MEETINGS in the Tabernacle to-morrow at ten and two o'clock and in the various ward meetings in the evening.

THEATRE.—Last night a full and enthusiastic house greeted Mr. Lyne, on the occasion of his benefit. The drama, "Richard III.," was very well played. At its close Mr. Lyne was called before the curtain, when he expressed his heartfelt gratitude for the marked kindness of his friends in assisting to him.

This evening will be presented the ever effective tragedy of "Macbeth," with Miss Lyne as the heroine, principal solos by Mr. Thomas and Mr. Geo. Teasdale. Miss Walters' "Lady Macbeth" is a very fine impersonation. Mr. Chaplin enacts "Macbeth" and Mr. Thorne "Macduff." Mr. Margery is a witch.

On Monday Mr. Chaplin takes his farewell and with it his farewell benefit, when we understand the drama of "School" will be presented, followed by the "Invincible Prince." Mr. Chaplin is versatile, able, and accomplished actor, and we trust that his friends will appear in force on Monday.

THE EMIGRANTS.—A dispatch in another column states that the company of Saints now en route to this city passed Chicago yesterday. The companies of Utah and Missouri are four days between Omaha and Salt Lake. This company will be in New York on Wednesday evening last, and consequently, if they come through in the time, they will be here on Thursday evening next, Sept. 20. If they reach Omaha to-day, they may be here on Wednesday evening.

SET FOR EXAMINATION.—Mr. Whitney, counsel for Mr. Jacob Smith, appeared before Justice Clinton yesterday and requested that the examination of the charge against Mr. Smith be proceeded with at an early day as possible, as the defense were ready to go on with the case at any time.

His honor set the case for Sept. 21, at 10 o'clock to-day.

ON EXCITEMENT.—An exchange says Salt Lake is laboring under a certain latent excitement. This, perhaps, the case. These Salt Lake excitements, got up, by unprincipled parties, for ulterior purposes, are generally heard of first at a distance from Salt Lake, on the principle of "go from home to hear the news." There is all the time much more excitement far from Salt Lake about Salt Lake than there is at Salt Lake. The Salt Lakeers are a remarkably quiet people. It is not probable that they will all the fuss about them, for what reason Heaven above knows, but everybody is satisfied it is a bad reason.

OBITUARY.—The funeral obsequies of Herbert W., the little son of Brother Septimus W. and Mrs. Belle M. Sears, took place at the parents' residence at three o'clock yesterday afternoon. A large number of the relatives and friends of the family were present. Remarks suitable to the occasion were made by President D. Wells, and Elder J. H. Groo and David Candland. Brother and Sister Carless and several members of the Tabernacle choir were present.

CHANGES.—It will be seen, by the advertisement of the Utah Southern Railroad Co., that on and after Monday, Sept. 23rd, trains going South on this line will leave this city daily at 7 a.m. and 2:30 p.m., and arriving at Lehi at 9:10 a.m. and 4:40 p.m. The northern bound trains will leave Lehi at 9:30 a.m. and 4:50 p.m., and arrive at Salt Lake at 11:40 a.m. and 7 p.m.

It will be observed, from the above that on Monday, Lehi will be the southern terminus of the line.

LIVELY SUNDAY.—A gentleman just in from a trip up Little Cottonwood Canyon informs us that times are exceedingly lively up there, especially on Sundays. Last Sunday, as he was passing the house of Madame Miller, he saw a man run out of that establishment, followed by another, who kept up a running fire from a shot gun, at the first. One bullet struck the latter on the head, but he being a "big game" hunter was not perturbed. These supposed to know that the head of a "cullud" person is about as impervious as the hide of a rhinoceros. There was a "kiss down" & Co. the next day.

THE YELLOWSTONE SURVEYING EXPEDITION.—We understand from Charley Hard that the Hayden expedition have turned back from surveying the Yellowstone valley, and are now returning by the way of the Muskeleshell and surveying that route. When the command reached the first belt of bad lands, about fifty miles below the scene of their encounter with the Indians, the command was ordered to divide and part to go around by the way of the Muskeleshell, and the other to go through with the survey. It was found impossible to cross the Yellowstone River with the trains and animals, and go down on the other side. For these reasons Mr. Hayden decided to return. They crossed over to the Muskeleshell Valley over a rolling divide, crossing the mountain ranges, but found a rather broken country especially in continuity to the belt of bad lands. The country presents no obstacle to a railroad. The valley of the Muskeleshell looks very well. Messrs. Reed and Ford led the party below the forks of the Muskeleshell—Zelma Goodrich.

