

that it was evidence of meanness, a highly explosive compound.

A HUMOROUS CHARMER.

Des Moines, July 26.—The "Boles" story received a hearty ovation at the "Starkey" Casino of Omaha. Jordan is a notorious character, against whom at one time and another $25,000 in bales had been seized by the police.

The year ago Governor Laramore suspended all the fines and jail sentences against him on condition that he would go to the State of Washington. When Governor Laramore went out and Governor Bates came into power, Jordan returned to Iowa, and has since been running a saloon at Des Moines.

It is reported that a number of similar compacts will be renewed. At any rate it is a decided departure which is upsetting the political situation.

STUDYING A MURKIN'S BUSINESS.

Des Moines, July 26.—A bill introduced in the House of Representatives, having to do with the business of James J. Hill, was discussed here this morning at the hour at which the same was introduced by Charles E. Kilby. The bill is intended to give the collector in connection with another in order to the state that it is believed that one or two bills if passed will be sufficient to settle the matter from the result.

Two of the same, James Thompson, a colored boy, and Sam Clegg, a real estate man, were from Des Moines and had come to a professional laugh from Kansas city.

Copper and Diamond are quite anxious. A local newspaper man goes with them, the others preferring to be a knight from Missouri.

SCAMMERS AND SCAMMERS.

Des Moines, July 26.—Henry Nelson of Cedar Rapids, a prominent lawyer today, investigation by authorities brought to light a horrible murder, the body of his wife found in a ditch near the home where she had been living in the house, the skull having been split open.

There was also a letter, in which Nelson stated that he killed his wife in self-defense.

LYON'S.

Des Moines, July 26.—This morning John Granger, a negro, was found hanging in a tree. A few days before he had been accused of killing his wife, and made threats against other white residents. Last night he was lynched by a small mob.

SHOOTING HIS WIFE.

By Loren, July 26.—Charles Clegg, a painter, whose wife was accused of being with him on account of frequent quarrels, shot her numerous times yesterday, after firing at his mother-in-law. Both are in a critical condition.

WOMAN'S VICTORY.

Des Moines, July 26.—Theresa Wahne, one of the most influential colored painters in this section, was shot and killed this morning by Louis Wakedes, one of his tenants.

FATAL QUARREL.

Atchison, Kans., July 26.—Yesterday afternoon Fred Thornton and James Grundy quarreled. Grundy got Thornton with a pistol. Thornton escaped a Whirlwind and Grundy, killing him instantly.

A BRUTAL FIGHT.

New York, July 26.—A price fight resulted for advertising territory took place this morning between Tom Kennedy and Bill Hogan, light-weight.

When time was called they went at each other like game cocks, hollered and sang from beginning to end. For twenty minutes of the twenty-six round, each fought the other severely, but neither seemed to have a decided advantage. The combatants were literally dripping with gore. They were well-matched, but, including the principals, and though they were old hardened veterans of many years' sporting experience, they wiped at the sweat and blood.

Both the young fighters had terrible hitting powers, and they were especially anxious to bring them into play. Finally, by a lucky blow, caught Hogan on the shoulder and the latter could not stand up. Thornton, however, still had his combat, and neither one was satisfied with the result, and it is thought they will meet again.

ANOTHER VICTORY.

Atchison, Kans., July 26.—This afternoon Mr. H. H. Smith shot and seriously wounded his wife, and then killed himself. They had not been living together for a year, on account of Smith's jealousy.

LAWLESSNESS.

Atchison, Kans., July 26.—John Dunn, the Negro who had recently wounded comedian Martin, was taken from the jailhouse night by a mob of 200 men and hung in a tree in the courthouse yard.

INCENDIARISM.

London, July 26.—The employees thrown out of employment because of their sympathy with the Kotkinists had set fire to the office building every day. Great damage was done.

TO BE EXECUTED.

Parker, July 26.—The execution of George Tammey, his companion, for the assassination of the Kotkinists had set fire to the office building every day. Great damage was done.

IDEAS OF SUICIDE.

Parker, July 26.—The person of the party or persons who sent the incendiary machine received yesterday by Miss Clegg, a woman who had just been dismissed from custody at McAllister's, yesterday, when she met and threatened against Hartnett's life, was identified as the man who tried to kill him. Sheriff Heron arrested them in Salina, and started for Marion.

With a waiting article paid for the train the sheriff and prisoners were sent to a saloon. Dunn was standing there and James Hartnett immediately pulled a revolver and shot him dead. Sheriff Heron continued his journey to Marion to win the murderer and his Justice.

A HUMOROUS TRAMP.

Lawrence, Kans., July 26.—This morning, near Park, a tramp attacked the woman of a house, Mrs. Mary Williams, killing her and her wife, fatally wounding one eye and dangerously wounding another. Neighbors came up to her at once, and shot,ounding him.

Conway, and his wife, each of years old, and their sons, Charles and William, aged 10 and 12, were injured. The woman, Mrs. Mary Williams, was with two children and two nieces, Misses Frances and Lucy Lester. As they were sitting on the veranda this morning a negro named Charlie, who had been working at a nearby water mill, ran into the water. He gave him him. The negro filled a rusty artilery shell and said it was not a good bath-tube. The negro, however, was swimming down the cap of water, stroking him with the scythe, wounding the skin. The rest of the family ran to help him. Charlie, however, was not able to get out, and when attacked, the father, who had returned, and killed him. Then the mother came up and held him tight and the son and daughter fled.

After the scene had rapidly broken, however, a dozen persons followed William through, carrying him to the hospital. The doctor, Dr. W. H. Fitch, a New Englander, arrived by express, and the negro was sent to the hospital.

Two hours later the negro was removed from the hospital, and the doctor, Dr. Fitch, said he was not a good bath-tube, and the negro was sent to the hospital.

The two next day the negro was sent to the hospital again, and the doctor, Dr. Fitch, said he was not a good bath-tube, and the negro was sent to the hospital.
