THE BOGUS APPOINTMENTS.

We give place to-day to a list of "appointments," made by Governor Eli H. Murray, for certain offices in this Territory to fill vacancies which do not exist. The list is not complete. Other "appointments" are yet to be made. It will be observed that in a number of instances the same person has been "appointed" to more than one position. This, with the omission to fill places in several counties indicates either that clay is scarce or the potter is a slow hand; whether the vessels formed are unto honor or dishonor remains a matter of dispute.

If there are any vacancies caused by the failure of the August election, as is possible in a very few instances, the appointments to fill them may be valid. In the rest of the offices the "appointments" amount to nothing, because they are already occupied by lawful incumbents who are under bonds and their oaths of office to faithfully discharge the duties thereof. To surrender them without proper cause would be a violation of their oaths of office and a wrong to their bondsmen.

We notice that "appointments" have been made by the Governor to some offices the term of which, to say nothing of the "hold over" provision, does not expire until August 1884. What the object can be in appointing persons to fill them does not at present appear. But it does not matter; those "appointments" are of about the same value as the others.

In a few instances present incumbents are "appointed." If any of them are unwise enough to accept and attempt to qualify under this arrangement, they will occupy a similar position to the dog in the fable, who dropped the substance to bite at the shadow. They are not very likely to be deceived by the illusion.

The question has been asked, "If the offices are now vacant who is to qualify the new appointees?" This is about as difficult to answer as the question "How can the Governor or any other man fill a vacancy when there is none?" These queries had better be propounded to the Executive himself; we shall not pretend to try to answer them.

We do not anticipate any disturbance by reason of this movement. The difficulties will lie with those who try to get into places already occupied by law- will lie with those who try to get ful officers. There will be no more "anarchy" than there is now. Possibly a few persons with small discretion and great ambition will make the attempt to force themselves into offices not vacant. It will be a hard squeeze with little prospects and large expense. We do not envy any of them their position. Some at least will either decline or pay no attention to the form of their "appointment," and those who try to gain possession of an occupied office will be intriguing for the anomalous position of "servants of the people" against the will of the people. We do not think it will work and we are sure it will not pay.

HOW FAR IS MERE RUMOR TO PREVAIL?

A case at South Cottonwood brings forward the question, "How far shall rumor be regarded as evidence?" Under the regulations instituted at the recent registration, judicial powers have been exercised by registering officers. They have determined whether individuals should or should not be permitted to exercise the elective franchise. If they supposed or imagined that an applicant was or had been at any time living in polygamy, they assumed to refuse the individual the right to register or even take the oath which was the only proof the party could offer in his or her own behalf. How far is such arbitrary power to extend when confronted with a denial and offer to take the oath by the challenged applicant?

At South Cottonwood a young unmarried woman applied for registration, and was refused on the ground that the deputy registrar had heard that she was married to the head of the family in which she lived as help. She denied "the soft impeachment," and offered to take an oath to the contrary and that she was a femme sole. Still she was rejected. The gentleman said to have married the girl then appeared before the registrar, denied the rumor, and offered to take an oath that it was untrue. But the registrar still refused. An appeal was made to the County Registrar, but it was of no avail.

From what we can learn there is not the slightest foundation for the report, if such there was anywhere but in the mind of the deputy registrar, for the young lady is still a spinster and in every way eligible for registration. Yet this pretended rumor was allowed to prevail against the positive evidence offered under oath to the contrary. This is a case that ought to be tested, and in our opinion it is a good one on which to base a criminal prosecution or a suit for damages.

While this young lady was barred out from registration, strenuous efforts were being made to prevail upon the workmen at the adjacent smelters, supposed to be "Liberals" because they were non-"Mormons," to register. And as they would not take the trouble to go to the registrar, the registrar had to go to them. It is a matter of great doubt whether the names of quite a number of them have any right to appear on the registry list from which the young lady's name was arbitrarily and illegally excluded. This should be looked into and action taken accordingly. Examine the list and take legal measures to purge it if necessary. Also test the case of the rejected eligible voter.

JUDGE WILLIAMS' EXPLANATION.

We publish in another column an explanation made by Judge Williams, of Ogden, before His Honor Judge Emerson, on Saturday. In addition to disclaiming any connection with publications in Salt Lake papers which, it appears, had been accused of having "gone for the court and counsel," Judge Williams said, as far as he was informed, he felt sure "that there was no just cause for any reflection on the integrity of the courts or board of United States Commissioners."

This remark we fully endorse. And those who have carefully read the strictures of this paper on the conduct of certain "Liberals" in connection with the assault on woman suffrage, are aware that we have not said anything reflecting in any way upon the courts or the Commissioners. We have not "gone for the courts." We have not implied or insinuated ought against them in reference to this question We exposed the plot concocted by the "Liberal" tricksters, but we made no statement which can be construed into a charge against the courts or either of them.

