Constipation

Should not be neglected. It leads to more serious troubles. It shows that the important functions of the liver are imperfectly performed. The best medicine to take for it is the mild, gentle and purgative vegetable cathartic, Hood's Pills, which act on the liver and bowels, cure biliousness, constipation, morning and sick headache, break up colds, relieve uncomfortable fullness after dinner, etc.

Listens to Testimony in Rate Complaints.

DISCRIMINATION IS CHARGED.

Weber Club Accuses Oregon Short Line of Favoring Salt Lake on Conference Passenger Rates.

(Special) to the News.)
OGDEN, Oct. 28.—Hon. C. A. Prentiss, member of the interstate commerce commission, began a hearing this forenoon of the charges of rate discrimination made against the Oregon Short Line railroad by the Weber club of Ogden and the Intermountain Fair association.

The railroad is charged with refusing to make for the recent fair held in Ogden the same rates offered the passengers of the state fair held in Salt Lake City.

The railroad company responded that it was merely a county fair, despite the name assumed—the Four State fair—and its patronage was not heavy enough to justify the same rates offered to the throngs from the entire western country which attend the annual Mormon conference, which is held at the same time the state fair is held.

The witnesses of this morning were William G. Hennemann, president of the local fair association, and Sidney Sorenson for the plaintiffs; and A. C. Scott of Salt Lake City, Presidents Joseph H. Grant of Davis stake, Isaac Smith of Cache stake and Olen N. Stahl of the Boxelder stake, for the railroad company. D. E. Burley, the S. S. L. general passenger agent, was at the stand when this report closed.

Parley L. Williams' attorney for the railroad company, the complainants are represented by President A. R. Heywood of the Weber club, Atty. H. R. Henderson and William Chapman.

MAYOR AND COUNCIL ARE EXONERATED

OGDEN, Oct. 28.—The special committee of prominent Ogden citizens which has been investigating the damage from and growth of the city waterworks department, made by W. L. Wilson Chapman, has just completed its work and is now preparing its report which will be made public this afternoon. The committee finds the charges of fraud and graft wholly unfounded and the conditions of the department fully justify the recent report of the waterworks committee, which had been questioned by the local Republican paper, published by Chapman.

PLAIN CITY CARS DERAILED.

OGDEN, Oct. 28.—Since the new line of the Ogden Rapid Transit company was opened up to Plain City, the boys and girls living along the route have gotten very active, and every time a train is sighted it seems to be a signal for all the youngsters to run on the track and cause the engineer and other trainmen a great deal of annoyance. Capt. Bailey states that his men have been having considerable trouble with the schoolchildren, and if there is not a change soon, he fears that some of them will be getting hurt. As the Sunday train approached the crenery at Plain City, the engine struck an obstruction which had been placed on the track which nearly derailed it, while the cars trailing the engine were thrown off the track completely.

MUST GO UNDER OPERATION.

OGDEN, Oct. 28.—Word has been received from the home of Deputy Sheriff E. H. Cave to the effect that it will probably be necessary for Mr. Cave to undergo an operation in the near future. He has been confined to his home for some weeks with stomach trouble of a serious nature and he intends to go to the Ogden General Hospital next Tuesday, if possible, and get relief from his ailment. Mr. Cave is coming along, having held this position for many years.

WILL RESUME JOURNEY.

PECULIAR ACCIDENT TO RAILROAD LABORER IN WYO.

(Special Correspondence.)

STATION, Wyo., Oct. 25.—A Swedish laborer named Nordt met with a peculiar accident while at work at one of the railroad grading camps in the Big Horn canyon yesterday, and as a result he may die. The laborer was walking along the edge of a cliff when some rocks above came rolling down, knocking his legs from under him and precipitating him into the canyon. He fell a distance of 60 feet. He was picked up unconscious and taken to a hospital camp.

MT. PLEASANT REPUBLICANS FAVOR REFORM PLATFORM

(Special Correspondence.)

MT. PLEASANT, Oct. 27.—The Republicans met in convention on Saturday night and nominated the following city ticket: J. P. Hanson, mayor; J. P. Christensen, councilman; First term: N. O. Anderson, Christian; Wadsworth and Old Larson, councilmen; Second term: T. C. Olson. Mr. Olson's name was placed on the ticket, but Mr. Olson has since declined the nomination, and the name of Christensen has been substituted. The ticket was nominated for recorder, Hannaford Williams for treasurer, and A. C. Nielsen, Jr., for justice of the peace.

The convention, which consisted of 100 delegates, voted to endorse the new state liquor ordinance.

The Democrats held a rally on Thursday evening.

J. Clark, each eulogizing the life and character of the deceased. James E. Millward sang the tenor solo, "As I Am I Come to Thee."

The deceased was born in Coalville, Summit county, Utah, Feb. 9, 1871, and died Oct. 21, 1909. He leaves a young wife and babe to mourn his departure.

PROTECTION OF FOREST HAS GOOD RESULTS AT MANTI

(Special Correspondence.)

MANTI, Sept. 27.—The value of proper protection of forest and range as a means of flood prevention has recently been well demonstrated on the Manti national forest in central Utah.

Among the creeks which have their origin in this forest are Manti, Piney,

Red, 2½ Miles and Fremont creeks. Following the demolition of the watersheds of these creeks by the grazing of live stock, serious and destructive floods occurred each year and the amount of damage suffered by settlers living along the streams and by the residents of the towns of Ephraim, Manti and Sterling, amounted to thousands of dollars annually.

At the request of the citizens of the city of Manti, the headwaters of Manti creek were closed to all classes of stock about six years ago and since that time a steady reduction in the volume of the mud and water of this creek has been apparent. It remains for the present year to give a full demonstration of the value of the protection afforded. On Aug. 15, 21 and 27 heavy rains occurred throughout the entire area of the forest and particularly around the headwaters of the creeks mentioned.

The floods in Ephraim, 8½ miles and Piney creek, which is situated between the others, with its headwaters in close proximity, but where the watershed was protected, the increase in the volume of water was only nominal and little, if any, damage to property resulted.

A BIT OF SHOE HISTORY IN SALT LAKE CITY.

Just twenty-one years ago today, the Robinson Bros. Shoe Co., now located at 122 South Main, opened up a retail shoe store in a very unpretentious store on First South St., with probably as much stock as would today be disposed of in about two hours in their present establishment. As the season, their growth was steady; the first year's business did not aggregate more than $1,500, even though managers Mr. and Mrs. Robinson agreed to supply him with the minimum salary of $500 a week. From the beginning their slogan has been "Fair treatment to all," for in this they recognized that confidence on the part of the Salt Lake people would follow. It is safe to say that in every city and town of any consequence in the state, the institution of Robinson Bros. shoes is established. On their twenty-first anniversary their business boasts of a prosperity that is a high tribute to their business methods. Customers of long ago are not only coming themselves, but are sending their children and their grandchildren to be properly cared for in similar stores at Robinson Bros. Now that the institution has arrived at its majority, it has decided to vote now and always in favor of fair treatment to all, and in order to accentuate this they are making a special inducement to all customers, Friday and Saturday of this week, to each cash customer purchasing a pair of shoes Robinson Bros. will give free a pair of reliable rubbers.
