Bound for Hell.-We are pained to learn that Mr. Andrew Sears, a citizen of Twiggs county, who has heretofore borne an unblemished reputation, left home a short time ago for Macon with six bales of cotton, which he sold, and with the proceeds in his pocket, left for parts unknown. A friend received a letter from him a few days ago, dated at Salt Lake City, Utah, and he wrote that he was on his road to "hell." Pecuniary embarrassment is said to be the cause of his flight. He leaves a young wife and baby to the cold charities of a selfish world. -Wilkinson, Ga., Appeal.
