OGDEN NEWS.

OGDEN, UTAH, - JULY 12, 1901.

DEATH OF GEO. L. WATTIS.

A Respected Resident and Postmaster of Utah—
—Succumbs to Blood Poisoning.

David Gordon Sues Depot and Railway Companies for $10,000 Damages—Given Forcible Possession.

The home of W. H. Wattis, 2649 Jefferson avenue, was visited by the angel of death yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, and the spirit of his brother, George Lyman Wattis was called to the great beyond. The deceased's home was at Utah, but he came to Ogden about a month ago to receive medical treatment for an abscess that had formed on his left leg near the hip. An operation was performed, but it did not seem to relieve his suffering, and the swelling abscess turned to blood poisoning. Everything that loving hands and medical aid could do for him was done, but with no avail. He suffered excruciating pain with great fortitude and patience, ever hoping, even to the last, to recover.

George Lyman Wattis was a man of noble character and kind, loving disposition, and his demise will be felt by all who knew him. He was at the time of death postmaster and road supervisor of Utah, and a member of the A. O. U. W. He leaves a devoted wife and two other children, also two sisters, Mrs. M. J. Fretwell, of Utah, and Mrs. Archie Bowman of Utah, and three brothers, E. O. W. H. and W. L. Wattis, all of whom are residing in Utah. The remains will be kept at Larkin & Son's undertaking parlors until Saturday, when they will be removed to the home at Utah. The funeral services will be held at the Utah meeting house Sunday at 12 o'clock. The A. O. U. W. will attend in a body.

BIG DAMAGE SUIT.

Suit was filed in the Second district court by David Gordon vs. the Ogden Union Railway and Depot company, Southern Pacific company and the Western Union Telegraph company, to secure a judgment against the defendants in the sum of $10,000 for personal injuries. The complaint sets forth that the plaintiff was in the employ of the Southern Pacific company on March 18, 1891, as a switchman in the yards of the defendant, the Ogden Union Railway and Depot company, and as such switchman it was his duty to switch cars from one track to another and was directed by the defendant, Southern Pacific company, that while in the discharge of his duty on date above mentioned, with all care and diligence, and under command of the Southern Pacific company while moving a car on which is known as the north leg of the Y, he was forcibly and violently, and without fault on his part, struck with a telegraph wire upon the head, the said wire was used and strung by the defendant, the Ogden Union Railway and Depot company, and the Western Union Telegraph company, and was carelessly strung across the track upon which the car was being moved. The plaintiff was thrown from the car by the defendant, and was bruised and wounded about the head, limbs and body, and his left shoulder permanently injured. W. R. White and Richard E. Allison are attorneys for the plaintiff.

DEE-MACK WEDDING.

Marriage license was granted to Glen H. Mack, 20, and Miss Edith May Dea, 18, both of Ogden city.

GIVEN FORCIBLE POSSESSION.

Yesterday afternoon Sheriff Layne went to North Ogden in company with Deputy Shaw and placed Marlow Barrett et al. in possession of a certain piece of land situated in North Ogden, the possession of which was granted by a decree issued by Judge Rolapp in the case of Barrett et al. vs. Montgomery et al. The Montgomerys had commenced to cut the hay on the land, but the sheriff removed their machine, etc., from the land and Barrett brothers continued the putting up of the hay.

PROVO.

Shooting was accidental.

Miss Cliff Will Recover—Will Enertain Mrs. Sewall.

Provo, July 12.—Sheriff Starna and County Attorney Page went to Pleasant Grove yesterday to investigate the shooting of Miss Cliff at Sunday, Wednesday evening. They found from elements of Mr. Waycarter and his wife and daughter, who were with him in the buggy at the time of the shooting, that it was entirely accidental. They said that some dogs began fighting under the buggy, and that Miss Waycarter, in reaching for the whip to keep the dogs, dislodged some part of the buggy and this caused the charge to explode. Mr. Waycarter claims that he did not know the child had been shot till he was told about it in Pleasant Grove, and that he then remarked he supposed it must have been from the discharge of his gun.

The victim of the accident is getting along nicely, and no serious consequences are anticipated.

