HOW THE TRUTH IS RECEIVED.

This correspondent of the New York World who has been writing up Utah, and has raised the ire of the rabid anti-Mormons because he has refused to see through their eyes and to repeat the falsehoods that drop freely from their tongues...

The gentleman is to some extent, perhaps, correct. It is true that there has been little endeavor, comparatively, to answer the nonsense, falsehood and filth, which writers for the press, both male and female, have supplied to their patrons.

The effect produced by the World correspondent's own contributions, offer evidence sufficient on this point. Written from a "gentle" standpoint and with no leanings towards the peculiar institutions and sentiments of the "Mormons," they have assumed more than common interest.

"Shades of Jefferson and Jackson, has it come to this? Shall this alleged blue-blooded Mormon in the World office, this hungry subscription hunter, this pernicious immoralist, this University Club rowdy shout the democratic party on the broad stage to Mormonism at his own sweet will?

We have unvelled the Mormon in the World office. His name is Rev. W. H. Huribert. Let him live as a terrible example and a warning to other would-be Mormons."

The paper which calls itself the Truth vents its anger as follows:

"Truly William Henry Huribert stands alone, not only among journalists in defending Mormonism, but among men the globe over.

A riddled, battered, broken parasite at Dives' table, a player on the moral wreck, through his own indulgence at the expense of others, a pauper, who has found his level in the vilest mire of Bohemia, and whose vitality is dribbling out its expiring vitality as the patron of the fastest crowd that ever lowered man to the level of the swine, and the protector of the Camille of our stage; the picture Theodore Winthrop painted years ago in "Cecil Dreams" has been fully realized by the development of our guerrilla millionaires, the ready tool of the inventor of Black Friday and a mousetrap."

All this Billinggate and vituperation hurled against Huribert, is caused by a mild setting forth of the real situation of Utah affairs from a gentleman whose services he secured, and who has the ability and the nerve to look at and describe things in his own way, with no disposition to deceive the public.

Now suppose these letters of anything like them had been written by a "Mormon." In the first place it is not likely that the World would have published them. It is very certain that other influential journals would have rejected them. Even when these palpable falsehoods concerning the Mormons have been admitted to their columns, they have refused to insert refutations, although couched in language that could not be complained of. Harper's Magazine some time ago contained an article composed of untruths from beginning to end about the "Mormons" and accompanied by no word or syllable of proof by way of attempt to substantiate them.

Talk about the "Mormons" finding opportunities through the press of the country to defend their cause, so much misunderstood! Why every avenue of that kind, almost, has been closed against us, and to attempt replies to all the libels and slanders that are uttered concerning us would employ the full time of many persons whose abilities are needed in other directions.

system, institutions, status and aims and of correcting as far as possible errors in relation to these matters. Books, pamphlets and newspaper articles containing the truth should be circulated, and we ought to do all in our power in this direction, leaving the result with the Almighty, and the free agency of men and women. And there are many of our friends in Utah who could aid in the good work by the occasional expenditure of a little money in the purchase and distribution of such works as are suitable to send abroad. Missionaries frequently write of the good effects produced wherever the Deseret News is in circulation, and state that it always opens the way for them among thinking people. We trust that the power of the press will be brought to bear more extensively than in the past for the dissemination of the truth concerning the "Mormons" and their creed, and we are sure of its great importance to the work of proselytism and the correction of erroneous and slanderous publications.

THE BREEDING OF FINE STOCK.

A NUMBER of committees were appointed by the Zion's Central Board of Trade at one of the recent meetings to collect information on various subjects and report with such recommendations as their experience would suggest. We shall publish the reports as they are made and shall reach us, and to day present the following on the subject of the breeding of fine stock:

To the Honorable the President and Members of Zion's Central Board of Trade:

Gentlemen.—Your committee to whom was referred the subject of breeding and raising fine stock, beg leave to report the following:

HORSES.

Recommend horses ranging in weight from 950 to 1,300 lbs., and would suggest the use of Morgan, Hackney and Hambletonian horses as worthy of the people's patronage, and as calculated to produce horses most suitable for all work in our mountain country, except for heavy draft. For this purpose we recommend the Norman.

CATTLE.

Recommend the Short-horned Durham Cattle, as affording the best cross that can be made with our native stock, where the object is to produce beef. Devon cattle are said to be the best foragers and to thrive equally well with anything, where they have to seek their feed, and to excel most breeds as oxen and milch cows, where pasturage is not the best and where ample provision cannot be made to supply them with provision during the winter. Where the object is rich milk and butter, we recommend the Jersey and Ayrshire for family use, but in order to be successful they must be well sheltered and cared for.

SHEEP.

Recommend the cross of Merino with Cotswold and our native sheep as affording the most profitable return in mutton and wool.

SWINE.

The Berkshire and Poland China are extensively bred and are found profitable, both pure bred and crossed, in our Territory and throughout the Western States. The Chester White crossed with Suffolk is also found to be admirably adapted to our mountains. While we recommend the crossing of the pure breeds of horses, horned stock and sheep with our native animals, we urge upon the attention of our breeders the necessity of preserving purity of blood in their respective kinds.

Your committee would suggest that there is a sufficient supply in the Territory of our own horses, Short-horn and Devon cattle, and Merino and Cotswold sheep for crossing purposes with our native animals, without further importation. Respectfully,

W. WOODRUFF, Chairman.

Passenger Train Wrecked.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., 15.—The Chicago express train, which left here at 10 o'clock this morning, was wrecked at Bedford, Ind. The train was running very fast to make up lost time, when the rear car jumped the track and rolled down a high embankment, killing the rest of the train after it. About forty passengers in the train were more or less injured. John Carmody, the engineer, was scalded and died this morning. This is the only fatality so far, the others will probably recover. Nearly all were able to resume their journey.

NEW YORK, 16.—An independent labor party was organized by the adoption of a platform that the American mails should be carried by American vessels. Vanderbilt and Gould being in the opinion of the members, largely interested in labor, will be invited to address the next meeting.

That's What Hayes did for Me.

The Tribune's Washington special has the following on an interview between Postmaster General Van Wyck and Teller, when the Postmaster General had concluded his catchalls, the Senator turned upon his questioner and said: "This accounts for the delay does it? I want to know if you intend me to understand that because I vote according to my convictions in the Senate, my suggestions are to be unheeded by this administration? Is that what you mean? If it is tell me so plainly that I will never darken your door again. I want to know the fact so that it may be made known to my constituents that simply because of my votes in the Senate, their representative is to be denied all influence in the departments under this administration."

"Why," interposed Teller, "that's what Hayes did for me, because I didn't support his nomination." "And," the Senator said, "the independent senator, 'You called him a dirty, sneaking leader for it, didn't you? That's what my opinion is of this administration. How is it with your department? (addressing himself to Teller.) I want to know all about this thing. We are interested in it, and our offices in our State. Am I to come and see you, or stay away?" Teller, who was leaving the room, rejoined, "Oh, come over and see me, by all means."

Turning again to the Postmaster General the late senator continued: "So, you keep spies upon me do you, and you take the word of the snobs who violate their oath and come here to lie about things. That's another reason why I want the executive session abolished. I tell you there is no need of any spies upon me. All I do is open and above board, and you can know all about me by asking me."

With that the senator bade the Postmaster General good morning and departed.

It was provided that the outstanding unlimited tickets should be honored by all the parties to the contract.
