Murder Most Foul.

CHICAGO, 9.—On the 28th of last month Joseph Robbins, bridge watchman at Kaskeaskia River, on the St. Louis and Vandalia R. R., was murdered; Nathan Burgess, one of his neighbors, was arrested on suspicion, and to-day he made a full confession, and stated that knowing Robbins received his monthly pay that day, he took a shotgun and fired at him through the window of his watch-house. He then approached the house and through an open door saw Robbins praying, and heard him say, "Oh God have mercy on the one who did this, and spare him for Jesus' sake. I was horrified and turned and ran, I did not know where. I did not enter the house nor touch the door; his words haunt me still."

The Returns to be Canvassed—Remitted.

NEW ORLEANS, 9.—It is announced that the returning board will meet on Wednesday noon, and begin the work of canvassing the returns of the recent election.

At Vienna, to-day, Judge Trimble, at the instance of the citizens, remitted the fine and revoked the order of imprisonment against Lieut. Hodgson. Marshall Seely is still in jail.

The Democrats in Alabama.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., 9.—The democratic majority in the State will be 15,000. Six democratic Congressmen are elected, and there will be 30 democratic majority on the joint ballot in the legislature. Alex. White and other prominent republicans are in caucus here, but for what purpose is unknown.

Moulton's Answer.

NEW YORK, 9.—Upon retiring from the Brooklyn city court-room to-day, Judge Fullerton visited the U. S. court building, and filed the reply of Moulton to the complaint of Miss Proctor in the libel suit. The document is very long. Moulton admits that he knew that Miss Proctor was the lady referred to in connection with the scandal, but he felt himself coerced by a combination of circumstances to make the statement which is deemed libellous, and after Beecher's testimony it became a matter of self-defense for Moulton to make public his version of the matter.

Annual Reports of Sherman and Sheridan.

WASHINGTON, 9.—General Sherman's annual report to the Secretary of War shows the total number of enlisted men in the army, on October 15th, to be 26,441. It estimates that this number will probably be reduced through natural causes, by the 1st of January, 1875, to the 25,000 allowed by law. It deprecates the inadequacy of so small an army for the demands of so large a territory as it has to be scattered over, involving the necessity of withdrawing troops from one department to meet the requirements of another a long distance away. It compliments highly the efficiency of General Sheridan and his subordinate officers, in maintaining comparative peace in the Indian country. It says the reports of the commanding officers demonstrate that the small army of the United States, called a peace establishment, is the hardest worked body of men in this or any country. The discipline and behavior of the officers and men have been worthy of all praise, and whether employed on the extreme and distant frontier or in aiding the civil officers in the execution of civil processes, they have been a model for the imitation of all good men. In regard to the removal of his headquarters to St. Louis, he says—"I am prepared to execute the duties that may be devolved upon me by proper authority. Here I am centrally located, and should occasion arise, I can personally proceed to any point of this continent where my services are needed."

Lieut. Gen. Sheridan, in his annual report, touches slightly upon General Custer's Black Hills expedition, which it pronounces a successful reconnaisance. The country of the Black Hills was found to be much better than was expected, with plenty of good timber and considerable good soil at high altitudes, and an abundant supply of good water and grass. Some gold was found near Harney's Peak, but of its abundance there is at present no reliable information, as sufficient time could not be given by an expedition such as that of Colonel Custer, to prospect and determine its quantity. General Sheridan again recommends the establishment of a large military post in the Black Hills country. Speaking of Indian troubles, General Sheridan says, "I respectfully differ with General Pope as to the chief causes of these Indian troubles, and attribute them to the impunity with which the tribes have been treated. In all their raids into Texas for the past three years their reservations have furnished them with supplies with which to make the raids, and have sheltered them from pursuit when they returned with their scalps and plunder. No man of close observation, it seems to me, can travel across the great plains from Nebraska and Wyoming to Texas, and see established ranches, with their hundreds of thousands of head of cattle, sheep and horses, together with the families of the owners, and reasonably think that these people, so much exposed and having such valuable interests, are desirous of provoking Indian wars. There was a time possibly when the population of the Indian frontier may have been desirous of Indian troubles, but that has passed long ago."

Fraud on the P. O. Department.

The Third Assistant Postmaster General, in his annual report, estimates the proportion of washed stamps used again in payment of postage as five per cent. in value of all the stamps sold each year, causing an annual loss to the revenue of $1,000,000.

Whitely, Hayes & Co.

The evidence in the safe burglary case, to-day, went to show that Whitely employed Hayes and Zirruth, knowing them to be ready to do anything and unworthy of belief.

A Shocking Shooting Affair.

WORCESTER, Mass., 9.—At Central Village, Conn., on Saturday, a boy twelve years of age shot his brother, aged 2, dead on the spot, and wounded his sister so seriously that she is not expected to live; the affair was an accident.

