THEATRE.—The fullest house we recollect ever to have seen was on Saturday night last, on the occasion of the farewell benefit of Mr. John C. Graham, previous to his departure for Europe. The house was literally packed. Sitting seats and standing seats were filled. The performance consisted of the high comedy of "The Victims," a song by Mr. Teasdale, "An Evening in China," and "Brother Bill and Me." The best played character in the comedy was that of "Mr. Merriweather" by Mr. Cogswell. It was very neatly presented. Messrs. Graham and Margetts made heaps of fun. The other gentlemen and the ladies histrionic also exerted themselves to render the performance successful.

At the conclusion of the comedy Mr. Graham, on being called, appeared before the curtain, and in a speech, witty and retrospective, expressed his obligations to the audience for their attendance and favor. The fact of his receiving such an overwhelming house is one of the most flattering evidences of the estimation in which he is held as an actor by the theatre going public.

For Tuesday evening, a complimentary benefit to Mr. Montague and Eugenie Gerretta is announced, when a very attractive bill is to be presented. Montague and Gerretta will appear in their acrobatic performance, "Metamorphose," Mlle. Gerretta will perform a new juggling act, spinning six plates at once. Mr. Montague will appear in a new gymnastic act, "The Crystal Pyramid." Mr. Lewis Parker will appear as "Major George" in "Les Misereables," and "Echoes from Congress." Messrs. Harris, Montague, Parker and Wood, and Misses Simons, Davis and Gerretta will appear in the ballet pantomime of "Crispin and the Goose," and Mr. Margetts as "Tarascon Twitters," and Mr. Parker, and Mrs. Bowring and Misses Simons and Davis, in the farce of "My Turn Next."

IN TOWN.—Mr. F. C. Leonard, of Chicago, a gentleman having many friends in Utah, was in the city during the special conference. He returned to Ogden this morning, where he purposes making his home.

COLORADO EXPLORER.—Maj. Powell, Chief of the Colorado Exploring Party, reached this city on Saturday, from the east. He intends staying here for a few days, and will then depart southward, for the purpose of commencing his summer's labors in making further explorations in the regions traversed by the Colorado River.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Brother James D. McCullough forwards the following account of a deplorable accident at Panaca, under date of April 26:

"Willie Arthur Wadsworth, who was aged two years on the seventh day of last February, son of brother G. A. Wadsworth, met his death at this place, under the following painful circumstances:

"A short time since a person from one of the settlements arrived in Panaca, designing to haul lumber a while from some of the saw mills. He hired and obtained permission of brother Wadsworth to leave his wagon box inside of his house yard. There was a pistol (one chamber of which was loaded) left in a sack within the wagon box, unknown to any of Wadsworth's family. This pistol was found last evening by one of brother Wadsworth's boys, aged nine years, who, under the impression that it was unloaded, and desiring to snap it, discharged it, the contents entering the right side of his little brother's nose, and coming out at the back of his head. The boy who was playing with the pistol inside the wagon box, states that he was not aware of the near approach of his little unfortunate brother, who was on the outside of the box, which had the bows and cover on.

"The foregoing is the substance of the facts, as elicited at the coroner's inquest.'

A copy of the verdict of the coroner's jury was appended to the above, but as the names of the jurymen are omitted, we do not publish it.

RUN OVER.—This morning one of the boy pupils of St. Mark's school was accidental ly run over by a buggy. The wheels passed over both the little fellow's thighs, but as the vehicle was a light one he was very slightly injured. The driver drove around a knot of children who were at play in order to avoid running o ver any of them, when the one who met with the accident ran backwards and came in contact with the buggy.

MISS AUGUSTA L. DARGON.—This talented lady will arrive in this city to-morrow morning, and will soon open for a few nights at the Theatre.

COMPLIMENTARY BENEFIT. — To-morrow evening Mr. and Mrs. Montague and Lewis Parker will be the recipients of a complimentary benefit, on which occasion beside the members of the troupe, Messrs. Phil. Margetts, William Wood and W. T. Harris will appear. An excellent variety bill has been provided for the occasion.

