Light and Power company. Yesterday these two boys were seen to raise one of the windows and enter the building. The police department was immediately notified by the owner, D. E. Perry, who lives at the north end of the building. The boys claim that they did not steal anything from the building, and that they were never at the place before, but yesterday they were out looking for a job, and just thought they would look in the building and see what it contained. The police do not believe their story but think they have caught the perpetrators of the different stealings from the Power company.

BURGULARS CAUGHT.

The police have also arrested four men that are a pretty hard looking quartet. A report came to the station from D. E. Perry, who lives at the north end of the building, that his house had been entered and robbed of a lady's gold watch and a gold ring set with rubies and diamonds, also a number of other articles. The suspected party was described to the police and an immediate search was commenced, and in a few hours the four above mentioned were run in. The missing ring was found in the possession of one of the men, giving his name as Tom. One of the others gave his name as Tom. Scott, and in his possession was found a small picture that was in the watch which stolen. The police feel confident that these are a part of the gang of burglars that have been doing the town of late.

COLUMBIA CLUB BALL.

The Columbia club gave their second annual ball last evening in the Christendom hall, a very large and elaborate affair. The purpose of the meeting was to open the bids received for the 4th cent $100,000 refunding bonds, being the second of the series. After the roll was called the council went into committee of the whole and the bids, which had been received, were opened and read as follows:

A BIG EASTERN UTAH FIRE

Vernal Roller Mills Completely Destroyed Yesterday Afternoon.

Seven Thousand Bushels of Wheat also Burned—Total Loss Will Reach $200,000—$4,000 Insurance.

Vernal, April 16.—The Vernal Flouring Mills were destroyed by fire at noon today. The total loss will exceed $200,000. Seven thousand bushels of wheat were also burned. The insurance aggregates but $4,000.

The fire is the most disastrous that ever visited Utah county, and great inconvenience will result in consequence of its visitation. The people will be on the verge of a four famine until the product can be brought in from Price. Four thousand bushels of the wheat destroyed belonged to the mill company and the remainder to its patrons.

The exact cause of the fire is not known, though it is believed to have come from a flying spark from the smoke-stack. A stiff breeze was blowing at the time and the building, once ignited, was rapidly consumed. The greatest loss of the fire will be to Jack Backing, who held fifty-seven shares out of a total of 250.

Inquiry at the insurance offices here elicited the fact that the Vernal mill, which is owned by the Vernal Mill & Live Stock company, carried $4,000 insurance with companies represented by Heber J. Grant & Co., Mr. S. R. Bennington to one of the main owners and he had decided only last week to reduce the insurance carried, returning a policy for $1,000, which had been written in the Home of Utah. The mill is said to have been a fine piece of property, thoroughly equipped, and the loss will be a severe one. Not only to Mr. Bennington and his associates, but to the people of that flourishing district.

LOGAN.

Arbor Day Appropriately Observed—Many Planted Trees.

Special Correspondence.

Logan, Cache Co., April 16.—Arbor day was observed generally as a holiday in this city, the tanks and stores closing their doors. Many residents fulfilled the object of the day by planting trees, beautifying lawns, etc. At the Brigham Young college an appropriate program was given, with the indoor portion of which consisted of addresses, etc. The assemblage then repaired to the college grounds, where various beautiful trees were set out by the faculty and students. One tree was dedicated to President Lorenzo Snow, another to Trustee Preston, another to Trustee Howell, and others. In the afternoon there were games of basketball and the college campus.

MOAB.

Seventh Judicial District Court—A Light Docket.

Special Correspondence.

Moab, Grand County, April 14.—The Seventh Judicial district court convened here on the 10th inst., the Hon. Jacob Johnson presiding. The calendar was void of criminal cases, out of ten cases only one came to trial, that of John E. Brown vs. John N. Kervin (suit to regain possession of mining property). The plaintiff prayed for a half interest in three mining claims, purported to have been located by the said John Kervin, and the amusing part of the case was, that counsel for the defendant was making a quit-claim deed to all rights in the land in the property in question; costs were assessed against plaintiff.

