The Temperature 60 Below and Violent Weather Prevailing in Minnesota.

By Telegraph to the News.

Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The subcommittee today reported favorably to the House postoffice committee Representative Anderson's bill relating to the telegraph lines of the Pacific Railroad companies. The bill has been amended in some respects, so that it now requires subsidized railroad companies to maintain and operate their own telegraph lines, and afford equal facilities to all telegraph companies in the reception and transmission of telegraphic business. The bill confers the authority to the Inter-State Commerce Commission on enforce its provisions. The offending railroad officers or agents are made liable to a fine of $1,000 or imprisonment of six months, while the company is held liable for civil damages.

THE REPUBLICANS.

The district republican convention to elect delegates to the national convention at Chicago assembled at Willard's Hotel this morning. Most of the delegates were negroes and there were contesting delegations present from nearly all precincts in the city. In less than half an hour the convention was little more than a howling mob of rival factions. They were struggling fiercely for possession of the stage, and the quarreling, wrangling and shouting continued until 2 o'clock, at which time the police took possession of the stage and cleared the hall. Half an hour later all persons who could show credentials were admitted one by one and the convention resumed its session. Those of the delegation who belong to what is known as the Chase faction finally succeeded in getting of the convention and elected Judge Snellabarger and Fred A. Dyson delegates, with W. Calvin Chase and M. M. Holland as alternates.

The chairman thereupon declared the convention adjourned.

The Carson faction then took possession of the hall and elected as delegates Perry Carson and Andy Gleason, with Daniel Cahill and Marcellus West as alternates.

The House committee on banking and currency agreed to report favorably the Anderson resolution requesting the Secretary of the Treasury to inform the House whether the full amount of United States notes authorized by the law of 1875 was in circulation at that date or what amount had been lost since; the present circulation, and what legislation is necessary to maintain the limit of circulation.

A PETITION

from the Knights of Labor protesting against steam printing in the bureau of engraving and printing was received.

The Commerce committee took up the consideration of the resolution to investigate the Reading strike. Brumm of Pennsylvania, made a statement in the interest of the miners. An animated discussion took place, but the hour of adjournment having arrived, the committee rose without action.

Casualties.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—The northwest wind of the last two days has aided the ebb tides in sending the waters of the lower bay out to sea, and this afternoon when the Cunard steamship Servia tried to reach the city, she went aground in Swash Channel. She rests lightly, and will be hauled off by tugs at 4:30 a. m., when it is high water.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—The steamer Mariosa, which arrived today from Havana, brought the crew of the bark D. C. Champan of Boston, which sank at sea December 25th. After being in their boat ten days without food or water, and losing by starvation and exposure Captain W. C. Hall, the cook and one seaman, the rest of the crew were rescued January 4th.

LONDON, Jan. 24.—By an explosion of gunpowder at Brest Litovsk, Russian Polland, today, 11 persons were killed and 20 injured.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 24.—Fire broke out in O. G. King's shoe store at Newark, Ohio, tonight and it was completely gutted. Loss on building and stock, $150,000.

Comstock's Failure.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 24.—A short time ago Anthony Comstock, chief special agent of the New York Society for the Suppression of Vice, came to this city and purchased from five different dealers in works of art a number of pictures which were alleged to be obscene. Comstock entered complaints against the dealers and they were indicted by the grand jury. The trial of all the cases was taken up today, and after hearing considerable evidence on both sides, in four of the cases Assistant District Attorney Keer declined to proceed further, saying he did not believe the pictures obscene.

The judge said it was not very easy to define actually what the terms meant. Nude pictures were not necessarily lewd or indecent. If that were so, it would include everything, and it would include pictures of the most sacred kind. Where there was an intention to corrupt the public by the sale of indecent or lewd pictures, there ought to be severe punishment, but he did not think this was a case of that kind. The visit of Comstock to this city for the purpose of prosecuting dealers in artist's supplies was criticised by his honor. The bills of indictment in all the cases were submitted to the jury and the defendants in all the cases acquitted.

