An air line railway from New York to New Orleans is in rapid progress of completion. It is one hundred and seventy miles shorter than any existing route.

An old bachelor in New York offered a young lady a pony for a kiss. She gave him the kiss. He refused her the pony. She sued him. He pleaded no consideration. The Court decided that a kiss was a legal consideration and made him pony up.

Rev. Thomas Young, of Mississippi, is a frisky youth of eighty-six, who married a woman of eighty-three, who is the progenitress of over a hundred peuple.

A stupid fellow tried to annoy a popular preacher by asking him whether the fatted calf of the parable was male or female. "Female, to be sure," was the PIONEER JEWELRY STORE, reply, "for I see the male"-looking his questioner full in the face-"yet alive in the flesh before me."

The town of Bedford, 15 miles from Boston, has neither minister, lawyer nor railroad, and the ladies teach all the schools. Nothing ever happened there except the birth of President Stearns of Amherst College.

The other day two French soldiers, wearing their swords, in one of the streets of Paris, quarreled with a couple of workmen as to who should take the wall. The workmen showing no disposition to give way, one of the soldiers seized a civilian, threw him to the ground, and with his sword killed him instantly by splitting open his skull.

The number of lawyers in the United States is reported at 31,986, and their aggregate annual earnings at $63,972,000, an average for each of $2,000. Of these lawyers, 2,382 are residents of New York city, 695 of Philadelphia, and 648 of Boston. Other American cities have smaller numbers of lawyers. [Cleveland Herald.
