

THIS COUNTRY AND EUROPE.

The differences between this country and the countries of the Old World is never more strikingly illustrated than in the matter of homes. There, few people ever expect to own their own roof; still fewer to even have title to the land on which their houses stand. On the contrary, in this country, any man possessed of health, energy and intelligence, is sure that before many years he may not only build himself a house, but also own the land surrounding it. Are you content to tax upon yourself and your innocent children the system of poverty that ages of feudalism fastened upon the countries of Europe? Do you pay rent? If so, why not pay that amount upon the purchase price of a home for yourself in Forest Dale? In this delightful suburb you can buy land, build your house, and pay for it with little more exertion than is required to pay your landlord. If you rent, every nail you drive, every wedge you pull goes to improve your temporary quarters, but eventually results only in benefitting him whom tenant you are. If you buy a home, every shrub, flower or tree you plant grows for you and your children. If you have money enough, pay all cash, and get discount thereon. If you have only wages, pay on the installment plan, paying so much each month, and your wife and children will gladly help you save rather than live in a rented house.

We have at Forest Dale the best of soil, first class water, both from springs and artesian wells, district schools, Sunday schools and good neighbors. You may buy land by the rod, by the lot or by the acre. Depth of lots varies from 120 feet to 40 rods. No trouble to show property. Call at room 321 Constitution block, and make arrangements with my agents. Correspondence solicited.

* GEORGE M. CANNON, Owner.

FRAGMENTS.
Tuo City Council will not hold a meeting tonight.

In Judge Zane's court this morning Richard Floyd, a Dane, now a resident of Salt Lake, was admitted notwithstanding.

Tuohay, J. H. Threlkell was present at the meeting of the Board of Education at the Walker House last night.

The fourth quarter of Elders meets in the seventh ward meeting house next Monday evening at 7:30 p.m.

The Thirteenth quorum of Seventies met in the Twelfth ward yesterday afternoon, evening at 7:30 p.m.

Fourty-eight quorum of the Eleventh ward meeting house met in the Eleventh ward meeting house on Monday evening at 7:30 p.m.

Twelve Ward Councils were in session, as usual, at the Provo Tabernacle this morning, but we do not know what they were doing.

Church business will be taken up on the Sabbath morning. Judge Zane's court sessions something unimportant rings the wheels of justice.

The Sixteenth quorum of Seventies will hold their monthly meeting in the First ward assembly hall at 7:30 p.m. Monday evening.

There is a small shop belonging to Terrell, an Englishman, located on Kanesville and Canyon, for making up the market here.

Congressional W. H. Jennings of the Cutler-Jennings Baking company won the case against Justice Goss yesterday afternoon. The suit was changed with intersecting with an officer.

The Second quorum of Elders will assemble in the Ninth ward meeting house on Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. All attendance is requested, as usual.

The Third quorum of Elders will hold their regular meeting in the Second ward meeting house on Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. Elders' meetings are to be held at 7 o'clock.

"In Duxbury, His Grace and the Right Rev. Dr. George M. Clark's subject tomorrow in the Tabernacle, the sermon being the third in the series upon the records of the highest extant," Service begins at 8 o'clock.

Lutheran Church, the eighteen-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Macpherson of Brigham, died at the Central Hotel in this city this morning. Death was due to the exposure of a blood vessel in the brain. Undertaking parson on Third Street (yesterday Sunday) after noon at 2 o'clock.

The May "Contributor."

We have before us number seven of the Contributor for the month of May, and it is filled with its usual quota of interesting and instructive reading matter. The leading article of this month is "John Brown's Defense of the Temple" and "Randals Around the World," by Harry Smith, the latter being illustrated with views from Japan. This magazine is worthy of a place in all the homes of the latter-day saints.

The Gun Club's Shoot.

Antonio won the gold medal at the shoot of the Salt Lake Gun club at Collier's Park yesterday afternoon. Misses won 22, 20 singles and seven doubles out of a possible 50.

HAWAIIAN ISLANDS.

Existing Conditions Among the Natives of the Sandwich Group.

NEW MISSION HOUSE AT LAKE.

Report of the Proceedings Among the Saints at the Recent Conference Meetings.

Consecration Done.

LATE, Sandwick Islands, April 25, 1893.—Ninety-eight years ago Kamahewa I. was made master of all the islands in the Sandwich group, with the exception of Maui and Oahu, and for the Hawaiian island it was the beginning of a new era. From the death of Kamahewa I., seven kings and one queen have reigned upon the Hawaiian throne. In the nineteenth century is the commencement of another new epoch for the Hawaiians. Thus far the chance has proven anything but an advantage to either the whites or the natives. The latter yet believe the queen will be reinstated. The deposed queen, Liliuokalani, may have had reasons to promote a new constitution with the consent of her subjects, while the whites were partially justified in maintaining a provisional government.

