WALKER REFUSES TO SEE HIS WIFE

Dramatic Scene in County Jail Yesterday When Repentant Wife Returns Unexpectedly.

THREE MUNICIPAL TICKETS

Democrats and Socialists Put Full Tickets in the Field—Tabernacle Choir Honors F. J. Kiesel.

Ogden, Oct. 3.—Mrs. Fred C. Walker, the central figure in the tragic scandal which startled this city and Salt Lake a few weeks ago, unexpectedly arrived yesterday from Los Angeles, where she was sent by her husband, just before he and the late Dr. Earl S. Boers met in combat, fatal to the doctor, whom Walker suspected of ruining his home. Mrs. Walker's regard for her husband, she avers, is now stronger than ever before. Although he refused to see her when she appeared at the jail yesterday afternoon, she protests she will stand by him no matter what happens. The refusal of Walker to see her threw her into hysterics. Weeping bitterly, while her little 15-year-old daughter played around her, the broken-hearted woman declared over and over her love for her husband, denying that she had ever made a statement to the contrary.

In her second condition she denied even that she ever granted an interview while in Los Angeles, but during her rather broken and disconnected conversation with newspaper men gathered in the office, she told how she had repeated her declarations of restored love for the husband who is now languishing in jail, awaiting trial for murder because he slew the man suspected of coming between man and wife.

Mrs. Walker appeared at the jail and introduced herself, asking to be permitted to see her husband. An attack of the institution carried her message in to the cell department. A dramatic moment followed. With her eyes fastened on the doorway through which her husband would appear, the woman sat as motionless as a statue, her face pitted with the hunger of a starving heart and her whole attitude was that of eagerness. Finally when the door swung open she started slightly and leaned forward.

It was not Walker who came, however, but Lawrence, the man being held with Walker, who appeared. "Fred—Fred—does not care to see you now," said Lawrence, as if each word was an effort. This message sent Mrs. Walker almost into hysterics. Tears streamed down her cheeks and she hid her face between her hands and sobbed bitterly. She could hardly talk. When she had managed to compose herself somewhat she and the little girl—Josephine—were taken to the home of Mrs. S. V. Gaston, an old friend.

Mrs. Walker was informed that her husband could not or would not see her with his attorney, Mr. Hutchinson of Salt Lake, had seen and interviewed Mr. Hutchinson, accompanied by Manager Roberts of the Electric Supply & Fixture company, held two lengthy interviews with her during the day, but they refused to give out any information. Every effort to see Mrs. Walker after the interview was with-

On avail, as she refused to see reporters. At midnight Mrs. Walker moved to apartments in the Reed hotel, where she is being kept secluded, as her condition is serious. She will suffer a complete breakdown and nervous prostration unless kept quiet. Atty. Hutchinson conferred with the husband during the day but it was announced the conference had nothing to do with a meeting between the husband and wife.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

Municipal Officers Nominated in Convention Thursday.

Ogden, Oct. 4.—The Democrats of Ogden in convention assembled yesterday put a ticket in the field that is acknowledged even by the most conservative Republicans to be a strong one. A short session of the convention was held in the afternoon at which the various committees were named and then adjournment was taken until last night. City Chairman H. W. Gellman, presided at the afternoon session. The evening gathering was presided over by Joseph Chee, and Thomas Horn acted as secretary. The following resolutions and platform were unanimously adopted:

"We, the Democrats of Ogden City, in convention assembled, affirm our faith in the wisdom and efficiency of Democratic principles as applied to municipal government, and we offer as our nominees for the various municipal offices of Ogden city, honest, successful business men, all Democrats possessing the business qualifications necessary to solve the business problems now confronting this city and its inhabitants as result of Republican mismanagement.

We affirm that the reasons which actuate a business man in the selection of his employees, namely, due consideration of their honesty, business experience and skill and the possession of a will and conscientious desire to advance his interests, should move the citizens in the choice of public servants. We believe in the economical expenditure of the public funds within the law and are emphatically opposed to all forms of graft, including the overpayment of public salaries.

We reaffirm our belief in the great principle of historic democracy, which has urged that "All men should be accorded equal rights and that no man should enjoy special privileges."

We find that a certain element in Ogden City has for some time past been granted special privileges, in the conduct of businesses which are detrimental to the better life of the city. Certain laws have been openly violated. Such laws, so long as they exist as ordinances or statutes, should be enforced, and to that end we pledge our candidates.

We believe that our candidates are especially qualified to conduct the business of the city honestly and economically, and to enforce the principles enunciated herein, and therefore we commend them to the suffrage of the citizens of Ogden.

The candidates named below were selected by acclamation:
For Mayor—Alex Brewer.
For Recorder—Thomas Horn.
For Judge—John C. Davis.
For Attorney—Valentine Gideon.
For Treasurer—Joseph Langsdorf.
For Auditor—J. H. Knaues.

IN HONOR OF F. J. KIESEL.

Ogden Tabernacle Choir Gives Impromptu Musical and Presentation.

Ogden, Oct. 4.—The Ogden tabernacle choir is truly appreciative of the untiring efforts of Hon. Fred J. Kiesel, in their behalf, in making it possible for them to attend the National Irrigation congress, held two years ago at Portland, and this year at Sacramento, and as an evidence of that appreciation gave a complimentary impromptu musicale at the tabernacle in his honor last evening, which was participated in by about 250 guests, besides the choir members.

As a small token of their love and respect for him, Mrs. Jennette McKay Morrell, in a few well chosen words, expressing the sentiments of every member of the choir, presented Mr. Kiesel with an elegant cut glass study lamp.

