A MOSLEM MOSQUE FOR LONDON TOWN.

ONDON. Sept. 37 .- If the sultan approves of the plans of the building-and little doubt is felt that score-it will not be long before the crescent flag of Islam ; ill float over a Mohaimmedan Mosin the "pagan" city of Lonas a prominent church of Engecclestastic recently called it. om the summit of its picturesque a white-robed muzzein will five day summon the devotees of ophet to turn aside from the wards Mecca. The plans of this coming addition to London's places of worship have been prepared by Robert Williams, F. R. L

i) prepared by Robert Williams, F. K. L. D. A., which means Fellow of the Royal Institute of British Architects. Mr. Williams has spent much of the last Cour years in Egypt, s'udying Egyptian and Saraceni, architecture. While there had soveral conversations with shelks and other picus Moslems as to the desirability of erecting a mosque in London for the double purpose of en-uncheding its anighted inlightening its spiritually benighted in-

The longitudinal measurement of the building as designed is about 150 feet, with a facade of 120 feet. On the ground floor there will be an entrance hall, approached by brond marble steps, and leading to a large hall canable of seating several hundred worshipers. The base of the building will be of worship to those of the true faith so-journing in the British capital. Finally be was commissioned by an Egyptian ductor will be chieffly of marble The interior will be chieffly of marble in the chie architecture of the Arabs. Special provision will be made for the performance of ablutions, for with plous Mohammedans cleanliness ranks next to Godliness and they are communded by their religion to wash them-selves before they pray. This is called

There is already one other Moslem Mosque in England-at Liverpool-the erection of which is due to the plous fervor of a British convert, a prospertervor of a British convert, a prosper-ous criminal lawyer, who rejoices in the titlet of the Shelk-ul-Islem of the British Isles. There are about 500 Mos-lems in Liverpool, and about 2,000 in Lon.on, many of them young students engaged in the study of law and medi-cine. An ample congression is there.

propriate that they should have a place of worship in the capital of the British Empire. The Pau-Islemis Association which aims at uniting the various Mohammedan sects in all parts of the world, is backing the project. As a means of further popularizing their faith representatives of the association here are about to start an educational movement in the fashionable West End movement in the fashionable West End district. "Laying nside all questions of the future life and looking at the matter entirely from a worldly point of view." said one of them to the writer, "there is no doubt that England's conversion is considered so wicked that a gambier's testimony is not admitted in a court of law. A Mohammedan England would be a sober England and her people would no longer gamble. What England has achieved in the past would be nothing to what she would then accomplish." then accomplish.

T NO TIME SINCE THE OPENING OF THIS STORE HAS THE BASE. ment Section enjoyed such popularity as at the beginning of this season. It is more beautiful, more inviting and the scene of greater activity. From time to time new departments have been added. The establishment of little furnishings for the iving rooms has won a close place in the hearts of the people. The departments of Carpets, Rugs, Metal Beds, Draperies, and general House Furnishings are more complete than at any previous season.

CARPETS.

The Carpet Section was an important acquisition, the stock being at all times representative of the best output of leading mills-lines ever large and comprehensive; beautiful in selection, of effective patterns and splendid qualities.

DRAPERIES AND LACE CURTAINS

The Section is full of new and attractive goods. Popular prices prevail. You will find just what you want in keeping with your economic wishes. The best that's made is shown as well as the moderate priced, designs, O MAKE THE PULLING POWER OF A BASEMENT EFFECTIVE THERE needs be some magnetic influence stronger than the ordinary. Prices lower than prevailing ones solve the problem. Carpets of a particular make which sell elsewhere at a dollar are never marked higher than 85 cents in the basement-and reductions for special sales are lowered from that price. This plan is carried out in all lines. Were it not so that portion of the store would soon be found wanting. We are careful not to make assertions which cannot be carried out.

Portier and Couch Cover Section.

It is complete. Because of this very fact trade is growing. Styles, colors and prices satisfy.

METAL BEDS.

Interesting assortment in both the brass and iron. You will find them as low as $2.95 and as expensive as $200.00.

THE PICTURE DEPARTMENT.

Framed and unframed pictures are arranged in pleasing manner. All prices seem to rule. The introduction of a Section for the framing of pictures seems to have made a hit with the public. Whether it is because of the care taken in framing or the unusual low prices we are not clear-but perhaps each feature contributes.

THE WINDOW SHADE FACTORY

This department is under the supervision of a competent man. As many as 18 different colors of the very best of shading are carried.

Included in the above prices are sewing, lining and laying,

36 inch wide Ingrain Carpets in a variety of designs and weaves from 45 cents a yard upward.

LACE CURTAINS

200 styles of lace curtains will tempt you to make selection. They are to be had at a dollar a pair and up to $100,00. You will feel that we have so' many beautiful curtains that you will be lost when it comes to a decision. These are reasonably priced.

RE-UPHOLSTERING.

This work is done promptly and done well. If you are in a hurry you will agree that it is the only way to conduct business. At all times we are pleased to show materials and give estimates.

INFANT BIG FURNISHINGS. HOUSE

We are proud of this off-spring. Response to our low prices has made this wealthy youngster grow faster than all of the baby food in the world could. Of all of the rooms in the house none is more important than the kitchen.
