

Y. M. M. I. A. CONFERENCE.

A general conference of the Young Men's Mutual Improvement Association will be held in the Tabernacle, Salt Lake City, on Saturday and Sunday June 24 and 25. Meetings will commence each day at 10 a.m., 2 p.m. and 8 p.m.

The general and local authorities of the Church are requested to promote the interests of this conference, so far as they are able, that it may be largely attended and productive of the utmost good.

A general invitation to the people is extended to be present.

FRAGMENTS.

THERE are two new cases of diphtheria in the Twenty-first Ward.

The regular monthly meeting of Z. B. B. S. will be held this evening.

LOUIS CHRISTENSEN was admitted to citizenship today, in the Third District Court.

The corner stone of the Ogden City Hall was laid yesterday, with appropriate ceremonies.

There is a host of witnesses from Park City in town, attending the Third District Court.

JOHN HENDERSON was fined $10 in the Police Court today, for drunkenness and profanity.

OGDEN is having a season of runaways, several having occurred recently with serious results.

DANIEL PRIGG fell from the scaffolding of a house at Ogden last evening, and broke a bone in his shoulder.

JOHN P. JONES and B. McFadden were fined $5 each today, in the Police Court, for drunkenness.

CHARLES FIELDS, John Miller, H. Crowther and H. Wall were taken to the city jail last night in an incriminated condition, and will answer to Justice Hyatt for their unseemly conduct.

MYPER also has the charge of vagrancy booked against him.

We received a pleasant call this morning from W. C. Howard, Esq., advance agent of Daniel E. Bandman, who, with his company, are to play Bandman's version of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" on Friday and Saturday evenings next.

JAMES HORROCKS, JR., was battered over the head, in an Ogden saloon, yesterday afternoon, by Jerome Brown, the bartender. The weapon used was a beer glass, and Horrocks was badly cut across the nose and over the left temple. Brown was arrested.

ON Sunday, at Anascondo, Montana, a young man named Wm. Iyer was engaged in switching some cars at the railway depot, when he slipped and fell. A car passed over him, severing his right leg just above the knee from the body, and the left leg below the knee to a shapeliness man. His injuries are probably fatal.

MR. DUNCAN B. HARRISON, the author of "The Paymaster," and manager of the Harrison Rogers Company, will resume the leading role in his company at the Theatre this evening, having fully recovered the use of his right leg, which was broken some six weeks ago in his jump from the tower, in the second act, which is recorded as the highest stage leap ever undertaken, eighteen feet into the air.

Tomorrow, at the Theatre, the interesting melodrama, "The Paymaster," will be presented by the Harrison & Rogers Company, a strong combination of artists. Mrs. Dion Boucicault is not with the company, having been called to Europe, but her place is filled by Miss A. Adams. Tomorrow night "My Geraldine" will be played.

An exchange says: "Annie Adams has never been so better advantage than as Mrs. O'Connor, in 'The Paymaster,' which she plays very pathetically.

THROU the courtesy of Mr. Martin Correll, foreman of the Ontario mine, Park City, a representative of the News, in company with a party of friends was shown through the workings of that rich and extensive mine as low as the 1000 foot level last evening, upon which occasion, as is usual with visitors, the party were awed and bewildered by the stupendous nature of the works and surprised at the order and precision with which the ponderous machinery performed its part and all the work connected with the mine above and below ground was conducted.

THE Opera House opens this evening, under new management, for a two nights' engagement. Of the piece to be presented the Chicago Mail says: "George M. Wood's version of 'Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde,' presented this week at the Columbia, is a better treatment of the story than that which Mr. Mansfield has made so successful.

In fact, it might justly claim superiority from first to last. In the first place, the general idea of Mr. Wood's drama is in every way more natural. Dr. Jekyll is made a more human man who dreads his other self, yet cannot shake it; a man whom remorse and terror have made a moral weakling. Mr. Wood is a very capable actor, and has the requisite talent to make his version a popular success.

The new version of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" should be preferred to that which has already been so successful.

Another Feature Factory.

Arthur L. Cummings, J. W. Hardy, James McGhie, Jr., Jesse W. Fox, Jr., and Moroni Hodgson have recently organized the Salt Lake Fence Company, and are now in the field with a combination fence of pickets or lath and wire. The factory is now in operation at No. 157 S. First East Street, where orders for field, chicken, garden, street, farm, and every other kind of fence, will be filled promptly and at low prices. The young men who form the company are full of energy, and deserve success. Call and see them.

Death of Benjamin Jindson.

