

DEATH OF MRS. MARY A. P. HYDE.

Pioneer Woman, the President of the Sanpete Stake Relief Societies, Passes Away in This City—Her Splendid Career.

MRS. MARY ANN PRICE HYDE

After a long illness and much suffering Mrs. Mary Ann Price Hyde, died in this city this morning. While it does not come as a surprise to her friends, it will nevertheless be a source of great regret to them, though they will not be sorry to know that her afflictions in mortality are over, and that her courageous spirit has at last found rest.

The deceased was born in June 1816, in Llan, Gloucestershire, England and was educated at Broad Oak academy. She was the daughter of William and Mary Ann Price, well-to-do and highly respected people in that neighborhood. In 1840 she became a member of the "Mormon" Church and in the following year emigrated to America and settled in Nauvoo where she formed an acquaintance with Apostle Orson Hyde to whom she was married by the Prophet Joseph in 1843. Mrs. Hyde came to Utah in 1852 and was, for many years, her husband's amanuensis and assisted him greatly in his active life and work. She also endured heroically all of the early hardships incident to a pioneer. In the early sixties she removed with her husband to Sanpete over which she had been called to preside. She was made president of a branch organization of the Relief Society and in 1872 one year after her husband's death, was made president of the Stake organization which position she held up to the time of her death. It has been her custom to visit every branch in the Stake twice a year and to offer words of encouragement and advice regarding the work in hand. Very largely through her efforts the Relief Societies of Sanpete have been able to store thousands of bushels of wheat for any emergency that might arise.

Grain gathering had ever been an important theme with her and years before modern harvesting machinery had been introduced in Utah, she like Ruth of old, went into the fields to gather the golden grain left by the reapers, sometimes being accompanied by the volunteer boys and girls of her own town and sometimes alone. Not infrequently in early days this tedious task was followed with danger on account of hostile Indians coming down from the mountains and making attacks upon the settlers and raids upon their cattle and horses.

Although the deceased had no living children of her own she was much beloved by the other children of her husband's family to all of whom she has ever been a mother in very deed. She was also widely loved and respected by every one who knew her and it may be truthfully said of her that she was without an enemy on earth. She was also a woman of rare intelligence and fine feeling and her death is sure to fall heavily upon those with whom she has been associated for many years and for whom she has done so much.

Funeral services over her remains will be held in the Second ward meeting house tomorrow afternoon beginning at 4:30. On the day following her body will be taken to Spring City, Sanpete county, where funeral services will be held at 1 o'clock. Her remains will be laid to rest in the Spring City cemetery at the side of her husband.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Clow and family announce they are very grateful to the people of Kaysville and those at a distance, for the expressions of sympathy and comfort in the loss of their daughter, Lillian Clow. The kind thoughtfulness and help of the people at this time of bereavement has been of much service and is greatly appreciated.

GIRL LOCKED UP AGAIN.

Ellen Blundquist in Jail on the Charge of Stealing.

Ellen Blundquist, the young girl who was a few weeks ago bound over to the Third district court on the charge of grand larceny and subsequently released on a bond, is in trouble again. After her release the girl was employed by a Mrs. Mackey. The lady made complaint yesterday that the defendant had stolen some of her wearing apparel, and as a result the girl was rearrested and locked up in the county jail, where she will remain until she has appeared before Judge Norrell. The defendant is 17 years old.

MARRIAGE OF MRS. STETSON.

Comes as a Great Surprise to Salt Lake Friends.

During her two or three visits to Utah Mrs. Charlotte Perkins Stetson, the noted student and writer on social economics, made many friends who have become personally interested in her welfare. A letter received by Mrs. Rusk Y. Gates of Provo, today, from Mrs. Stetson announces that she was married to Mr. George Houghton Gilman at Detroit, Michigan, on Monday, June 11th.

This bit of information is decidedly surprising but nevertheless well received. Mrs. Stetson was the guest of Mrs. Gates for one week during her last visit, but gave no intimation of the near approaching happy event, nor was it even suspected by any of her many friends here who extend congratulations and trust that her happy marriage will be a most successful one.

BUTTER FAKES WORK.

How a Smooth Stranger is Operating Among the Farmers.

