SHOT IN THE HAND,

A Gun Burst to the Hands of Ed. Warr of Granger.

On Friday last Ed. Warr, whose home is in Granger, this county, met with a very paintin secident. He was with a very paintin secident. He was with a sneep herd in Skull valley at the time, and the copyles were quite troublessme. Early Filiay mirroing the young man took a gau belonging to another member of the samp and freed lief to frighten way the copyles. For some reason the gam burst, the lead passing through Warr's hand in the thick of the thumb. The wound tied prolucely and all efforts to be a supported to the control of the county of th