The announcement of the death of Benjamin Jindson, of the Tenth Ward, will be read with surprise by his friends and acquaintances, who are very numerous in this city and vicinity. He passed away at about midnight last night, after an illness of nine days. The cause of death was inflammation resulting from strangulated hernia. He was born September 19, 1829, and consequently was in his 59th year. He was a native of Bradford, England, and emigrated to Utah about 1870. He was long an employee of this office, as engineer, but during recent years has followed other pursuits. The funeral will take place at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the Tenth Ward meeting house.

THE GRANT TRIAL.

Still in Progress in the Third District Court.

In the trial of Richard Grant, of Park City, on the charge of manslaughter, in the killing of Peter Anderson on the night of November 3d last, in Grant's saloon, the testimony for the prosecution occupied a comparatively short period of time in its introduction. The first eye-witness to the killing was S. A. Smith, who testified—

"I was present at the saloon when Peter Anderson was killed; was standing by the bar; Anderson stepped in at the door and Grant ordered him out; Anderson, approached the bar and Grant stepped around at the end of the bar and had his gun in his hand; did not hear Anderson say anything when Grant ordered him out; he mumbled something but I could not hear what he said; he talked brokenly; I was about four feet from Anderson at the time he came in; did not see the gun until Grant came from behind the bar; Grant ordered Anderson out several times; Grant came around at the end of the bar with a half a minute after he first ordered him out; Grant said he had put him out four or five times, and he would make him stay out now."

Several other witnesses give testimony to the same general effect, and court adjourned until today.

Today Frank J. Evans testified that he was in the saloon; heard the first shot; saw Grant order Anderson out; heard Grant order Anderson out; the first shot came five or six seconds after the command to get out was given; saw no knife in Anderson's hand, and did not hear him say anything; saw him advancing toward Grant at the time the second shot was fired.

John L. Weber, policeman, testified to having seen Anderson about an hour before he was killed, and after Grant had put him out of the saloon, he was partly drunk but walked quietly away when the officer told him to.

The prosecution rested with this witness, and Mr. Dickson asked that they be compelled to introduce the testimony of Joe Stanley, who was dead.

His evidence had been taken in writing, and was favorable to the defense. The court ruled that the defense could not introduce the deposition in its own case, and this was done.

John Stanley's testimony was to the effect that on the night of November 3, 1887, he was in Grant's saloon; saw Grant put Peter Anderson out of the saloon three times that night; Grant was behind the bar when the deceased came in at the door; witness was seated near the door; Grant ordered Anderson out; on the third occasion Anderson raised a knife and threatened Stanley; he had been drinking, and was not drunk; the knife blade was three or four inches long; Anderson turned back to Grant, and said "You—of a—b— I'll kill you;" Grant came around the bar, and Anderson advanced toward Grant, when the latter fired; Anderson made another step, and Grant fired again; Anderson turned and fell out of the door; dead; he was about ten feet inside the door when he fell; Grant did not hear Grant say anything after he came from behind the bar; the threat was made before he was taken in writing, and was favorable to the defense.

The defense rested in evidence the deposition of six residents of Bodie, California, to the effect that Peter Anderson, there known as Andrew Peterson, was introduced as a crank; when under the influence of liquor, he was a dangerous and quarrelsome man, and had a bad reputation generally.

W. J. Moss, of Park City, testified—

"I know Peter Anderson, the deceased, in Virginia City, Nevada, in 1877; he was then called Andrew Peterson; he is the same man.

James Altyart testified—I knew Andrew Peterson, or Peter Anderson, in Bodie, Cal., in 1886; he was a quarrelsome man when under the influence of liquor; saw him in Park City in 1887.

The deposition of John Martin, who is now in Montana, was read. Martin was in a saloon across the street from Grant's on the night of the shooting; Anderson was in there and was rather noisy; Thompson and Martha were in there; Thompson actually had the watch and $10 of Anderson's money, taking care of it; Anderson asked Martin if he had a gun, and said he would get his watch from Grant if he didn't give it up.

Wm. Peck's deposition was also read. He testified to seeing Grant shoot Anderson; Thompson actually had the watch and $10 of Anderson's money, taking care of it; Anderson asked Martin if he had a gun, and said he would get his watch from Grant if he didn't give it up.

The trial was still in progress this afternoon.

On Friday next the annual conference of the Relief Society of this State will be held in the Logan Tabernacle.

Samuel Price, of Salt Lake, was arrested yesterday by Deputy Watson on the charge of malicious mischief. His examination takes place in the commissioner's court today.

At the beginning of the present half term of the primary of the B. C. Col. (see Miss Jessie Morehead look charge of that department. She has a nice school.

A day or two ago Mr. Massey, of Wilford, Idaho, got one of his hands badly cut with a circular saw. He came to Logan on Friday morning and Dr. Snow attended his injuries. The doctor hopes of saving the hand.

