

o'clock the signal agreed upon, ringing the church bells and blowing the whistles was given, announcing that Kelly's army was still at Weston unable to secure a train for the East. Inside of five minutes 1000 men assembled on Jefferson Square and quickly organized, and the march was taken up.

All the eastern railways have pulled the empty cars out of Council Bluffs to avoid trouble. Fully 2,000 more men have crossed the bridge to join the crowd that preceded them.

POMEROY, Ohio, April 21.—The miners of twenty-two mines in this district laid down their tools today. Five operators have signified their willingness to pay the price demanded by the men.

PHILLIPSBURG, Pa., April 21.—A number of men in this district went on strike at 12 o'clock today, to the number of 7,000. The Houtsdale and Oecala mines quit completely at 12 o'clock. There was no excitement, and no trouble is anticipated, unless the operators should undertake to start the mines, in which event the scene in the coke regions would be repeated here.

WESTON, Iowa, April 21.—Kelly's army had a court martial trial today. A Madison private tried to violate the rules of the industrial army by furnishing and smuggling liquor in camp and is alleged to have been spying on the men in the interest of the railroads. The charges were proven and he was dishonorably discharged and publicly drummed out of town.

ATHENS, April 21.—Later information shows that in some districts there has been great loss of life in addition to the destruction of property. The inhabitants are very much alarmed today at the fresh shocks, and it is feared the worst has not happened. The shocks today shook the northern wing of the palace in several places. A large stone fell out of the Gate of Adrian. The villages at Atlanta suffered terribly.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The President today sent the following nominations: Justice Warren N. Dusenberry to be judge of probate in Utah county, Utah.

Navy—Assistant Engineer Solon Arnold to be past assistant engineer.

MONTEREY, Cal., April 22.—The Pacific Coast Steamship company's steamer Los Angeles, bound north from Newport, Cal., and way ports to San Francisco, ran on the rocks at Point Sur lighthouse, thirty miles south of Monterey, between 9 and 10 o'clock last night. The steamer sank within a few minutes, and the passengers and crew took to the boats. As far as known four lives were lost. Three boat loads reached shore at Point Sur, and the first news of the disaster was brought here by a messenger today. Two other boat loads and a raft, containing other passengers and members of the crew, were met by the steamer Eureka this evening. The Eureka rescued them and brought them to Monterey.

ATHENS, April 22.—The earthquake shocks that began about 7:30 Friday night continued with more or less frequency until noon today.

In three villages, Malesina, Proskina and Martino, all in the province of Locris, 129 persons perished.

LONDON, April 23.—A dispatch to the Times from Athens says: The earthquake destroyed eight villages in the district of Atalanti. In this district alone forty-eight persons were killed and several hundred injured. The monasteries of St. Martines and Proskina were destroyed. The Peirat Pelli was rent asunder and sunk below the waters of the harbor. Large boulders were detached from the mountain of Braganda and some of them fell upon shepherd houses that were clustered at the foot of the mountain. All the inmates of the houses were crushed to death. Huge chasms opened in the earth about Atalanti. Heavy shocks were felt throughout the Eubosa Islands.

NEW YORK, April 23.—In the church of San Salvatore, the only Protestant Episcopal church for Italians in the city, the rector, Albert O. Pace, just as he was about to open Sunday evening service, was assaulted by two women, Mrs. Caravata and Mrs. Cesari. Mrs. Caravata advanced to the pulpit, and in an excited manner asked: "Is this the Catholic church?"

"This is the Catholic church; the Episcopal church, the church of Christ, not the American Catholic church," replied the rector.

