The funeral services were held today at his late residence in Farmer's Ward. A large assembly of relatives and friends were present. Appropriate and feeling remarks were made by Bishop Mousley, who conducted the services.

Bishop L. W. Hardy spoke of the virtues of the deceased, and commended his life to his survivors as an example of Christian fidelity. He alluded to his long acquaintance with Father Free and expressed his satisfaction at the peaceful departure of his spirit, knowing that he had gone to those whom he loved, and was sure of a glorious resurred tion in the day of the Lord. President Angus M. Cannon de livered a short, comforting and instructive discourse, exhorting those present to faithfulness in observing the principles which have sanctified the life of the respected dead. Counselor Daniel H. Wells com
