TELEGRAPHIC.

WATSON TO JONES.

Warning That Bryan Cannot Get the Full Populist Vote

WITH SEWALL ON THE TICKET.

Populists Will Not Stultify Themselves by Voting Against Their Convictions.

New York, Sept. 27.—Thomas Watson, the Populist candidate for Vice President, telegraphs to the World a review of the political situation, in which he concludes, in part:

"Under present conditions Mr. Bryan cannot get the full Populist vote. He cannot get it in Kansas or Colorado. He cannot get it in North Carolina or Nebraska. In the friendliest States I give Chairman Jones warning: He will make the blunder of his life if he listens to the fusion leaders and leaves a big Populist vote ear to find Mr. Bryan with Sewall on the ticket.

"Populist voters are men who have elevated themselves on political topics. They will not meekly deliver up their principles at the behest of politicians. They will not vote for a man who, if Mr. Bryan dies, will make us another Presidential candidate. Mr. Sewall is a good man, but he may not be able to reach by the fusion deal, but they can stay at home. The covenant made at St. Louis by a rabid Democratic-Populist mob should be carried out in good faith. Democratic managers should not expect us and me to sit down by Jones's fireside. If Mr. Chairman Jones wants Mr. Bryan's ears, let him go where he is living."

Mr. Watson says Mr. Bryan acted himself in the negotiations with the Populists at the St. Louis convention in telegraphing Senator Jones that no words can suggest a Populist committee, and said:

INSULTED THE POPULISTS.

"Senator Jones concealed this telegram and showed the Populists no cards in ignorance of Mr. Bryan's position and permitted the committee to make a ticket with Sewall on it without protest. His excuse, his failure to announce the Populists, organized as an opposition to Bryan's candidacy, was that he had telegraphed Mr. Bryan in the belief that the Democrats would meet them on half-way ground, withdraw Sewall and nominate Bryan and Watson. He got no response. He resigned at the same party meeting as representative of Bryan and assumed the compromise we offered. The fight would now be Wm. Jennings Bryan, the Populist nominee, and Arthur Sewall was the nominee of foreign affairs."

ITALY AND ENGLAND.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The Daily News correspondent at Rome is assured that negotiations are pending between Italy and England, with a view to the latter government loaning 20,000,000 pounds a large body of troops to sail at a moment's notice for the Levant.

RUSSIA AND ENGLAND.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—The morning papers devote some attention to the sudden change in the attitude of the Russian press toward Great Britain. Of these the Bourse Gazette and the Novosti warn the government to beware of trusting England to join the triplicate, thinking that Germany is accused at England's aloofness from that alliance and is trying to sow discord between England and Russia.

The morning papers make note of the fact that this change of face on the part of the Russian press is coincident with Lord Salisbury's arrival at Balder, to a conference with the czar.

THE DERVISHES COLLARED.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The Times to-day publishes, under the heading "Under the Flag," a letter from a trooper of the Scots Guards, describing the capture of Dongola by the Anglo-Egyptian army. The letter says: "The Dervishes were taken completely by surprise. Their camp was full of women and children, and the confusion was indescribable. Many of the Dervishes were killed in the fighting, but the majority of them were captured. Their camp was full of loot, and the Egyptians are now busily engaged in collecting it. The Dervishes are now prisoners of war."