The following outlines of a program for the visit of Mrs. May Wright Sewall on July 17th, has been arranged. At 4 o'clock a reception will be given in the tabernacle for the ladies of the Relief Society, the Y. M. I. A. and the women's clubs. Mrs. Sewall's entertainment is in the hands of the boards of the Relief Society and the Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement Association. After reaching the river, he intends to follow it to its source, where the city of Mantle is believed to have been situated. Mr. Fairbanks will make numerous sketches on the trip. He is expected to arrive home this fall.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve should be promptly applied to cuts, burns and scalds. It soothes and quickly heals the injured part. There are worthless counterfeits, be sure to get DeWitt's. F. C. Schramm, Prescription Druggist, McCormick building, corner Main and First South street.

EUREKA.

WILL OBSERVE PIONEER DAY

Home for Elks—School Election—To Have a Bank.

Eureka, July 11.—An effort will be made by a number of leading Eureka people to have an appropriate celebration on Pioneer day, July 24th. The committee having charge of the celebration here on July 4th found upon settling up that they had considerable money left over. This will be used in the Pioneer Day celebration on the 24th. A number of contests for the children will be put on in the afternoon and a free dance will be tendered the young folks. City Marshal Herried and other business men have the matter in hand and will doubtless make the occasion an enjoyable one.

HOME FOR ELKS.

The Eureka lodge of Elks are to have a new home in a short time. A building is being put up on Main street by Joseph Schuchert, and the upstairs will be leased by the Elks. Mr. Schuchert's bakery and store will occupy the ground floor. The lodge rooms will be attractively fitted up.

Another large building has been put up on Main street by Mrs. Caroline Hayes. The place which contains two commodious store rooms will be completed this week. This building takes the place of the recently destroyed by fire. Mrs. Hayes will use part of the new building for a millinery store and rent the remainder.

TRUSTEE EJECTED.

At the election held the other day W. W. Thompson was elected as school trustee of Eureka school district No. 5, to serve for a term of three years.

EUREKA TO HAVE BANK.

It is now quite certain that Eureka is to have a banking house. A representative of McCormick's bank was in the camp the early part of the week and in a short time a building is being started. Eureka has been without a bank since 1898, when the George Arthur Rice & Co. bank failed.

It is easier to keep well than get cured. DeWitt's Little Early Rider is now and then, will always keep your bowels in perfect order. They never gripe but promote an easy gentle action. F. C. Schramm, Prescription Druggist, McCormick building, corner Main and First South street.

TORREY.

DROUTH IS UNBROKEN.

Billings-Adams Nuptials—Will Celebrate the 24th.

Torrey, Wayne Co., July 8.—The weather is very warm and dry. For several years we have not had any storm to amount to anything; while other counties in the state have been blessed with rain and snow, the drouth is still unbroken in Wayne county. The hay crop is good this cutting, but unless we have rain the second crop will be short.

JOYOUS FOURTH.

The citizens of Torrey had a most enjoyable time on the Fourth. The people gathered at the meeting house at 10 o'clock and enjoyed the rendering of music and the rendering of the afternoon's entertainment consisted of foot racing, horse racing, etc., and a dance for the children. The young and old enjoyed the ball in the evening, as there was no fire water in circulation. In fact we are prepared to state that the influence of liquor on the Fourth of July.

BILLINGSLEY-ADAMS NUPTIALS.

R. D. Adams and Miss Ellie Billingsley will be married in the Mantle Temple in the near future. This will be the first couple to get married in Torrey since the ward's organization which took place September 11, 1898.

John C. Jacobs, who is troubled with heart disease, has had a very severe attack of late which came near ending his career. But he is now able to be about and attend to his labors.

A grizzly bear passed through William A. Holt's place the other day.

THE TWENTY-FOURTH.

We are to have another enjoyable time on the 24th of July as a splendid program has been arranged and among the good parts on the program is the pioneer speech by Uncle Chris Jacobs, one of the worthy pioneers. Though Uncle Chris is 82 years of age we expect a very interesting talk.

The piles that annoy you so will be quickly and permanently healed by you DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Be aware of worthless counterfeits. F. C. Schramm, Prescription Druggist, McCormick building, corner Main and First South street.

Maude—George, dear, I have found out something dreadful about you—and I will tell you—if you promise faithfully not to breathe it. George—Adored one, my lips will be sealed. Maude—Well, it is just this—you've been drinking.

A LITERARY DIGEST.

AND THEN TOMMY GOT WHIPPED AGAIN. Tommy's Father (who is not noted for his good looks, sternly)—What were you fighting that Buggins boy for? Tommy—Boo-hoo! He said I looked just like you!

CAINEVILLE.

Second Crop of Lucern—Hanksville and Giles Running Short of Water.

