OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - AUG. 7, 1903. News Bureau at 261 E. Washington Ave. where arrangements for advertising can be made.

Be Signed It.

The resolution, asking that $200 be appropriated by the city for the purpose of surveying Ogden river to determine the number of horsepower that can be produced, was signed Saturday evening by Mayor Lundy, and tonight the matter will come up again before the council.

The Broom Will.

The John Brown will case has to be settled through the courts, unless the matter can be amicably adjusted by compromise. The hearing of the petition of the executor came up again Saturday before Judge Bishop.

Two Fires.

The city cemetery was pretty badly damaged by fire Saturday evening and the loss will be $200 or more. The exact amount was not ascertained.

Two Lively Animals.

There were four or five railroads in this city Saturday afternoon and evening, but fortunately little damage was done.

Police Court.

Police court business is still very dull, but three arrests have been made since Saturday.

Mr. Homans.

Mr. Homans, the prominent sheep and cattle raiser of Nebraska and Colorado, says he can make a gross profit of $50 per acre on his sheep investments.

BEFORE CONGRESS.

Working for the West. After a stay of several years at Washington, D.C., during which he has become familiar with the workings of Congress and the departments, Judge Chas. W. Rogers, an Attorney and Commissioner of the Supreme Court of the United States, is prepared to assume proper legislation by signing before Congress and referring influential Congressmen as to the needs of events and conditions recommended by him.
