AT SALT PALACE TONIGHT.

Denver, July 3 .- Refusing to be ruffled by the storm of criticism from Bryan men which was aroused by his resolutions eulogizing the late ex-President Grover Cleveland, Judge Alton B. Parker today issued a statement eiterating his determination to submit to the Democratic national convention such an expression as he and his associates of the New York delegation regard as fitting and proper. In this connection, Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany hall and head phy, leader of Tammany hall and head of the New York state delegation, who also arrived here today, announced that he had never seen the Parker resolutions, that they did not repre-sent the views of the New York dele-gation, and that any resolution to be offered must first be submitted to a caucus of the state delegation to be held Monday.

held Monday. Judge Parker would not discuss the comments of Henry Watterson of Louisville, Ky., upon his resolutions, and, in fact, he declined to give his opinion of any of the interviews by prominent Democrats based upon the tentative draft. He said, however, prominent Democrats based upon the tentative draft. He said, however, that he is not irrevocably committed to the tribute prepared by him in New York, but that he believed the reso-lutions adopted should suitably ac-knowledge the debt owed Mr. Cleve-land by the Democratic party. Judge Parker's statement follows:

PARKER' SSTATEMENT.

"Regarding the preparation and introduction of resolutions, expressing deep regret of all good citizens, whether Democrats or Republicans, at the re-cent death of Mr. Cleveland, and making formal recognition by the Democratic party of the great services he rendered the country, I have only this to say:

to say: "It seemed to some members of the New York delegation proper that such resolutions should be presented to the convention, and peculiarly fitting that they should successful from the state should emanate from the state which he served so well as governor, and which gave him to the Union to become one of the most honored of our many great presidents. It also our many great presidents. It also seemed appropriate to some of my as-sociates, and, I do not hesitate to say frankly, to myself, for reasons that appear obvious, that I should be the appear obvious, that is should be the one to offer such resolutions, and it was and is my intention to do so. Whether they will take the form in-dicated by the tentative draft pub-lished in New York since I left there. I cannot say, for the simple reason that I have not had time to study it carefully. I shall do so as soon as I have the opportunity, and shall em-body such portions as seem to me suitable in the resolution which I hope to have the orivilege of offering. Any suggestion that my colleagues or my-self were actuated by any motive other than a desire to pay proper tribute on a fitting occasion is wholly without foundation, as I am confident that every fair-minded man will recognize when I shall have completed the reso-lution for submission to the conven-

MURPHY'S STATEMENT.

The statement given out by Mr. Murphy was as follows: "My attention has just been called to an interview said to have been given by Judge Parker and to resolutions

DOES'T LIKE BRYAN. Neither Judge Parker nor Mr. Shee-han has made any effort to disguise the fact that they would prefer to have almost any Democrat nominated for president than Mr. Bryan, but both denied that they had come to Denver "with kulves up their sleeves" for the Nebruskan. Mr. Sheehan said that he had come several days before the con-vention to look over the ground, and had come several days before the con-vention to look over the ground, and see what are the chances for the nom-ination of a man who would satisfy conservative eastern Democrats, and that conferences probably would be held with other prominent Democrats who hold similar views. It was intimated that if it is found that the nomination of Mr. Bryan is inevitable that they will do their ut-most to have adopted a platform which would not alienate eastern, or, what has most to have adopted a platform which would not alienate eastern, or, what has been known for several years as "Cleveland" Democrats. He and other eastern Democrats do not favor the Ne-firaska anti-injunction plank, which they think spells defeat for the Demo-cratic ticket in the east. Judge Park-er's disclaimer of having been involved in the memasular of an anti-Ryan or's disclaimer of having been involved in the preparation of an anti-Bryan program was in the form of a state-ment that he had not attended any con-ferences of any members of the New York delegation and that he had paid no attention to convention arrange-ments thus far except to arrange to come here after he had been elected as a delevit and here delegate-at-large.

ANTI-BRYAN FORCES.

ANTI-BRYAN FORCES. It is known, however, that Mr. Shee-han intends to have conferences early with Frederick B. Lynch, manager for Gov, Johnson, and Josiah Marvel, man-ager of the boom for Judge George Gray. The purpose of these confer-ences will be to ascertain what strength is possessed by the candidates opposed to Bryan and in the light of the showing made, to analyze the situ-ation throughout the country and de-termine whether it is possible to keep away from Mr. Bryan more than one-third of the votes of the convention which it is necessary to do if his nom-ination is prevented. Should these conferences prove the accuracy of Mr. Bryan's claims of sufficient strength to insure his nomination on the first bal-lot conferences will then be held be-tween such men as are antagonistic to the Nebraska anti-injunction plank. They will include Judge Parker, Mr. Sheehan, Mr, Murphy and Martin Lit-tieton, of New York; Col. J. M. Guf-fey of Pennsylvania; Roger C. Sulli-van of Illinois; Mr. Marvel, Mr. Lynch, former Gov. Charles S. Thomas, of Colorado; C. G. Heifner of Washington; former Senator James Smith of New Jersey, and others. In arranging for conferences of this character, many of these men insist that the purpose is to provide a plat-form on which all Democrats can stand and to promote party harmony. They It is known, however, that Mr. Shee carry the convention through to Friday afternoon, unless a fight in committee or on the floor should prolong the deliberations. As already announced, it is proposed that an adjournment shall be taken immediately journment shall be taken immediately after the temporary organization is perfected, out of respect to the mem-ory of the late Mr. Cleveland, although this feature does not appear on the formal program. The first day's order of business is as follows: Chairman Taggart of the national committee calls the convention to or-der at noon. Seey, Urey Woodson reads call for the convention. Keane agreed upon by national committee. Chairman asks for further nominations non-inter noninacions, charman puts question on agreeing to the recom-mendations of the national committee. Chairman appoints committee of two delegates to escort Temporary Chair-man Theodore A. Bell of California to and to promote party harmony. They declare that Mr. Bryan's record is such that it is not necessary to put in the platform planks more radical than those adopted in the last three Democratic national conventions.
