

Miscellaneous.

Dumas per se has, it is said, made 19,800,000 francs by his pen.

Tennyson is to have $10,000 for twelve poems in Good Words, which is $833.33 per poem.

The floating ice on the river was immense yesterday, but not sufficient to stop the ferry boats.—Omaha Herald, 10th inst.

Eggs are quoted at fifty cents per dozen. This is the lowest price that this article has ever reached in Colorado.—Colorado Tribune.

The New York Tribune publishes a list of twenty-five railroads projected and under way, within eighty miles of that city.

If you want to ruin your sons, let them think that all mirth and social enjoyment must be left on the threshold when they come home at night.

The loss by the burning of Barnum's Museum will reach half a million of dollars. The insurances are not over half that amount. Mr. Barnum has announced the loss for sale, and will build on another site.

China is rapidly undergoing the process of civilization. Beer has been successfully made at Shanghai, and a whiskey distillery is being constructed.

Petitions have been signed in England by nearly 14,000 persons, praying that single women and widows duly qualified as rate payers may be allowed to vote for members of Parliament. The movement is supported by Lady Anna Gore Langton, Lady Amberley, Sir Geo. Bowyer, Mrs. Somerville, Sir Rowland Hill, The O'Donoghue, Mary Howitt, Lady Goldsmid, Rev. Chas. Kingsley, Sir J. Simpson, M. D., Mr. Goldwin Smith and others.

PRUDENCE.—A Vermont Yankee called at a hardware store and, after being shown a large assortment of scissors, turned to the clerk, remarking: "My wife's putty sick, and its about an even thing if she gets any better; guess I'll wait and see if she gets well, 'fore I buy any scissors."

An exchange speaking of the Firemen's parade in New Orleans, when Jeff. Davis and General Hancock were cheered, says: "Napoleon's way of dealing with the sans culotte of Paris, is the only way to treat with the rebels of New Orleans, 'blow them into the air with cannon.'" That is a heavy dose for, and a quick way of curing a tendency to cheer.

The Colorado Tribune, of the 14th, gives the names of the officers of a company organized to build a telegraph line from Denver to Mexico. The line is intended to be constructed from Denver through Colorado City, Pueblo, Trinidad and Union Fort to Santa Fe. The estimated cost between the points named is $100,000 to $110,000. The poles are nearly all cut and distributed; the wire and other material is at the terminus of the railroads; and the work is to begin at once.
