CLOSE CALL FOR HIS LIFE.

Thrilling Experience of Thomas Steed - Ran Into by Cars.

Special Correspondence. Farmington, Davis Co., June 29,-Thomas Steed, an aged resident of Farmington, had an almost miraculous escape from death on Saturday last at this place. It seems that he was going down into the bottom lands west of Farmington to do some mowing and as he was crossing the Rio Grande Western railway track, a train of gravel cars, which was being pushed along ahead of the engine ran into the vagon in which he was riding, with the result that the wagon was smashed ino splinters, and Brother Steed, with the spring seal, was picked up bodily and thrown into the rapidly moving car, and escaped with some bruises not serious in their nature. The wagon was torn from the team, and the latter left unhrurt. It seems that the engine was in the rear of a long train of cars and gave no signal of its approach.

THE FOURTH.

Something near $300 has already been subscribed by the citizens of Richfield for the celebration of the Fourth of July. It is the intention to make it the best celebration ever had in Richfield. Among the attractive features of the day will be a game of baseball between Richfield and a Salt Lake team. This Richfield and a Salt Lake team. This will be a league game. A purse of $60 will be given to the winners by the city, A game was played here yesterday by the Richfield and Kimberly teams. The score stood 34 to 11 in favor of Richfield. Haying is in full blast and the weather very warm.

The term is norte and the considered as with-drawn. When the money on hand, together with the estimated current income of the Company shall be deemed by the Board of Directors insufficient to pay all the de-posits applied for, they shall make no new loans; and if the demand shall, in their judgment become excessive or gen-eral they shall have power to set aside all applications previously made, which may not have been satisfied, and to order an apportionment of all the funds, as they may be got in, and at such short in-tervals as they may ludge proper, among all the depositors in proportion to the amount of their deposits, and shall hold the sums apportioned to each depositor until called for by him. But the Directors shall in all circum-stances have power to provide for the ex-penses of the Company, and for any other lawful payments which they may deem necessary. Including dividends already declared, and loans previously contract-ed for, before making an apportionment." Depositors will take notice that all de-posits, are held subject to the provisions of the foregoing by-law and deposits will be paid only in accordance there-with. Dated June 1, 1963. THE DELINEATOR FOR JULY.

The July Delleneator shows a considerable change in make-up from preced-ing issues, the literary matter has been brought to the front of the book, then follow the fashions, and lastly departmental matter. The number is in many respects superior to any previous one The display of the fashions is charming and up to date, and the literary con-tents are of striking interest. Christine Terhune Herrick writes entertainingly of Marion Harland's souvenir garden at Sunnybank, her country place in New Jersey, and N. Hudson Moore contributes to the number a finely illus-trated paper on roses. Bird Eables and their Cradles, by Landon Knight, is a very attractive article, illustrated with photographs. In the seventh "Miladi" paper Miss Clara E. Laughlin discusspaper Miss Chara E. Laughlin discuss-es woman's duties toward her neigh-bors. In fiction, there is a short story called Paper Dolls and Paper Dollars, written by Jogeph Blethen and illustrat-ed by A. I. Keller; and the third in-stallment of The Bois-Brules, Mrs. Catherwood's serial. A page of exclu-sive photopraghs of Viola Alien is a feature. In the series on historic and feature. In the series on historic and modern home, Van Cortlandt Manor House is described and illustrated, with views of both interior and exterior. For the children, Lina Beard begins a series describing the construction in min-lature of the "Seven Wonders of the World." The number also includes the World." The number also includes the introduction to a series of tales for children called Firelight Stories, by Livingston B. Morse. The sixth lesson in Plain Sewing is given, and the De-partments are as helpful and varied in interest as usual. nterest as usual.