It is a fact that the liberality and energy of the Hawaiians is known far and near. They have sacrificed their rights that the foreigners might accumulate wealth. A great proportion of the laws of the state books have been made through the instrumentality of the moneyed men of the kingdom and for financial purposes. The treaty with the United States was a financial benefit to the sugar planters. Laws were passed to feed the country with paper labor. Many Chinese and Japanese were also let in. They came here as a plague to the native degradation of the race of savages.

It is the duty of our agents to report semi-annually the proceedings of the Hawaiian mission. The new mission house at Laie was not completed by the time expected, nevertheless it now stands for its inmates to say that it is very creditable. The office is an elevated spot and displays its beauty to advantage. The building will be permanent convenience for many years to come and a credit to the mission. The variety of mechanical work is a marked feature of the new house. There are no two rooms alike.

During the past term the rain fall exceeded many times that of previous years. The weather has been dry days, breezes filled their channels to overflowing, thereby flooding a great percentage of the tree plantations.

The healths of the brothers and sisters have been comparatively good, though troubled with disorders. The youth have inherited the diseases of their parents and they are seldom free from ailments.

The traveling Elders have arrived safely at Laie after a sojourn of five months among the natives. They report the state financially poorer than they have been for many years. The circumstances of the people were worse than those who cultivate their lands.

The Hawaiian Conference of the Sandwich Islands convened on the 3d, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th of April at Laie. Elder Martin Neale presiding over the affairs of the American Elders. The attendance was about one hundred and forty-five was the number that represented the branches outside of Laie.

The program of meetings was as follows: Wednesday, the 3d, annual meeting and evening for Sunday school, and Y.M. M.L. Association conference; Thursday afternoon and Sherman general conference; Friday forenoon and evening concert, Sherman and evening concert, Sherman and evening concert, Laie. Saturday forenoon and afternoon, Heber Society conference; an entertainment in the evening; Sunday general conference.

April 6th was a special day and its importance was impressed upon the minds of those assembled. The Saints marched two abreast from Lehihui to the meeting house, led by the Late President of the Church.

The meeting house was previously decorated for the occasion. Facing the congregation were the offerings of the First Presidency. Just before was a large picture of Jesus Christ Young, on the right of this a picture of the Temple partially finished and on the left a view taken when the capitol was built in 1892. Six banners bearing inscriptions appropriate for the day were placed in the most conspicuous places. The banner presented by the Elders was: "When the earth was created for the sake of the fair establishment of the Kingdom of God, because, and the Sons of Men became evil, and the angels were plainly sent forth. At noon a grand festival for the conference was given in the new house.

John T. G. Lowe presided at the Sabbath school conference. The various officers presented their respective reports. Elder Neale announced that expositions would be held on the different islands during the latter part of the session. Elder Neale spoke upon the difference between the Sabbath schools and the schools in Zion. The numbers there are very young, while here the majority are older, and gave good reason on the manner of conducting the exercises.

In the Sunday school contest, Maui was awarded first and Laie second place, and the former two framed pictures of one of the temples.

The general officers were sustained. The local officers for the following term are: John T. G. Lowe, president; J. J. Johnson and Hyrum G. Farn, managers; Nels Nelson, secretary; Matthew Neale, treasurer.

The Y. M. M. L. Association was called to order by A. J. Davis, President, who spoke upon the duties of responsibility. The authority to present the names of the members is granted to the several associations in the conference, the length of meetings, etc.

In the annual meeting of the Improvement Association, Maui was installed last and Laie second. First prize, a picture of First Presidency.

Highest of all is Leavenworth Power.—Latest U. S. Govt Report.

Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE

Second prize, picture of St. John Temple.

The general officers were sustained. The local officers are: A. J. Davis, President; L. E. Fisher and I. C. Green, managers; Nels Nelson, secretary; Matthew Neale, treasurer.

At the Hilo Mission conference the saints met at Liholihi and were led by the local pastor, Dr. C. C. Clegg. The Amherst English speaking society did the presiding. General instructions were given as to the duties of those included in the membership of the society. This is the leading organization in the Hawaiian mission.

The general officers were sustained. Local officers for church service: Liahona, President, with all the American sisters as his aids; Kekūwānā, Kekūwānā, Kekūwānā, and Kekūwānā, Kekūwānā, secretary.

A Primary association was organized in connection with the Hilo society.

Referring to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should consider moderation on the part of the people in seeking after pleasure, exhausting them to use their energies in building up the Kingdom of God.

ELIJAH JOSEPH M. CANNON

referred to the approaching season of pleasure seeking and excursioning in the direction of Leavenworth, the following directions of the Sabbath. He said, too, that they should