Bad Weather Yet.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 24.—Another blizzard has broken loose northwest of here. A Nechy, Dakota, special says: The mercury went down to 60 below and the wind reached a velocity of 45 miles an hour last night. It is still blowing and the trains are ten hours late.

Brainerd reports the storm reached there this morning. A heavy fall of snow has set in and the wind is blowing a gale.

The Pioneer Press learns from Brown's Valley, Minnesota, that fuel there is not only used up but provisions are also getting low. Should another storm prevent the opening of the road within a few days, can hardly be avoided, particularly among the farmers along the line. The Manitoba Company is making a fight to open the road, but it is in such a bad shape it is not possible to run a plow fast enough to do effective snow bucking. A number of farmers went to Beardsley for fuel yesterday, and not finding any coal, they tore down the company's snow fences and hauled away several loads.

GREAT SUFFERING

Political Points.

JACKSON, Miss., Jan. 24.—The Governor has vetoed the bill providing for holding a constitutional convention.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 24.—James M. Maase, a recognized leader among the republicans of this city, says he proposes to work for the nomination of George W. Childs for President of the United States.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 24.—At a meeting of the Ohio Wool Growers' Association today addresses were delivered by President David Harpster, Columbus Delano and Judge Lawrence. Resolutions were adopted which recite that the wool-growing industry of the United States as favorable as that of 1867, under the conditions then existing. They endorse the schedule of duties agreed upon by the recent conference at Washington City, and demand its enactment into law and continuance so long as it will accomplish the purpose.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—Wm. H. Barnum, chairman of the national democratic committee, in an informal talk with the Chicago committee this evening, said he thought Chicago possessed many advantages as a convention city over any place in the country, and if it did its best in working for the next convention, it would probably get it.

Want Among Indians.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—The Post's Edmonton, British Columbia, special says: The Pitankaau (Weaselskin) tribe of Indians, whose reservation is a few miles north of Victoria on the Saskatchewan and about seventy miles from here, threaten to plunder the government stores at Victoria. They have no provisions and Mr. Mitchell, the Indian agent of the locality, has just arrived. He states that the flour and meat contractors did not fill their contracts, and this is what has caused want among the Indians and made them threaten to resort to violent means for food. Provisions were obtained from the Hudson Bay Company and distributed, pending the arrival of other supplies from here which they must have or die.

Too Much Married.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 24.—Mrs. John Wilkins has filed suit for divorce against her husband, alleging he has until lately had five wives, all living in St. Paul. He married complainant in Pennsylvania fifteen years ago. They lived happily until they came to St. Paul a year ago, but here he began his polygamous exploits, marrying in rapid succession Emma Stetson, Kate Fox, Mrs. French and Hattie Bowles, each under an assumed name. The latrain of keeping up five separate establishments was too much for him, and in October he took Emma Stetson and left town.

FIFTIETH CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—In the Senate today, Hoar called up the motion made by Gorman some time since to reconsider the vote by which the Senate had ordered a special committee of five on Pacific Railroad matters. He explained his motive in proposing a SPECIAL COMMITTEE.

The judiciary committee had had the subject under consideration for a great while and he should be the last senator to question the capacity of that committee to deal with that or any other subject within its jurisdiction, but the pressure of work upon that committee precluded its giving hearings to persons interested. It was important that the legislation on this subject should be considered by a committee that could have before it representatives of the companies and officers of the government. Gorman said his motion had been made under the general impression that a subject of such magnitude had better be considered by a standing committee. He now thought best to refer it to a select committee. He suggested, however, that the committee consist of seven, not five members.

after saying he would be glad to have the judiciary committee relieved of some of the labor on this subject, added that the only legislation that had ever asserted any rights of government in regard to these railroad companies had come from the judiciary committee. It had twice reported measures, which, if the Senate had agreed to, the railroad companies would probably have accepted and the upshot of which would have given the government security on every species of property which those companies had acquired, either directly or indirectly. Something ought to be done and speedily in this matter.