Mr. Kiesel feelingly responded to the presentation and encouraging the choir in the magnificent work. The silver platter on which the lamp stands bears the inscription "To the Hon. F. J. Kiesel."

"As the mountain streams that leap Have reclaimed the desert land, So the generous love from your great heart, And your ever helping hand Have waked in us a friendship free, As tried as though by fire, That will last throughout eternity."

The choir sang four choruses and organist Samuel F. Whitaker played four organ solos during the evening.

SOCIALIST TICKET.

Third Party Nominates Municipal Ticket for Junction City.

Ogden, Oct. 4.—There will be three tickets in the field for the citizens of Ogden to choose their candidates from at the coming election. The Republican, Democratic and Socialist.

Last evening the last mentioned held its convention at the county court house and placed in nomination by unanimous vote the following gentlemen:

Mayor—John J. McGregor.
Recorder—Andrew Martin.
Treasurer—C. J. Tribe.
Auditor—Edward Hanson.
Judge—John Edgren.
Attorney—J. H. McLachlan.

COUNCILMEN.

First Ward—J. W. Lund.
Second Ward—Grant Synners.
Third Ward—Charles Nels.
Fourth Ward—H. W. Beckett.
Fifth Ward—Carl Rasmussen.

The convention adopted a strong platform, promising a model administration of city affairs if the ticket is elected, and appealing on this ground for the suffrages of the people of Ogden.

R. R. EMPLOYEES PENSIONED.

Robert B. Wilson and Joseph Severn Are Also Honored by Associates.

Ogden, Oct. 4.—Two of the veteran employees of the Harriman lines at the Ogden freight department, Robert B. Wilson and Joseph Severn, have been pensioned, taking effect Oct. 1. Mr. Wilson has been in the company's service for thirty-five years. They were both men of ability and have served the railroad faithfully and well, and were deserving of the pension they will receive. Both of the gentlemen are still enjoying comparatively good health, and will be able to now enjoy the remainder of their days in comfort.

They were both highly respected by their fellow employees and as a token of that kindly feeling towards them each will be presented by W. M. Hope and Fred Thyberg in behalf of the freight employees with a goldheaded cane, suitably engraved.

Myth of the Magnolia.

Story of Startups' Liquid Magnolias, the world renowned Flower Perfumed Candy.

One morn a rose with smiling lips,
From deep slumber awakening,
Had bathed her cheeks in sparkling dew,
And cooling draughts was taking.

Up from the dell, with fragrant wing,
And honey heavy laden,
A bee in passing, paused to rest,
And spoke, as to a maiden:

"That nectared dew drop from your lips,
With violet in connection,
Co-mingled with this honey, pure,
Would make a rare confection."

Then playfully they mixed the sweets,
Within the blue bell's cup,
And spread the drops upon a leaf,
Just as the sun came up.

They crystallized like glittering gems,
And formed therein a cell,
With nectar filled, for queens to sip,
And gods might taste as well.

A package then, of ferns was made,
With fragrant fingers pressed,
Then sweet magnolia kissed the box,
And there the trade mark rests.

PROVO.

MEETING OF MEDICOS.

Suggest Salary for City Physician—Funeral of S. R. Cheever.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, Oct. 4.—The Utah County medical society met yesterday at the Provo Commercial club with Mayor Frisby and Councilmen Booth, Evans and Knudsen, to discuss fees for quarantine physicians. After a long discussion it was decided to recommend that the council fix the city physician's salary at $400 per year and provide assistance for him in furnishing places after the quarantine shall have been raised. If the council does this the medical men say that there would be physicians who could be induced to accept the position of city physician.

The secretary, Dr. F. C. Clark, reported that the postmaster general had instituted an investigation of the reported "quack" and improper medical advertisements in newspapers with a view to having such papers excluded from the mails.

FUNERAL OF MR. CHEEVER.

The funeral over the remains of Samuel R. Cheever held at the sixth ward meetinghouse yesterday afternoon was largely attended. The speakers were Elders Andrew Knudsen, Brigham Johnson, E. E. Hinckley and Bishop Ralph Foulton. The ward choir assisted by Mrs. Lizzie Evans, who sang "Sometime, Somewhere," rendered the music. The body was buried in the Provo cemetery.

PARK CITY.

Council Wrestling With Liquor Problem—Many Visitors to Fair.

Special Correspondence.
Park City, Summit Co., Oct. 2.—The city council met last evening in regular session. An ordinance regarding the selling of liquor and fixing the license for dealers was presented. It provides that wholesalers shall pay $1.00, retailers $5.00, and druggists $5.00 per annum, same to be paid quarterly in advance. The street commissioner was instructed to place three temporary wooden crossings across Main street.

Many people from the outlying districts are taken advantage of the cheap rates on the railroads to visit the fair, and attend conference in Salt Lake.

NEPHL.

CATTLE SHIPMENTS.

Two Cases of Diphtheria—Railway Transfer Pleases People.

Special Correspondence.
Nephel, Utah Co., Oct. 2.—Chase Bros. & Co. have sold out their butcher business to the Nephel Meat & Produce Co., of which P. P. Christensen is the principal member.

A lot of live stock passed through here last evening on route to Los Angeles. Five cars of cows were added at this point to the consignment, which goes to the Los Angeles Packing company. Two other large shipments will follow from this point during October. There are three cases of diphtheria in town, the disease being confined to children.

The people of Nephel are greatly pleased to learn of the transfer of the old Sapperton Valley railway to the B. G. W. railway as it is seriously thought the main line of the B. G. W. will eventually come this way on route west.
