JUDGE McKEAN ON COURTS FOR COUNTIES.

SALT LAKE CITY, March 14, 1874. Mr. Nounan, Clerk Third District

An emigrant holding a district court in and for train headed by the prophet, will said county;" and you ask for instructions in the premises. I answer, that although, as I am of the Territory, still the county

There are two regular terms of court in each year, in and for this district. commencing in March and September, and appointed in pursuance of congressional legislation. They are for the trial of cases arising under the laws of Congress, as well as cases arising under the laws of the Territory. They are not held for one county, but for the whole district consisting of nine counties.

About fifteen years ago, Congress provided that a judge of the Su-preme Court of a Territory might hold court in any county, etc., "for the purpose of hearing and deter-mining all matters and causes, except those in which the United States is a party: Provided that the expense thereof shall be paid by the Territory, or by the counties in which said courts may be held, and the United States shall in no case be chargeable therewith. Other Territories long since availed themselves of this statute, and provided for terms, of their district courts, in and for each county. In Utah, however, the terms of the District Courts have always been held for a whole district, and not authorities provided for the pay-ment of the expenses of any dis-trict court held for a county.

On the 9th instant, as you know, the regular March term of the Third District Court was commenced. It stands adjourned to an early day, and in the meantime I am considering some important cases that have been submitted after argument. The pending term is for the whole district—nine counties. On the calendar are between three and four hundred cases. In some of them the United States are a party; and many of the Territorial cases arose in other counties than the settlements of Cache to have this. Such cases cannot be tried at men clear the track between Logan a court held for this county alone. Mr. Hellister, Collector of Internal Revenue, has reported to the fedeial authorities about four hundred violations of the revenue laws of the United States. The offenders can be prosecuted only in a court held for a district and not for a county. The county authorities cannot, indeed no power but Congress can, limit the pending term, of court to this county. The county sheriff cannot summon a jury from the whole district, and no jury that he could summon in this county could serve for the whole district. When the business of the regular March term shall have been disposed of, I shall be ready for any other duties required by law.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES B. MCKEAN, Chief Justice.