As soon as an application was made for a postponement of the case on which the plotters expected to get "snap judgment," Judge Emerson granted it, and when the People's attorneys desired a full inquiry before Chief Justice Hunter, arrangements were promptly agreed to for both judges to sit on the cases at the same time. We have no fault to find with the courts in reference to this matter and we have not attempted to find any. Of course we are satisfied with the result, and the decision is proof enough that any insinuation against the judges would have been unjust.

THE REGISTRATION.

The registration in this city, so far as the deputy registrars are concerned, gives pretty general satisfaction. These officers worked hard and extended many courtesies, for which they deserve credit. The refusal to register some persons whom the law does not debar was not their fault; they acted under instructions and are not responsible for the rules nor the restrictions which were imposed by others. Between 5,200 and 5,300 persons were registered, 540 or 550 less than the total of the former list. This is a good weeks' work for half a dozen men—only five for the most of the time.

In the country districts more voters were registered in many places than formerly, and the probabilities are that with the accessions of persons who never voted before in the Territory, the People's Party will suffer but slight shrinkage.

THE OGDEN REGISTRATION

Editor Deseret News:

The registration is about over now and the people generally have had an opportunity to register. There has been a marked difference in the attitude of the registration officers the past few days. There are a number of legal voters of the People's party sick and the county registrar and his deputies have gone to their houses and registered them there. I desire to mention this and give the proper persons credit for the courtesies extended.

The decision of Judge Emerson came like a wet blanket on the Liberals to day. Some of them were so confident the woman suffrage act would be pronounced invalid, but alas for their hopes! the ladies will vote at the coming election.

With the news of the decision the Liberals renewed their efforts to get the ladies non-"Mormons" to register, and livery carriages have been plying in a lively manner through the city carrying parties to the registration office. Bye-the-bye we have had another office yesterday and to-day, in Major Silva's store, on main street, and thither most of the parties registering to-day have directed their steps. OGDENITE.

An Offer Declined.

NEW YORK, 18.—A cable dispatch to the Herald says: The Hillsdales have made another effort for a second race with the Thames crew, proposing virtually the same conditions as those of the last contest, but the offer was declined. To-day the Americans left for London and announce that they will sail for America on Wednesday.

Danenhower vs. Melville.

WASHINGTON, 18. — Lieut. Danenhower issues the following card:

My attention has been drawn to several items and comments, referring to alleged trouble between the chief engineer Geo. W. Melville and myself. The latest one, in the Washington Star last evening, copied from New York papers, is the first that takes definite shape, stating under the title "Melville vs. Danenhower," that the alleged charge is that Lt. Danenhower said that if he, (Melville) had not turned back from the first search Captain DeLong and his companions would have been saved."

The above alleged charge has never been made by me. In the first place the facts would not admit of such a charge, for when Melville turned back the Captain's party had been dead at least fifteen days. In the second place, I would never make such charges except to the proper official authorities. I always avoided adverse and premature criticism of my late comrades and will simply refer to what I said when confronted by a score of journalists on board the Celtic on my arrival in New York and which was published in the Herald of May 29th, 1882, under the caption of "Vindication of Melville." This publication was caused by my learning that he had been hastily and unfairly criticised previous to my return. I made no charge against any one, my personal relations with Mr. Melville have been of a very pleasant character. Regretting that I have to appear in print and hoping there will be no further necessity for it.

I am respectfully,
(Signed.) JOHN W. DANENHOWER,
Lieut. U. S. N.

The Brooklyn Bridge.

NEW YORK, 18.—The World has two pages of details of the cost of the Brooklyn bridge showing what it calls an overwhelming proof of systematic jobbery and official corruption. The original estimate of $7,000,000 is hown to be swollen to $22,000,000.

FOREIGN.

LATEST FROM THE SEAT OF WAR.

Arabi Pasha Talks.

CAIRO, 17.—Arabi Pasha says he was compelled to fight against his will. He maintains a calm and resolute demeanor. Arabi informed Gen. Lowe that he trusted himself to English honor as a soldier whose army had been defeated. Gen. Lowe replied he could not discuss the question of the war, his only mission was to arrest him. Arabi considers that DeLesseps shamefully betrayed the national Egyptian party who depended upon his assurance that he would prevent any landing of troops or war material by way of the canal.

Not A Surprise.

Cairo, 17.—The British troops are everywhere well received, even in the native quarter.

A number of the Egyptian levies are leaving for home, in many cases taking their Remmington rifles with them Throughout the campaign the Egyptians had a complete system of spies in Alexandria and Ismaila.