On Wednesday morning a little boy living in Smithfield was bitten with a mad dog. He was brought to Logan and Dr. Ormsby treated him. No serious results are expected from the bite.

Last evening Deputy Whetstone arrested Charles W. Nibley of this city. He was bound over to the court to appear in the Commissioner's court for examination, on Monday. Robert Marlock and J. J. Cranney signed the bonds.

From different places in the county encouraging words come to us regarding the crop prospects for this season. The recent showers have greatly encouraged in particular farmers of dry land and new life seems to have taken possession of them. We are pleased to note the healthy signs and trust that the harvest will be all that is now promised.

A few days ago a mare belonging to Thomas Jessop of Millville, gave birth to a three-legged colt. One of the front legs is missing and yet the young animal travels nicely. It seems to have no difficulty in getting up when lying on the side opposite the missing limb, but when on the other side, it has a little trouble. The young colt is quite a curiosity.

A little trouble. The individual who some four years ago appropriated a team and wagon which did not belong to him and departed for parts unknown, leaving his family uninformed as to his destination, has at last been heard from through a daughter of Jas. Ferguson, of this city. This lady is living in Arizona, and she states in a letter to her parents that Matt was killed by the Indians in that Territory, some three years ago.—Logan Journal, May 12.

The Immigrants.

By telegram from Kansas City we learn that the company of Saints now en route across the desert, and left today at 11:30 p.m. by the A. T. & Santa Fe R. R. for Pueblo where they will be transferred to the D. & R. G. and will no doubt arrive in this city on Thursday by the regular D. & K. G. W. train which is due here at 10 o'clock.

The People vs. William Harris; grand larceny; verdict of guilty.

In the case of the United States vs. Joseph F. Wood, grand larceny, the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

Evans, Thomas Duce, A. L. Schanely, Mr. Teah, J. J. Watkins and James Kemp, the defendants were ordered to appear for arraignment.

Southern Notes.

Flour in Pioche, Nevada, is scarce at $2.

The August election promises to be a hotly contested affair in this county. The grape crop of Dixie will be a good one this year.

It is feared the peach crop of Dixie will be rather slim.

Apples are ripening in the sunny climes of southern Utah.

The first crop of lucern has been cut, and the second is coming along nicely in and around St. George.

The resources of southern Utah are destined to attract tens of thousands of people to this section.

Mr. Amos Thornton, of Pinto, Washington County, was brought up before Commissioner Dupuis on Wednesday morning on a charge of unlawful cohabitation. There was no evidence to sustain the complaint, and the defendant, on motion of the prosecution, was discharged.

It is reported that a small dam built for a reservoir at Indian Creek, six miles from here, was washed away a few days ago, doing considerable damage to the Welch property.

Jacob Bastion, of Washington, Washington County, arraigned before Commissioner Dupuis and pled guilty to the charge of unlawful cohabitation and was committed to await the action of the grand jury.

A petition has been granted up and sent to the President asking the pardon of Dr. Higgins from the Pen. The doctor is a citizen of St. George, an old man, and one upon whom prison life is likely to work a great hardship.

Executive clemency could scarcely be directed in a better direction. A canal costing upwards of $80,000 is to be built by the industrious people of St. George. It will run from the mountains east of Washington to the present place. In order to make this canal either great cuts through solid rock will have to be made or extensive tunnels laid for nearly a mile in one place a tunnel of half a mile will have to be dug. It is a difficult undertaking but the well known character of the citizens is equal to the emergency.

Success.

Post Office Inspector E. R. Threlkeld was in town this week. He was called before the Grand Jury.

In inspection of the doings at several of the post offices in the south has been made by the grand jury, and his visit to the Grand Jury room seems significant.

His official arrangements in several post offices throughout southern Utah and California as also in Arizona and two cases of incorrect returns in Beaver County.

Beaver Chronicle, May 11.

Opposed to Sabbath Breaking.

The following preamble and resolutions were adopted at the Union meeting held in the First Congregational Church last Sunday evening:

Whereas, We believe that the permanency of our national institutions, and also the highest welfare of every community, and of the general and special character of the Sabbath, both as a day of worship and rest;

And Whereas, This conviction is supported by many reasons, and facts, and is in accordance with the following:

1. The institution of the Sabbath is one of the principal corner stones of the church, and, as such, lies at the foundation of public order and of social law and order.

2. The Sabbath is the one day on which the rich and the poor, the learned and the unlearned, the cultured and the uncultured, the refined and the unrefined, the virtuous and the vicious, the honest and the dishonest, the pure and the impure, the clean and the unclean, the good and the bad, the wise and the foolish, the strong and the weak, the healthy and the sick, the young and the old, the free