A number of probate cases were disposed of, the principal cases, however, were continued to the next day.

Damp heavy weather is prevalent in this part of the country at the present date. Up to the present time the fruit is all right, that is, there will be no crop loss except some of the more tender varieties.

KANOSH.

Bounteous Rain and Snow Come as a Benediction Upon All.

Special Correspondence.

Kanosh, Millard County, April 15.—The storm of a week ago has been as a baptism to new life upon the face of the land here, and the hearts of the people are full of gladness and gratitude for its providential advent. Three days previous to the storm Edwin Rappley drove a bunch of cattle into the mountains and got them nicely located in a deep warm canyon, but the unlooked for storm came and four of his cows perished before he got the balance out of two and a half feet of snow, but the storm brought compensation to him. The frost killed some early fruit, but our orchards now look full of promise, and our hay crop is assured.

EPIDEMIC OF LA GRIFFE.

For a number of weeks there has been a great epidemic of something in the nature of whooping cough here, and it takes hold of both children and adults alike. So far only one death has occurred, that of an infant child of Joseph and Minnie Whitaker.

Quite a number of our citizens are off from home sheep-shearing. A few young men have gone up into Idaho to see the country and obtain employment, with a view of permanently locating there.

Mr. F. N. Porphy removes his family tomorrow to their new home near Richfield, Sevier county.

Mrs. Lela Kimball Hess and first-born son, arrived here yesterday from Farmington, Davis county, on a visit to her mother and friends, which include the whole ward.

Cattle men are still buying hay at $5 per ton, to put the thin animals in trim to hustle for themselves upon the range.

ALPINE.

Malignant Case of Smallpox—"Quiet" Wedding—No Rain.

Special Correspondence.

Alpine, Utah Co., April 16.—There is now one case of smallpox in town again. This time it is in a more malignant form. Schools and public gatherings have been discontinued, and the city officers are doing all they can to stop the spread of the disease.

A QUIET WEDDING.

John Olsen of this place, and Jessie Hunter quietly repaired to Provo last week and got married; but their friends at home heard of their departure and prepared to give them a royal reception on their return. The Alpine band turned out, and the racket they made was a fitting introduction to future benedictions.

The weather clerk has not been as good to us as he is said to have been to other towns of our State; we have had scarcely enough rain or snow to let the dust, and the snow in the mountains is very light. We have, however, had plenty of wind. Prospects are good for sheep. The sheep men of this place have already sheared about 12,000 head of sheep.

Special Correspondence.

Panguitch, Garfield Co., April 14.—The district court opened here on the 12th inst. with Judge W. McCarthy on the bench. The case of Geo. McCormick put upon the boards. For this purpose Harry Small and Young Haymaker were brought down from the pen as witnesses. About thirty witnesses testified. The case was given to the jury at 12 m. today, and at 2:30 a verdict of guilty was rendered. Mr. McCormick was tried some time ago on this same complaint and sentenced to eight years imprisonment, but on a new trial goes free.

FARMINGTON.

County Affairs—Wedding Bells—Fine Crop Prospects.

Special Correspondence.

Farmington, Davis Co., April 16.—Today, being a legal holiday, the county commissioners did not transact any business, although they discussed in an informal way many matters pertaining to the county's affairs, and adjourned until May 1st, 1900. The board will meet as a board of equalization for the county of Davis the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th of June, 1900.

WEDDING BELLS.

Marriage licenses were issued today by Deputy Clerk Palmer to Ira Holbrook, 21, and Alice May Pace, 21; and to Benjamin E. Kirkham, 23, and Polly Ann Prescott, 23, all of Bountiful, Utah.

FINE CROP PROSPECTS.