Vest spoke in the same strain.

After further discussion, the motion to refer the matter to the railroad commission made by Davis was rejected. The original resolution was modified by increasing the membership of the select committee to seven and it was then adopted; yeas, 54; nays, 15.

The message from the President transmitting the first annual report of the board of control as to the management of the in Utah was presented and referred to the committee on territories.

A communication was transmitted to the Senate from the commissioner of internal revenue, showing the internal revenue collected on liquors since the present system of internal revenue taxation went into effect, September 1, 1886, down to June 3, 1887. During this period, there was collected: From special taxes on distilleries, $25,128,819; breweries, $4,932,885; retail dealers, $7,370,070; capacity tax on distillers under the law laying a tax of $2 per barrel on distilleries having a distillery capacity exceeding a certain fixed amount, $7,832,187. The production of distilled spirits during this time was 1,606,065,194 gallons; fermented liquors, 266,719,782 barrels. The amount of the tax collected on spirits was $1,099,379,980; and on fermented liquors $249,246,119.

Among the bills introduced were the following:

By Davis, to amend the pension laws so they shall not prohibit the payment of pension money to any person who served in the late war against the United States, but afterwards voluntarily enlisted in the military or naval service of the United States, and incurred disability in the line of duty.

By Hoar, to change the time of the meeting of the long session of Congress to the first Monday in October, and the short session to the second Monday in November.

By Plumb, for the extension of the southern and western boundaries of Kansas so as to include the public land strip.

By Voorhees, for the formation and admission of the State of Montana. Referred to the committee on territories.

Palmer addressed the Senate at some length on the subject of the bill introduced by him on the 12th inst. to regulate immigration.

The bill was referred to the committee on foreign relations, and the Senate proceeded to the consideration of the deficiency bill, no disposition of it being made before adjournment.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Whitthorne, of Tennessee, from the committee on naval affairs, reported a bill appropriating $175,000 for the repair of the United States steamship Hartford. Committee of the whole.

Davis (Massachusetts) from the committee on commerce, reported a bill to reward Esquimaux natives for acts of humanity to shipwrecked seamen. Committee of the whole.

Richardson, (Tennessee) chairman of the committee on printing, reported a resolution calling on the public printer for information as to whether he has recently discharged or furloughed any of his force, and, if so, for what reason, at a time when the printing ordered by the House is largely in arrears; also, whether in making such discharge, regard has been had to the statute giving preference in employment to honorably discharged soldiers. Adopted.

The bill conferring civil jurisdiction in Indian Territory on the United States courts having criminal jurisdiction, was passed.

Wheeler (Alabama) offered a resolution for the printing of 5,000 extra copies of the report of the board of visitors to the military academy. Referred.

Mr. Wheeler paid a tribute to Geo. W. Childs, of Philadelphia, president of the board, whose philanthropy and generosity was not bounded by municipalities, by states, sections, or by people, and whose fame extended to races foreign to us in language and ideas.

The House then adjourned.

SPREAD OF MOHAMMEDANISM.

IT OUTSTRIPS CHRISTIANITY IN ASIA AND AFRICA.

The assertion that Mohammedanism is advancing far more rapidly than Christianity in Asia and Africa has often been made of late years, but when it was repeated a short time ago in the English Church Congress by a dignitary of the church it was received with surprise and anger.

The speaker was the Rev. Isaac Taylor, canon of York, and his exact declaration was, that "in Asia and Africa Islam, as a missionary religion, is more successful than Christianity, and our efforts to convert the Mohammedans have failed." Having since the congress been challenged to prove these statements and produce the facts to sustain his generalizations, Canon Taylor now answers his critics and questioners through the London Times.

He points out that, according to the census returns, the Mohammedan population in India increased 9,239,062 between 1871 and 1881, or about 25 per cent. After making ample allowance for the natural increase of births over deaths, this shows that the conversion of heathens and Christians to Mohammedanism had been going on at the rate of 600,000 a year. During the same period the conversions to Christianity barely amounted to one-tenth of that number.