Mr. Joseph Hogan of South Mountain called at the "News" office this morning and related an interesting story about the work of a smooth stranger who has been circulating among the farmers of Davis county the last week. He is described as being well dressed, a splendid talker with a pronounced gum chewing habit and a desire to do his work quickly and get away to California the next day. This is the experience Mr. Hogan had with him as told in his own language:

"He called at my place last evening and offered to sell me a wonderful recipe for making butter. He said his regular price was $10, but that as he was anxious to go to California immediately he would let me have it for $5. This is what he claims for his recipe: Out of one gallon of cream and one pound of butter that he mixed with it, together with a drug store powder, the ingredients of which he said was a secret, he promised to make six pounds of butter for me."

But as he was unable to strike a bargain and he called on one of my neighbors, a Mrs. Eakle and held out the same inducements to her. Mrs. Eakle, however, permitted him to experiment with a quart of cream, all that she had on hand, and a little cooking butter, that was mixed with it, together with the powder I have already referred to. In a very few minutes he had turned out what appeared to be four pounds of very good-looking butter from this single quart of cream and for the moment looked found the way to get rich.

"He told her also that I had paid him $10 for this same recipe and she became interested but informed him she only had $1 and could not buy it. He then told her that he knew I had the money as he had seen seven dollars in my possession and said that she could borrow it from me. He was anxious to close the transaction with her at once and promised to remain at the house while Mrs. Eakle's little daughter should go out and get the money. He cautioned her, however, not to say a word to me about his alleged sale to me for $10 for his formula. Of course his exposure soon followed and he took a sudden departure and has not since been seen in my neighborhood. I think it would be well for the farmers of Utah to be on the lookout for this gentleman and give him the reception he deserves."

A pretty home wedding of Thursday evening June 14, was that of Miss Katie Case, and Henry T. Varney of Z. C. M. L. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents, at No. 479 Fifth East street. Elder A. H. Woolley officiating. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white organdie. The bride was in train, and was trimmed with lace, and carried a real lace insertion. The bodice was high in the neck with long sleeves, and the yoke was finished with an artistically draped fichu. She carried bride roses. The house was brilliantly lit and decorated with pink roses. The bride and groom were seated, together with palms and ferns. The bride couple stood beneath a canopy of white tulle while receiving congratulations. Music was furnished by Miss Cochler, who played the Mendelssohn wedding march, and gave a number of selections during the evening. An elaborate supper was served at 10:30 under the supervision of Mr. Pantier of the Alta club. About fifty guests were seated at a table, which was beautifully decorated with roses, carnations and ferns. The grounds were illuminated with lanterns, and the event was heralded by Miss Lucille Case. The presents were numerous and elegant. On the night of Thursday there was a very pretty wedding, followed by a supper in the comfortable home and on the well kept grounds of L. S. Clark, No. 1460 South Eleventh East. Carlos Kimball and Miss Annie Clark, the principals, were married in the Temple at 2 p. m., and this most successful gathering was in their honor. Mr. and Mrs.

Kimball were happiness personified as they stood under a bower of vines amidst the flowers in the front room and greeted in the good old way the 200 odd friends and relatives who wished the proverbial good things. It was an animated scene at 10 o'clock, when upwards of 100 were seated at the first table on the lawn. Another feature was a most entertaining program. Presents were numerous and the occasion was all the more opportune as it was the anniversary of that great pioneer's birth. Mr. and Mrs. Kimball leave on a mission to Europe on July 21, and will have the heartfelt wishes of a host of good friends.

Last night a delightful entertainment was given at the Cannon residence in Forest Dale, the event being in the nature of a concert, festival and dance. It was given under the auspices of the Y. M. and Y. L. M. I. A. association and was a most successful and enjoyable affair. Mr. James Dunbar had chief charge of the pleasant affair and to his efforts most of the success of the entertainment was due. The entertainment opened with a program of speeches, music and recitations, after which delicious refreshments in the way of strawberries, ice cream and cake were served. Following followed a canvas floor laid on the lawn providing entertainment to the younger guests. The grounds were lit with headlights and lanterns making a picturesque scene. A large number were present and the event was enjoyed by all.