LADY PRACTITIONER.—"Observer" writes from Provo, Sept. 16, hoping that the time will soon come when women will engage more extensively in the medical field.

"In regard to patronizing itinerant professors, especially those of great pretensions, we cannot recommend it, as some of them may be able, skillful, experienced, and trustworthy, but generally they are not likely to be such. As a rule, they are unprincipled adventurers, unworthy of anybody's money or confidence."

LOGAN, 20.—A sad accident occurred here at 8 o'clock this morning. W. P. Hubbard, a resident of Logan, while engaged in erecting a large frame dwelling house for George M. Peacock, fell from near the top of the building on a lower joist, which broke, and from thence fell to the ground, hitting the corner of a rock and receiving a cut over his right eye three inches long, penetrating the skull and fracturing it one inch, small portions of brain coming out, paralyzing his side. He was entirely unconscious. Dr. Ormsby is attending him. He says recovery is doubtful.

Joseph Thatcher, accidentally shot off one of his feet last night.

LOGAN, 21.—W. P. Hubbard, the man injured yesterday by falling from Peacock's building, died at 3 o'clock this morning.

Improvements in front of the 15th Ward Assembly Rooms will make that popular building still more attractive. Public spirit is commendable, as well as private enterprise.

KEEP IN DOORS.—We are informed that a fellow, giving his name as Cross, and his recent occupation as Deputy U. S. Marshal in Beaver County, was around town yesterday looking for "Mormons" to kill. He had killed a good many men in his time, but had not yet got through. He had come to town expressly to kill "Mormons." He drew his pistol on an unarmed citizen, but did not shoot, and in a way would President Grant, during his coming four years of office, do more for the United States—already by him saved from dismemberment—than by rooting out forever this reeking side of Mormonism.

The Press will get sober and talk rationally, by and by.

LADIES ADMITTED TO THE UTAH BAR.

This morning there were some unusual interesting proceedings in the United States District Court, his honor Chief Justice McKean presiding. From a few minutes past 10 o'clock until about 1 past 11, the attention of the court was occupied in hearing and determining motions and arguments in relation to jury cases.

A few minutes before the last of these was disposed of Governor Woods, accompanied by several ladies entered the court room, all of them being invited to sit within the enclosure partitioned off for the use of the bar.

When the motions and arguments under consideration had been disposed of, the Governor arose and said:

"May it please the court, I desire to move the admission to practice in the courts of this Territory, of the ladies of the State. She is a graduate of the Law School of the Washington University, St. Louis, Mo., and is regularly admitted to practice in the courts of that State, and is a resident of the United States District Court of this State also in the courts of the State of Arkansas."

The court—"It has been said by a learned writer that law is the refinement of reason. Perhaps it is natural to infer that those who have the most refinement ought to be very clear, perhaps inflexible, reasons. Certainly no gentleman of this bar would deny the fact that the woman's influence is refining and elevating. May we not hope that the honorable profession of the law will be made more honorable by the admission of women to the bar. It strikes us as a novelty, gentlemen, but everything in the line of progress is novel. It is not a novelty. I very cheerfully admit Miss Felt to this bar, and gentlemen, I present to you your sister as the bar."

JUDGES HAYDOCK. "I move that the clerk swear Miss Conzins in, and that she sign the rule of attorneys."

The oath was administered, and the court took a recess of three minutes, in order that the clerk might be presented to the sister at the bar.

This formally having been attended to, business was resumed, when the following remarks were made by the chief justice:

MAJOR C. H. HEMPESTEAD. "I rise for the performance of a most pleasing duty. I think we may say that the admission of women to the bar of Utah is a novelty. It is not a novelty. It is a novelty. I very cheerfully admit Miss Felt to this bar, and gentlemen, I present to you your sister as the bar."

It will be seen, by the advertisement of the Utah Southern Railroad Co., that on and after Monday, Sept. 23rd, trains going South on this line will leave this city daily at 7 a.m. and 2:30 p.m., and arriving at Lehi at 9:10 a.m. and 4:40 p.m. The northern bound trains will leave Lehi at 9:30 a.m. and 4:50 p.m., and arrive at Salt Lake at 11:40 a.m. and 7 p.m.
