Mr. and Mrs. Sperry Celebrate Their Diamond Wedding

Mr, and Mrs, Charles Sperry, represented in the above pictures, celebrated their diamond wedding. Feb, 21 at their home in Nephi. The pair became husband and wife Feb. 21, 1848, at Sait Lake City, the ceremony being performed by Elder John Taylor. The date was only seven months after the arrival of the Ploncers, and the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Sperry was the second to be consummated in the "valley," the first being the nuptials of Mr. and Mrs. Bainbridge. The maiden name of Mrs. Sperry was Emily Jane Miller.

Three years after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Sperry moved to Nephi, where they have since resided. The husband took part in the Walker and Blackhawk Indian wars and at the advanced age of 79 is still bale and hearty. His wife is two years his senior, having been born April 16, 1827, while his natal day was June 30, 1829. Both are highly respected by all who know them, and on the occasion of the sixtieth anniversary of their weiding, many relatives and friends assembled to do them honor. Mr. Sperry is a man of spi endid physique, and is always ready when the dancing commences.

PROPOSED LIBERTY WARD MEETINGHOUSE.

Architects Rutherford and Hansen have completed plans for the proposed chapel in Liberty ward, recently organized. The building is to be located, facing east and south, on the corner of Denver and Steffenson avenues, and will contain an auditorium capable of seating 400 persons. Special provisions have been made for accomodating all auxiliary organiations, Relief society, Mutual Improvement associations, Primary and Sunday school. The last named organization will have a separate room for each class. A music hall will also be provided, as also a kitchen and rooms for serving on occasions of socials.

GREEK ROUGHLY HANDLED.

Conductor J. E. Hogan Beats Brutal Allen With a Board.

There was considerable excitement the neighborhood of 121 South Fifth West street last night when John E. Hogan, a passenger conductor on the O. S. L. nearly beat the life out of a Greek named Nick Gorgos because the latter knocked down and cause the latter knocked down and kicked Hogan's 5-year-old son. Hogan had just left his home to So to the depot when he saw his little son lying on the sidewalk and Gorgos kicking the child in the face. Enrag-ed at the sight of such brutality, Ho-san wrenched a board from the fence and started after the Greek. He knocked the latter down several times and beat him unmercifully with the board. It is probable he would have killed the man had not friends inter-fered. The Greek was taken to a nearby butcher shop where his in-juries were attended by a physician. His head was badly battered and sev-eral stitches were required to sew up the wounds. The boy was not seri-ously hurt. The child was riding a tricycle and accidentally ran into the Greek. Gor-sos knocked the little fellow from the fried, and hen kicked him in the face. Hogan came out of the house