At that both women attacked Mr. Pace, who forgot himself so far as to strike back, knocking most of Mrs. Caravata's teeth down her throat. The rector immediately apologized, had the two women ejected and proceeded with the services. Arrests will be made. The women say Mr. Pace baptized Mr. Cesari's children, telling them that he was a Catholic priest and the church a Catholic church. When they discovered the deception, they determined upon the assault.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 23.—The striking miners marched into town today, 5,000 strong, with bands. Speeches were made denouncing H. H. Debarleben, manager of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad company. Governor Jones has established headquarters here and is in close communion with Sheriff Morrow and the officers of the Second regiment. The militia are at the armories, ready to advance on the strikers at a moment's notice. Seventy-five Ben Creek miners, wanted by the officers for intimidation, joined in the demonstration. The marching strikers are a mixed lot of whites and blacks. Trouble is expected hourly. Dozens of arrests are made at the mines for intimidation, and sixty new deputy sheriffs have been sworn in.

VICKSBURG, Miss., April 23.—Four negroes have already paid the penalty for the brutal assassination of Manager Boyce of the Baunn plantation in Madison Parish on Saturday. One was shot on Sunday. During the night a mob gathered at the jail at Tallahue and forced open the door. Sam Slaughter, Tom Claxton and Dave Hawkins were led out and hanged to the ballustrade of the court house. Their bodies were hanging there this morning. Claxton and four pals are still in the swamp. The river and all avenues of escape are closely guarded and the ultimate capture of the five men is regarded as only a question of time. It seems certain they will be lynched.

HOTEL DEL CORONADO, Cal., April 23.—Jesse Seligman, of J. & E. Seligman, bankers, New York and London, died here of pneumonia and Bright's disease. He came here four days ago with his daughter.

NEW YORK, April 23.—The visible grain supply on April 21, compiled by the New York stock exchange is as follows: Wheat 52,425,000, increase 73,000; corn 14,546,000, decrease 145,000; oats 2,665,000, increase 11,000; rye 371,000, decrease 8,000; barley 300,000, decrease 230,000.

LONDON, April 23.—It is announced, as a result of the indignation created by the report of the sanitary institute regarding the conditions under which bread eaten by the people of this city is produced that the government has decided to appoint a select committee of the House of Commons to investigate. According to the report five-sixths of all bread consumed in London is produced in cellar bakeries, not more than six feet high, ten feet in length and twelve feet wide. Sewer gas enters through drains opening in the floor, while further pollution is caused by the ground air and the damp sucked up into the heated cellar through the flooring.

LISBON, April 23.—There are sixty-five fresh cases of cholera in this city.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., April 23.—The Oliver plant, near here, was the scene of disorder today. Sheriff Wilson and a posse arrested Michael Fitzko for a minor offense, when fifty women assembled and demanded his release. The officers warned the women not to interfere. The answer was a yell of defiance and then the whole crowd of women charged the sheriff, attacking him with every conceivable missile and weapon except firearms. Blood was flowing from a number of the men and they were forced to fight back.

COLUMBUS, O., April 23.—The latest reports received by President McBride of the United Mineworkers, show the suspension of work by 3,000 men in Alabama; 5,000 in Tennessee and Kentucky; 2,000 in West Virginia; 5,000 in Indiana; 25,000 in Ohio; 25,000 in Illinois; 1,300 in Iowa; 2,000 in Indian Territory; 1,300 in Missouri; 50,000 in Pennsylvania, and 300 in Michigan; a total of 122,000.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 23.—J. A. Crawford, state president of the United Mine Workers of America, today received reports from the state at large, showing that 24,000 miners are now on a strike, out of about $33,600 in Illinois.

CHICAGO, April 23.—J. H. Randall has been chosen general of the Chicago division of the commonweal army. Kelly has been abandoned and the Chicago army will begin its march some day this week. Randall stated that there were 700 recruits enlisted already and that the number would be increased to 1,000 before Thursday.

Grand Master Workman Sovereign has entered heart and soul into the movement, but has no intention of participating in the march personally.

AVOCA, April 23.—Kelly's reception here tonight was fully as flattering as that accorded him at Neola. The 2,500 inhabitants were apparently all on the streets, and the brawny-armed countrymen and buxom maidens vied with each other in doing them honor.

Company "C" which had been disbanded at Neola, rejoined the army during the afternoon and after an abject personal apology from each