Special Correspondence.

Caineville, Wayne Co., July 8.—The second crop of lucern is ready to cut ten days earlier than last year.

The Fourth of July passed off very nicely. A good program was filled in the forenoon, the afternoon was spent in a children's dance, ball playing, foot racing, etc., winding up at night with a splendid dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Leman Goding gave their wedding dance, which was enjoyed by all. We wish them a pleasant journey through life.

Mrs. Romanina Goding has been sick for some time but is recovering.

The Y. M. and Y. W. M. I. A. Joint session was held here last night; a splendid program was filled and an enjoyable time was had.

Hanksville and Giles are very short of water; their crops will suffer greatly unless the rains come soon.

SCIENTIFIC MISCELLANY.

The explorers who were led to investigate the marine-like fauna of Lake Tanganyika have made an interesting report. The great rift valley that crosses East Africa rises just north of Tanganyika into a barrier that once formed part of the divide between the drainage systems of the Nile and the Congo, but a group of large and active volcanoes 50 miles further north, one of them 15,000 feet high, have built a second barrier across the valley, and turned southward the waters of Lake Kivu, raising its surface nearly 2,000 feet. Its present outlet, Rusizi river, reaches Tanganyika after falling over numerous rapids.

The fauna of Lake Kivu is almost completely identical with that of the north, proving that it must once have been a tributary to the Nile; and the change in its outlet was doubtless effected before its waters were reached by a fish that is characteristic of the Congo basin.

Remarkable results have been reported from a change of natural to forced draft on a steamship. Two Scotch boilers are now doing the work that formerly required four, the saving of coal is four tons per day although the average revolutions have increased three per minute and considerable space has been gained for freight.

The positive and negative plates of the new Edison storage battery are mechanically alike, and scarcely to be distinguished by the eye. Each consists of a window-frame-like grid stamped from a sheet of steel one-fortieth of an inch thick, with the openings fitted with shallow perforated steel boxes containing the active material. This material is a compound of iron for the negative pole or positive element, and a superoxide of nickel for the positive pole or negative element, and each sub-

A TALE OF A SHIRT.

What Came of Lending One to a Friend.

"Of course you have heard the tale of the shirt of flannel, the tale of which grew shorter and shorter with every wash, but this is a tale of a shirt that has caused me to make no end of explanations," remarked a gentleman.

"Years ago all my laundry was done by a Chinaman, who was the best washerman I ever knew. My linen came home spotlessly clean and magnificently laundered, and that Chinaman was a treasure in his line. One night a friend passed the night with me. I loaned him a night shirt, and when he got up the next morning I put out one of my shirts for him. He wore it, leaving his soiled garments in its place to go out with my wash. The Chinaman failed to call for the soiled clothes, as was his custom, and upon sending to his place his laundry was found closed and no one knew where the washerman had gone. I sent the bundle of soiled linen to a steam laundry, and when my clothes were sent home every garment was marked with the initials of the friend who had passed the night with me and whose shirt I had sent to the laundry with mine. Up to that time no spot of an indecent had appeared on any of my clothes.

Chinamen do not mark clothes, but use different colored strings to keep the lots of their customers separate. But in steam laundries everything is marked in indelible ink, and as the shirt of my friend was the only garment marked with his initials were put on every piece I had sent to the wash, notwithstanding my own name was on the laundry slip, and my initials were nothing like those on the one marked shirt. Since that time I have never been able to escape the initials of my former friend, wherever I may thus initials still stick to my clothes, and every washable garment I own to this day is marked with my friend's initials. Since the day his shirt went to the laundry in my bundle I suppose I have bought a hundred shirts, half as many suits of underwear, and twice as many pairs of socks, collars and neckties, and invariably they have been marked with that man's initials, no matter in what part of the country I may be. I am strongly tempted to give away all the wash clothes I possess just to get rid of the initials of my friend which have so long stuck to me. I know no other way to rid myself of this laundry mark. As long as those initials stick to me I am in danger of being identified as some other man should I be knocked insensible in the street by the victim of foot-pads or meet sudden death."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

You can never cure dyspepsia by dieting. What your body needs is plenty of food properly digested. Then if your stomach will not digest it, Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will. It contains all of the natural digestants hence must digest every class of food and so prepare it that nature can use it in nourishing the body and replacing the wasted strength, ambition, pure blood and good healthy appetite.—F. C. Schramm, Prescription Druggist, McCormick building, corner Main and First South street.