Murder.

MILWAUKEE, 9.—A woman named Streerin killed her son by poison.

Meeting of New Legislature.

LITTLE ROCK, 9.—The first legislature under the new constitution meets to-morrow; the city is full of members.

Munificence.

CINCINNATI, 9.—David Sinton, of this city, to-day, gave $30,000 to the Young Men's Christian Association, to pay off the debt hanging over that body.

FOREIGN.

CANADA.

The Small-pox Increasing.

MONTREAL, 9.—The small-pox is still increasing here. The Hotel Dieu and general hospital are overcrowded. Hall House in New Mountain Park has been taken possession of, and ten patients placed there since Saturday.

Shocking.

During special services in the French parish church this morning, an alarm of fire was given, when the large congregation made a rush for the doors, and fully 300 people were trampled under foot, many being fatally injured.

Exaggerated.

The first reports of the panic in the French church were exaggerated, only a few persons were slightly injured.

GREAT BRITAIN.

A Flaw in the Direct Cable.

LONDON, 9.—The latest advices from the steamer Faraday state that after 1461 miles of cable were paid paid out, a flaw was discovered, but not soon enough to prevent it from being passed overboard, and the wind blowing a gale they were obliged to buoy the cable 180 miles from where it was intended to splice it on the shore end.

Political Meeting at Birkenhead.

MacIver, a conservative candidate for Parliament, addressed a disorderly meeting at Birkenhead this evening, and with great difficulty obtained a hearing; he declared himself a supporter of religious education, and opposed to the disestablishment of the Church of England.

Speech By Disraeli.

The festivities of Lord Mayor's Day concluded with a banquet at Guild Hall, at which were present a large number of the nobility. The Lord Mayor gave a toast to the Queen's ministers, to which Disraeli responded. Referring to the tranquility in England he said the working men were contented; that they inherited rights not possessed by the nobility in other lands; they had no fear of arbitrary ministers or of domiciliary visits; they possessed the right to combine for the protection of the interests of labor. Justice was pure, and there were no respected individual classes. Disraeli avoided making any political forecast. He only expressed the conviction that there would be a revival of trade, and that the revenue would be benefitted. Referring to the recent outcry for a separation of the colonies, he distinctly declared himself in favor of the maintenance of the integrity of the empire, and the policy of the annexation of the Fiji Islands was a proof that the government was resolved to consolidate the empire and to establish an identity of interest and sympathy with the colonies. He thanked the French ambassador for the friendly sentiments expressed when replying to the toast, "To the diplomatic body." Although it would be trifling with truth to assert that the state of the continent showed no cause for anxiety, yet the government believed in the maintenance of peace, for which all the great powers were anxious. Disraeli, in taking his seat, was loudly applauded.

FRANCE.

A Denial.

PARIS, 9. — The Carlists here deny the truth of the assertion of the Spanish government that the siege of Irun has been raised, and they profess to have information that the besiegers are cannonading the town to-night, and that Carlos visited all the outposts yesterday. A republican battalion landed at Fort Arabia, and a decisive action is expected to-morrow.

Resignation Accepted—Marriage of Young Napoleon talked of—A Foreign Mission—Protestant Convention—Dead.

The French government has accepted the resignation of the prefect of Nice.

The marriage of the Prince Imperial, to a daughter of the Russian Grand Duchess Marie, is mentioned in Bonapartist circles as a probable event.

The Union says that Don Carlos has entrusted his brother Alphonso with an important mission to foreign courts.

Delegates representing 42 protestant consistories, have begun a session in Paris; they intend to issue a manifesto, affirming rules of conscience, and have already passed a resolution refusing to hold new elections in place of those recently annulled by the minister of public instruction.

Monsigneur Fruchard, archbishop of Tours, died to-day.

Republican Elected.

Complete returns from the department of the Drome elect M. Montjou, republican, candidate to the Assembly, by 40,000 votes. M. Morin the Bonapartist, received 28,000.

PRUSSIA.

A Failure.

BERLIN, 9.—The first attempt of the Prussian government to have priests elected by the congregations took place at Sandsburg, and was an utter failure, only eleven persons offering to vote.

Proceedings in Parliament—An Ecclesiastical Suit.

In the Reichstag to-day, the army budget and other financial measures, mentioned in the Emperor's speech, were referred to appropriate committees. The minister of finance stated that he considered a surplus of 13,320,000 reichsmarks certain, but the government would ask for loans to meet the increased expenditures for the navy and telegraphs.

The government has entered an action in the ecclesiastical court against the Bishop of Paderborn and Lodge and an application for his deposal; the bishop has refused to make a defense or to take any notice of the proceedings.
