

BIG RATIFICATION AT TAMMANY HALL

Gathering so Large That All Who Wished to Attend Could Not Gain Admission.

HEARST WAS NOT PRESENT.

Over in Brooklyn State Senator Mc-Carron Denounced Hearst in First Class Style.

New York, Oct. 16.—The Democratic organization of New York county formally opened its campaign with a big ratification meeting at Tammany hall.
William R. Hearst was not present, as he is touring up state, but the ticket was represented by Louis Stuyvesant Chandler, candidate for lieutenant governor of both the Democratic party and the Independence league.

Mr. Chandler, Bourke Cockran, Senator Thomas F. Grady and others spoke.
Not all who wished to attend the meeting could be accommodated in the hall and overflow meetings were held outside.

Mr. Chandler declared that the issue was not merely a question of party lines, but of democracy against plutocracy.

Of Mr. Hearst, Mr. Chandler said: "He has created an organized hatred stronger than any political organization, but the people love him because of that.
He is a tyrant. How gladly would Rogers, Rockefeller, Morgan, McDonald and Belmont have welcomed this young scion of conservative California wealth.
He could have had everything at their disposal. But, gentlemen, he committed an unpardonable sin. He turned his back on his own class and made common cause with the common people."

"Jefferson is dead. Jackson is dead.
Lincoln is dead. We revere their memories, worship their traditions and follow in their footsteps, but my friends, we are alive. We want live issues, a live party and a live leader. We have them in the platform of the party that has chosen as its leader William Randolph Hearst."

HEARST DENOUNCED.

New York, Oct. 16.—A special meeting of the Democratic general committee of King's county, called for the purpose of ratifying the nominations made on the state and local ticket, was held tonight.
Senator Patrick H. McCarron, the chairman of the executive committee, offered a resolution endorsing the platform and candidates nominated at the Buffalo convention.

Before the resolutions were voted upon Senator McCarron denounced the head of the ticket, who, he said, had bolted the ticket in the county. Never within his recollection had such a situation confronted the party as was presented in this campaign. The spectacle of a leader refusing to recognize the ticket which he headed was certainly a novel one. It was an insult to every Democrat in the county, and they would be less than human if they did not feel a spirit of resentment. He called upon all voters to resent what he termed the "unpardonable villification of the respective candidates."

Senator McCarron continued at some length in a bitter denunciation of Mr.
Hearst, who, he declared, was trying to disrupt the Democratic party in the state of California and Illinois. The Independence league was also roundly condemned by the senator, who styled it a body "organized for the purpose of blackballing the Democratic party."

When he concluded, Senator Mc-Carron moved the adoption of the resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.

A motion was also made that the committee express its approval of the attitude of Senator McCarron, which was done by a rising vote.

ment as first lieutenant in the Twenty-

54,600 MEALS DID HIM NO GOOD

How One Man Wasted 50 Years of His Life. Thousands Like Him.

"What's the use of eating, anyhow?" said the scrawny dyspeptic to his round, prosperous-looking friend. "Here I've been eating three times a day, and sometimes twice a day for 50 years, and look at me. I'm rawboned and skinny, still at the bottom of the ladder, and you have the world, and a pension, I know it, and I can't help it.
If I had it to do over again, though, I would take care of my stomach, for I don't believe I ever really relished a meal in my life, not even mother's Christmas dinners, and I firmly believe that my way of eating, or whatever it was, brought along with it darkness and impossibility of success."

"You're right," nodded his companion. "Of course, that isn't always the case. But in this case we must not only trust in the Lord and keep our povder dry," but we must swallow single with our food. Cheerfulness, especially while eating, which is the most essential act of man, is as necessary to him as sunshine is to the flower. Nothing normal can be produced in darkness."

"But this is what you haven't been doing, Mr. Dyspeptic. Your brain and your stomach, remember, are one, and you have to treat them accordingly.
Why not start now and repair the damage you've done. It is never too late, you know."

"You mean at my age? And suppose you can't always get the sunshine?"

"Absolutely, yes. Science has made it possible to get the sunshine, the health and the strength that your stomach needs. All put up together in little tablets. They call them Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, the most effective tablets in the world for this very thing. One ingredient in these tablets digests 3,000 grains of food without the help of the stomach. Two tablets after each meal can do more work, quicker work and better work, in digesting a heavy meal, than the stomach can do. The stomach need not work at all. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets does all the work, and gives your faded stomach a rest, the rest it needs.
Meanwhile you cure yourself of brashness, indigestion, constipation, heartburn, sour stomach, acidity, fermentation, bloating, and the worst cases of dyspepsia and indigestion. You get rid of these for all time. And then, besides, you can eat all you want, and you will also relish mother's Christmas dinners if you will take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after eating. That's the sunshine I was talking about. Then your face will reflect the internal change going on, you'll be more en-getic, your mind will be clearer, you will have more confidence in yourself, you'll be happier, and you'll be yourself again."

"Your heart will change and you'll feel free. You'll enjoy your meals—and live. Let's walk down to the drugstore and let me introduce you to one little package of these Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. You can get them at any drug store in the world for only 50c a package. It is worth it, Mr. Dyspeptic."

NO ONE TO BLAME.

Washington, Oct. 16.—Secy. Bonaparte holds that no one is to blame for the grounding of the cruiser Boston in Puget sound during a dense fog early last September. In his endorsement upon the report of the court of inquiry he says:

"It appears that no evidence has been adduced showing any fault or dereliction in duty even any error of judgment on the part of any officer or enlisted man in connection with this accident."

He therefore approves the judge advocate-general's recommendation that there be no further proceedings.

A DYNAMITE OUTRAGE IN SAN FRANCISCO.

San Francisco, Oct. 16.—A dynamite cartridge was thrown tonight into a saloon on Pacific street between Kearney and Montgomery streets, kept by a man named Sheers. A woman who was in the place at the time was injured, but not seriously, and she declined medical aid. A corner of the building was blown out. The perpetrator of the outrage escaped, but the police are making a vigorous search for him.

NO TRACE OF GUNTHER.

Messenger of Lafayette Trust Co. Disappears With Many Thousands.

New York, Oct. 17.—No trace has yet been found of John Gunther, the messenger of the Lafayette Trust company of Jersey City, who disappeared Monday with $120,000 worth of checks and $25 in gold which was directed to carry to a bank. Late yesterday the checks were returned to the bank by express, but Gunther and the gold are still missing.

A remarkable feature of the case is that Gunther delivered to the First National bank $12,000 in bills on Monday morning.
The bank officials, who think Gunther is the thief, say he could not have just as easily have made off with the $12,000 as the $120,000.

THE PLAY IN NEW YORK.

(By Channing Pollock.)
Special Correspondence.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—There were six important openings in town last week—one for every night—and two of the six have proved great financial successes.

Eleanor Robson in "Nurse Marjorie," is attracting excellent audiences to the Liberty, while the tiny Princess Theater is packed at every performance of "The Great Divide," a play acted by Margaret Anglin and Henry Miller. N. C. Goodwin in "The Genius" and Thomas W. Ross in "Popularity" have caught on only fairly, while Henry Irving's production of "Paola and Francesca" is rather too poetic and beautiful to be prosperous.

"The Stolen Story" is to be withdrawn this evening, after a fortnight or poor business, and yet, to my way of thinking, there is not a better en-fate of this play is being attributed