Yet the Mohammedans have no paid missionaries and no organized missionary agencies. Their conversions must, therefore, be due to the voluntary efforts of individuals and the intrinsic attractions of their faith. Meanwhile the Christians, on the other hand, have all the prestige of a Christian governing power and are expending vast sums in proselytism, for which they have a long-established and carefully methodized system of missionary effort. Of the total number of conversions to Christianity, too, all except a comparatively small part are in the extreme south of the Madras Residency, where Christianity obtained a firm footing at a very remote period and the Christians are more numerous than anywhere else in India. Canon Taylor also finds as a "startling result" that four-fifths of the Christian converts are Roman Catholics.

In the northern and central provinces, where Islam is strong and the conversions to Mohammedanism are at the rate of 500,000 a year, the conversions to Christianity, to use his words, "are practically nil." The most active and powerful of the English missionary societies at work in India is the Church Missionary Society, according to whose report 841 missionaries and native agents, employed at a cost of toward $250,000, made last year only 207 converts out of a population of 120,000,000 in those provinces. If the number of genuine converts be measured by the number of adult baptisms. Of these converts only seventeen seem to have been Mohammedans, out of a Mohammedan population of 55,000,000, and some of them were very suspicious, as, in fact, conversions from Islam almost invariably are.

The practical results of eastern missionary labors in the way of actual conversions are not more encouraging elsewhere. In Ceylon last year 74 agents made only 207 converts, at a cost of more than $90,000; in mid-China 71 agents made 63 converts at a cost of $45,000; and in South China 148 agents made 297 converts, at a cost of about $40,000.

These are the facts and statistics with which Canon Taylor meets the challenge of his critics, and they are quite interesting. As to Africa, he will speak in another letter, but the spread of Islam there has been so remarkable within recent years that he will have no difficulty in proving his point.—New York Sun.

JAS. H. ANDERSON, Secy.

Salt Lake City, January 21, 1888.

Canada is the most thinly populated of all the great countries of the world, having only 1 35 people to the square mile. The most densely populated is India, which has 311 57 to the square mile. The United States has an average of 13 92 to the square mile. Our most densely-populated state is Rhode Island, which has 354 to the square mile. Next comes Massachusetts, with 221 8 and New Jersey, with 151. Our most sparsely populated state is Nevada, with 0.3 to the square mile, and Oregon, with but 0.9.

An egg that would bring several hundred dollars would generally be regarded as an exaggeration, but such a one was laid before an assemblage of ornithologists and others in London the other day, for sale to the highest bidder. It was an egg of the great auk (now extinct), the auctioneer explained, and exactly sixty-six, no more, no less, were known to be in existence. It brought 160 guineas. It will hereafter be known as the 160-guinea egg.

NOTICE TO THE LATTER-DAY SAINTS.

I have made various predictions, which I had printed in leaflet form and sent forth as purporting to come from a Seventy. These have received a somewhat extensive circulation among the Latter-day Saints. I desire to humbly ask the forgiveness of my brethren and sisters in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints for this wrong which I have done. I can only say, in palliation of my offense, that Satan deceived me and actually caused me to suppose I had a mission to circulate these predictions, and I verily thought I was doing the Lord's service in the matter. I now see my folly and wickedness, and wish my confession to be as public and as widely known as my pretended prophecies have been. And I humbly ask the forgiveness of the Lord for the grievous sin of which I have been guilty, and also my brethren and sisters, whom I have attempted to mislead in this way.

Trusting that I shall obtain the desired forgiveness, I remain, humbly, ABINADI PRATT.

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbridge Munday, Esq., County Atty., Clay Co., Tex., says: "I have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with Malarial Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. D. L. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters.

This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all Malarial Diseases, and for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach Disorders stands unequaled. Price 50c. and $1, at A. C. Smith & Co's Drug Store. (6)
