THE YELLOW SCOURGE.

A Panic at Memphis—Many Cities Quarantined.

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 21.—A conference of special committees of the Commercial Exchange and the city authorities was held this afternoon. The following was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the president of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce be and he is to travel to Memphis from the east side of the Mississippi River; that a strict non-intercourse passenger quarantine be established, the limit to this resolution being subject to the future action of the committee.

This quarantine is to go into effect at noon tomorrow. Telegrams from Grenada, Carthage and other Mississippi towns report that a quarantine has been established against Decatur, Ala., Jackson, Miss., and other infected points.

CAIRO, ILL.

Cairo, Sept. 21.—The city today established a quarantine against the south from the Illinois Central and Mobile & Ohio.

NEW YORK.

New York, Sept. 21.—Charles F. Rock, believed to be a resident of New York, was taken sick in a Seventh Avenue horse car this afternoon and was taken to the Bellevue Hospital. The report to police headquarters says it was rumored he was suffering from yellow fever.

NEWSPAPER MEN COMMEMORATED.

New York, Sept. 21.—The Press Club today passed resolutions commemorating the heroic devotion of the newspaper men at Jacksonville, Fla., and has appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions for the benefit of the family of M. F. Bowen, the editor of the Times-Union, who died a few days ago.

JACKSON, MISS., Sept. 21.—The excitement continues, and the quarantine is greatly increased by three new cases of fever this morning. Three-fourths of the white population have fled. There is but little food in the city, and no trains stop.

HELENA, ARKANSAS.

Helena, Ark., Sept. 21.—Strict quarantine has been declared. Trains from the east are not permitted even to discharge the mail.

CHATTANOOGA.

Chattanooga, Sept. 21.—Chattanooga has instituted a most stringent quarantine against all infected points. No one is permitted to enter the city without giving a satisfactory account of themselves. The quarantine officers board every train. The city council has adopted an ordinance inflicting a fine of $500 on any person entering the city from any infected point. A large reward has been offered for the apprehension and conviction of such an offender and for the conviction of anyone harboring refugees.

TRACKS TORN UP.

New Orleans, Sept. 21.—It is reported here that part of the railroad track between Jackson and Vicksburg has been torn up by frightened people, in order to force the trains to stop.

QUARANTINE AND BARRICADE.

Chattanooga and Jackson have both quarantined most strictly, and the people have been obliged to go out of business for the present.

CLOSED AGAINST THE WORLD.

The New Orleans Piquette special from West Point, Miss., says the city today closed her gates not only against the infected districts, but against the world. Armed police are scouring the city.

MEMPHIS.

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 21.—All railroads leading into the city will be closed tomorrow and to-day. Memphis as no train will be allowed to enter the city. The city council has adopted an ordinance inflicting a fine of $500 on any person entering the city from any infected point. A large reward has been offered for the apprehension and conviction of such an offender and for the conviction of anyone harboring refugees.

TWO DELEGATIONS.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 21.—General Harrison received two delegations today, one from Winchester and the other from towns in Randolph County, Indiana, composed largely of farmers. They came on two special trains of forty coaches, and numbered over 2000 persons. The largest delegation that has visited the city. Among the several political organizations were 125 Tippecanoe veterans, also the Lincoln League club of 200 first voters. At the head of the column marched Wm. Montgomery, their oldest Tippecanoe veteran, aged 69. Five bands accompanied them, and many thousands of strangers attending the delegation witnessed their creditable parade en route to the University campus.

The second delegation came from Dayton, Ohio, and numbered 200, including 100 veterans of 1860. General Harrison received the delegations jointly. General Harrison of Randolph County and Colonel John B. Love of Dayton were the spokesmen in behalf of the visitors. General Harrison was looking unusually well and spoke with great animation, so that his words were distinctly heard in all parts of the large congregation, which numbered perhaps 4000, including many visitors at the state fair. At the conclusion of the state-making, General Harrison came down from the platform and for over an hour shook hands with the pushing crowd.

ON THE MARCH.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 21.—Roger Q. Mills was tendered an ovation by the citizens of Indianapolis tonight. Tomlinson's Hall was brilliantly decorated for the occasion. Samuel P. Porter made the opening address and when he concluded by introducing the actor of the evening, the great audience rose and cheered for several minutes. After thanking the audience for the reception, Mills proceeded to discuss the tariff question, and held the attention of the audience for over two hours.

THE CHICAGO AND ALL AMERICANS.

Tonight Annie Dickinson will speak in this city.

A Rich Man's Son Sentenced.

Freeport, Ill., Sept. 21.—In the case of Staples, who has been on trial in the circuit court charged with shooting Winship, the jury this morning found him guilty and sentenced him to one year in the penitentiary.

The shooting occurred at the Brewster House during the horse race a year ago. Staples' father is a many times millionaire of Stillwater, Minnesota. An appeal to the supreme court was taken.

STRENGTH IN UNION.

Confederation of Engineers, Firemen, Switchmen and Brakemen.

St. Louis, Sept. 21.—The chief thing discussed by the Switchmen's Mutual Aid Association today was the plan of federation between the engineers, firemen, switchmen and brakemen, which was received here from the from the convention in session at Atlanta.

The following outline of it was given tonight by Grand Master Monahan: It is said it will be proposed to carry firemen and switchmen, and to the other orders of the railway service that will local difficulties arise and the local labor bodies cannot control these difficulties, then the matters in dispute shall be referred to the federal board of arbitration. The federal board shall consist of one representative of each of the various organizations who may enter into this compact, and these boards cannot be tampered with. If they cannot arrange the differences with the railway company, or cannot settle the matter, then the matter shall be referred to an arbitration board consisting of the three head executive officers of the various organizations who may enter into this compact, and these boards cannot be tampered with.
