LOCAL AND OVERSEAS NEWS

THEATRICAL. To-night the Waldron troupe open at the Grand and will be supported by the Social League. The play is "Quits" with the performance commencing at 8 o'clock.

CONCERT. The Scandinavian choir, under the leadership of P. O. Thomsen, gave their second concert at the home of the Scandinavian emigrants at the 15th Ward Assembly Rooms.

ACCIDENT. On Monday afternoon, at 11 o'clock, a young boy named "Bobby" was proceeding from the beach to the playground when he fell into the water.

DEATH. A night watchman in a Burlington, Vt., bank recently died, leaving a $150,000. By a strict observance of economy, with the aid of a large family and the help of the vaults, he saved this amount in twenty years on a salary of forty dollars a month.

LECTURE. Mr. Henry Waterhouse still withholds his approval from the British. The inadequacy of the London arrangements for the war, he says, is a matter of fact.

THE CHAP. The chap who wrote to Horace Greeley for a copy of the Tribune containing "that article on Kansas," has recently written to Colonel Forney asking him to forward by mail to him a copy of the piece in it about the continental exhibition.

LOSS. The person who took a Fiat motor car on Friday afternoon or evening will please call on the owner, Joseph Brown, 12th Ward, and be rewarded.

SEARCH. A Russian and who is a feathery politician, who is offering himself to the farmers as a political agent to achieve for them their independence, remarks the Chicago Times, "and you will find in his office a large number of copies of the way, has got government for his partner in business."

IT WAS IN THE MIDDLE of the year 1841, in London a hundred years ago by the first demographic, John White, who is said to be a patriot of the first water, that Dr. Johnson said, "Patriotism is the last refuge of a scoundrel."

IT IS PRETTY WELL understood that there is a large and influential section of the community—namely, the ladies looking for a settlement, an establishment, a position, who do not acquire it in the way of a modern poem, that "Love is Enough." Many other things, they say, are wanted besides love.

APPLETON'S JOURNAL says: "Few people are aware of the great convenience to the public of the money-order office." It is the only national bureau that pays a profit and is self-supporting, but the money-order office nets an annual profit of $100,000.

IN AN ARTICLE attributed to the inspired pen of the late poet of Russia, the Russian word "expatriate" on the results according to Russia, from the fall of the Czar, England appears to be unable to dispatch her armies to fight in twelve days by three different routes.

THE BEAR LAKE FOODS. A private letter from Bloomington, Bear Lake Valley, states that the people of that place send the Fourth very pleasantly in mornington Kanjon, in fulfilling in usual seasons, and recently engaged in on such occasions. The Paris people went to Fish Haven, where, among other things, they had a very large lake. Others went to Soda Springs.