The recent rains have been a great boon and satisfaction to the farmers in the north part of this county where sugar beets are grown. It is reported that the prospects for a good crop has never been better than at present, and that the yield will be excellent unless a long and severe drought follows these storms. In many instances the beets are up and almost ready to be thinned out at this time. The tomato crop outlook is also encouraging. The plants are being transplanted, and will be ready to set out by the first of May, if weather conditions continue favorable.

BARN DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Hay, Live Stock and Implements Burned—Serious Loss to Bishop Wrathall.

Origin of the Fire a Mystery—Matches and Cigarettes are the Supposed Cause—No Insurance.

Special Correspondence.

Grantville, Tooele Co., April 16.—Last Saturday evening Grantville suffered from one of the most disastrous fires that ever happened here. About 8:30 p. m. fire was seen issuing from the roof of the large barn belonging to man only about half an hour previous had fed the horses and cattle and closed the barn for the night, with no sign of anything unusual occurring. There were in the barn at the time about five (possibly six) head of milch cows, six head of work horses, all tied up, with six head of calves, and some sheep that were left in the corral, and nothing was saved, everything being burned to a cinder. The Bishop's barn was the first on the scene, who opened the barn door with the intention of cutting the ropes and turning the animals loose, but a stream of fire and smoke met him in the face, and it was impossible for him to make any attempt as the whole inside was ablaze, and the belching of the animals was heartrending, as nothing could be done for them without first putting out the fire. The fire was extinguished by the fire brigade, but with no fire brigade everything went down. North Willow Creek was turned on the fire and the few remaining timbers were put out with the bucket brigade. Mowing machine, hayrack, cart, wagon, all were burned and could not be saved. The water tank which supplied water for his residence, which was elevated some 25 or 30 feet high, fell with a crash, and a stream of flame rose high in the air, lighting up the whole town. A slight wind was blowing from the northwest at the time and half burned shingles lit upon the roof of the academy building, and fears were entertained that the roof would take fire, but being damp from the late rains it escaped destruction.

The definite cause of the fire is known, but the idea strongly prevails that matches and cigarettes as usual was the cause. Your correspondent consulted with the Bishop in regard to the cause of the fire, and he estimated at about $3,000. No insurance. Everybody in the ward sympathizes with him in his loss, and will show their sympathy in a practical way by raising a fund to repair the loss sustained. President C. M. Anderson started the list with $100.

The Progress club, with A. J. Stookey in the chair, met last Wednesday evening in the assembly room of the Academy, and an interesting program was rendered. The lecture on Botany by Dr. Walter M. Stookey was very instructive. The club is getting very popular and attracts a large audience every meeting.

Albert Erickson's fine brick residence is being pushed to completion.

The theatrical season is now past and our citizens have turned their attention to agricultural pursuits.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

FRANKLIN, IDAHO.

Bounteous Rains—Fine Crops Assured—Old Lady Suicides.

Special Correspondence.

Franklin, Oneida County, Idaho, April 16th.—The beautiful rain that we have had lately was a blessing to all the country. The dry farmers particularly rejoice; they say that their wheat crop never looked so well as it does now. Spring and the prospects are that they will reap a rich harvest.

OLD LADY SUICIDES.

On the 4th inst. Mrs. Corbin, an old lady, 73 years of age, who lived up Cubber street, Joseph committed suicide by cutting her throat with a razor. Her husband has moved from place to place several times, and like the rolling stone, gathered no moss. Mr. Corbin was about to move again, but his wife declared that if he had to move again, they would move home, to another home, she moved herself to a home in the unknown beyond.

WORK OF INCENDIARY FOILED.

Last night while the people were in meeting, a dastardly attempt was made to fire the Union Furniture store across the street from the main store. One of Mr. Cherry's daughters happened to go to a neighbor's well for water when she saw the fire. She ran back and told her father who ran and dashed water on the flames and quenched the fire. He then ran to the meeting and gave the alarm, when all the people rushed out. It seems that a piece of board with some kindling saturated with coal oil, was stuck under the building, which started to burn, when it was discovered. Had it got a start the fire would have been a very serious one.