The rebels expected the British would attack Tel-el-Keber at midnight of the 12th, and they remained in the trenches all night. This shows that the attack was not a surprise.

New Police

Alexandria, 17.—Two thousand Albanian recruits have arrived to form the nucleus of the fresh police force.

Taking Possession.

ALEXANDRIA, 18.—The first train for Cairo leaves on Tuesday with government officials. The rebel positions at Kafr-el-Douar consisted of three successive camps, the foremost two only being abandoned. In the town itself are 6,000 Fellahs, two regiments of Cavalry and several horse batteries have been disarmed. The work of disarming the prisoners is over and only a few companies of English troops remain to guard them. We found at Fort Aslan 180 saddle and carriage horses looted during the bombardment of Alexandria. The Council of Ministers is preparing a decree disbanding the army. Although the enemy have abandoned the camp, they left the guns, horses, tents, etc., standing in good order, in charge of a few officers and men. The banks are removing the barricade put up for their protection. The Bourse is more animated. General Wood's brigade will proceed to Cairo in ten trains. The General himself left on the noon train to-day for Kafr-el-Douar, to meet Roubi Pasha, who arrived there from Cairo, with other important persons. When Roubi Pasha reached Cairo he was given in charge of English officers. Coincident with Roubi's arrival numbers of rebel troops from Marietta, Rosetta and Aboukir came into Kafr-el-Douar to surrender. Two companies of British troops were sent to Damiettta.

The Prisoners Disappeared.

Alexandria, 18.—When two trains which went to Kafr-el-Douar yesterday afternoon to bring here the prisoners of war, reached that place, all the soldiers had disappeared with the exception of a small body left to guard the arms, amunition and accoutrements. The Bedouins left two hours before the arrival of the British troops, taking their arms and amunition with them.

The Convention.

Constantinople, 18.—Lord Dufferin informed the Porte that the military operations of the British in Egypt had ceased and that England was about to withdraw a portion of their troops. He left it to the Sultan to decide whether it was now necessary to sign the Anglo-Turkish military convention.

Zagazig Burned.

Ibraham Bey Tewfik, formerly governor of Beheret, Arrived to-day from Cairo, where he has been in prison several weeks, having been incarcerated by order of Arabi Pasha. He reports Zagazig and the surrounding country burned and Mansourah pillaged.

KENTUCKY CONFERENCE.

The Kentucky Conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was held in Butler County, Sept. 2d, at the residence of Brother A. Naurse. There were present on the stand, Elder John Morgan, President of the Southern States Mission, J. G. Rigler, President of the Kentucky Conference, Elder A. H. Snow, of the Tennessee Conference, also L. B. Reynolds, W. G. Paul, and L. A. Kelsch, traveling Elders in the Kentucky Conference. After singing and prayer President Bigler explained the object of the Conference and hoped the Saints and Elders would be profited during our meetings.

Elder Reynolds stated that he in company with Elder Kelsch had succeeded in opening a new field of labor in Grayson County, had preached the Gospel to a great many people, and thought good would result therefrom.

Elder Snow spoke of the unchangeableness of the Gospel and made some very encouraging remarks.

Elder Paul said that it was necessary for us to live like Saints if we claim the name, and to keep the commandments of God for the name alone will not save us.

President Morgan had visited various conferences throughout this mission. Everything seemed to be moving along nicely; was pleased to see the zeal of the Elders in the performance of their duties. Said the principles of the Gospel are revolutionizing the world and would continue to do so till the kingdoms of this world should become the kingdom of our God.

Sunday, Sept. 3rd.

At the appointed time meeting opened by singing and prayer.

President Bigler then presented the general authorities of the Church, John Morgan as president of the Southern States mission, J. G. Bigler as president of the Kentucky Conference, L. Kelsch clerk of the conference, and L. B. Reynolds, W. G. Paul and L. Kelsch as Traveling Elders in the Kentucky Conference.

It was moved that Jas. W. Hendricks be set apart as president of the Butler County Conference. All were unanimously sustained.

President John Morgan then followed with an excellent discourse, showing the necessity of having the Priesthood, with all the gifts and blessings that were enjoyed in the primitive church.

Adjourned till 2 p.m.

Seats were arranged under the shade of the trees and the congregation partook of a plentiful repast.

2 p.m.

Meeting opened as usual, when Elder Kelsch alluded to the hatred of the people toward the Saints in all ages of the world, and bore his testimony to the restoration of the Gospel.

Elder Snow spoke on the apostacy of the people from the primitive Church, and bore his testimony to its restoration in this generation.

President Bigler described some of the principles of the Gospel, exhorting the Saints to be united and faithful to their duties. Hoped that they had all been benefited in associating together during the Conference.

The congregation then sang, "O my Father Thou that Dwellest."

Benediction was offered by Elder Reynolds.
