In the Whole History of Medicine

No preparation has ever performed such marvelous cures, or maintained so wide a reputation as AYER'S CATHARTIC, which is recognized as the world's remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs.

Its long-continued series of wonderful cures in all climates has made it universally known as a safe and reliable agent to employ. Against "croup" and "croup," which are the runarers of more serious disorders, it acts speedily and surely, always relieving suffering, and saving lives. The protection it affords by its timely use in the throat and lung disorders of children, makes it an invaluable remedy to be kept always on hand in every home. No person can afford to be without it, and those who have once used it, never will. From their knowledge of its composition and effects, Physicians use the Cathartic Prescribed extensively in their practice, and Clergymen recommend it. It is absolutely certain in its remedial effects, and will always cure where cures are possible.

The Minstrels.—Barlow, Wilson, Primrose and West's Minstrels make their first appearance at the Theatre to-night. If they are as good as they are said to be, they will find that Salt Lake will appreciate their performances. The following is from the St. Louis Globe Democrat:

"The entertainment is first-class in all respects, and we predict for them a brilliant future. Their first act is entirely new, with excellent music, songs, jokes, puns, etc., and Wilson and Barlow, are the 'conquerors of blues' on the ends. Primrose and West in their two song and dance acts seemed as though they were automatons worked by hidden springs. In all styles of dancing, from the silent and gliding step of the pantomime clog to the double-quick trip-hammer and anvil chorus movements, they were the embodiment of grace and the 'poetry of motion.' Throughout the entire performance the audience were kept in rars of laughter. If the object of negro minstrelsy is to please, commend us to the B. W. P. & W. combination."

The Ogen Junction says: "Every actor is an artist, and every act a gem. It is, in fact, the best troupe that ever visited Utah."

Lyne's Benefit.—The Theatre was well attended last evening and the performance good throughout. Mr. Lyne's careful and vigorous portrayal of the guilty-minded "Sir Edward," considering the actor's extreme age, was a topic for surprise and commendation. Miss Adams made a fine appearance and acted well as "Lady Helen." Miss Colebrook played the boy secretary "Wilford" admirably, and Mr. Hornly made an excellent "Samson." This gentleman, of late, shows much improvement. Miss Sander's second appearance was favorably noted also, and Messrs. Olsen and Bywater did exceedingly well, as did the rest of the subordinate characters. Mr. Lyne was called before the curtain at the close of the play and responded in a brief and happy speech. The "Sword of Bunker Hill" was recited in good style by Professor Cushman, as was Mr. Lyne's poem, "76 and 61," by Miss Adams. Mr. Cushman's eccentricities, which followed, were also appreciated. On the whole the performance was a success.

Supreme Court.—The Supreme Court of the Territory held the opening session of the June term yesterday afternoon, Chief Justice Schaeffer and Associate Justices Emerson and Bore, presiding.

Elizabeth Handley, respondent, vs. E. M. East, appellant; from Third district; appeal dismissed. The People, etc., vs. Richard Gough; motion for rehearing taken under advisement.

The United States, respondent, vs. George Reynolds, appellant; the mandate of the Supreme Court of the United States in this cause having been filed this day in the office of the clerk, shows that the judgment is affirmed in all particulars, except that portion relating to hard labor, and the lower court is instructed to order a verdict accordingly. Adjourned to the 5th.

It Might Have Been.—Yesterday afternoon, a couple of employees at the mercantile establishment of Wm. Jennings and Sons, having occasion to go into the cellar, discovered some of the departments full of smoke. Careful search proved that nothing inside the building was on fire, and it was finally ascertained that the smoke entered through a window from the outside. Going outside, they found that some careless person had dropped the lighted stump of a cigar down between the cracks of the plank pavement, immediately in front of the Singer Machine Office. Underneath, the boards and rubbish were smoldering and the smoke, passing through a grating below, filled the cellar. A few buckets of water extinguished what might have been a fire.

Base Ball.—A decided change in base ball circles is expected on Thursday and Saturday next, when a really first-rate club will meet our local champions. The aspirant for honors is the Laramie club, and its friends seem to scorn the idea of their losing either game. Bob Addy, the old indispensable of the Boston, Chicago, and Cincinnati nines, plays with this team, and has succeeded in improving his play so well that the very closest of games here will be the result.

District Court.—Proceedings Tuesday morning, June 3, 1879. Judge P. H. Emerson presiding.

In the case of Mary L. Cutler vs. Utah Central Railroad Company; motion for nonest overruled; defense introducing testimony.