FOUND.—A common pass book, containing accounts of bills of lumber, &c., some papers, accounts, &c., and a certificate of discharge from the United States military service of Abraham K. Luce, to whom the papers apparently belong. The owner can have the above on calling at this office.

THE ADJOURNED CONFERENCE.—The meetings of the adjourned session of the Forty-Third General Annual Conference, held on Saturday and Sunday, were of a character calculated to make a deep, salutary and lasting impression on all who attended them. The instructions given by the brethren who spoke, especially those of President Brigham Young, were chiefly adapted to the wants of the Latter-day Saints, and clearly indicated the course they should pursue to enable them to become a great, wealthy, and mighty people, and could scarcely fail of giving them a true and clearer conception of the great work of the Lord in the latter days. Not only were the Saints edified and built up in the faith of the gospel, but it is also probable that many of the strangers who attended the meetings obtained more correct ideas of the nature of the system called "Mormonism" than they possessed previously, for truth will and does appeal to the minds of people, sometimes even when they are almost unwilling that it should. At all events even true Latter-day Saints who listened to the discourses of President Young and the other speakers must have been impressed with the true greatness of the system which is destined to grow into an organization that will be the admiration of all the good on the earth, and that will prepare a place for the reception of the Savior, when he shall come to his own.

There was a powerful, peaceful and consequently enjoyable spirit present at each of the meetings, which were well attended especia lly yesterday, in the afternoon the sitting room being taken up and many having to stand in the aisles.

As usual the singing by the choir and the accompaniments on the great organ afforded much pleasure to the congregations.

Before the adjournment President Cannon gave out the following appointments for two days' meetings to be held by the Twelve Apostles:

FARMINGTON, Saturday and Sunday, May 10th and 11th.

OGDEN, Saturday and Sunday, May 17th and 18th.

BATTALION DRILL.—Battalion drill on May 24th and 25th.

PROVO Saturday and Sunday, May 31st and June 1st.

CHANGED HIS QUARTERS.—Dr. J. P. Mack has just moved into new premises, on Third South street, two doors west of the Clift House, which is on the corner of East Temple and Third South streets. The Doctor is a homœpathic practitioner of large experience, extending over a period of twenty-five years, the last three years of which have been in this Territory, where he has had a wide practice, chiefly among women and children, and has devoted much attention to diseases incidental to this climate.

He has a specific for burns, which, he claims, affords instantaneous relief in the severest cases.

BRIDGE DISASTER.—The account of the terrible bridge disaster, by which about a hundred people lost their lives, at Dixon, Illinois, will be foundin to-day's NEWS. It will be seen that Mrs. Gilman, mother of Lieut. Gilman, now stationed at Camp Douglas mentioned as one of the victims of thatcatastrophe.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Yesterday morning Mr. Reggel, proprietor of a clothing store near A. W. White & Co's Banking House, met with a very serious accident. While driving on East Temple Street, about 8 o'clock, his horse shied and ran against the stone post, near the Eagle Emporium building. Mr. Reggel was thrown out of the vehicle against the post with great violence, and received very severe injuries in the head and face, besides having one of his thighs broken. The principal effects of the accident are severe cuts in the forehead, eyelid and cheeks of the unfortunate gentleman, a fractured nose and, as above stated, a broken thigh.

Mr. Reggel was taken to his store and Dr. Fowler was sent for to render him surgical aid. Dr. J. M. Benedict was also afterwards called in and assisted Dr. Fowler.

Our reporter learned to-day that the patient is doing as well and feeling as comfortable as could be expected under the circumstances.

OBSEQUIES.—The funeral of Sister Ann Dinning Goodfellow, the aged lady whose demise was announced in our Saturday's issue, was largely attended this a.m. The services were held at the residence of Geo. Q. Cannon, in whose family she had lived many years. Remarks appropriate to the occasion were made by Elder Chas. Taylor and W. Woodruff. Deceased had been a member of the Church about thirty-seven years, and she remained zealous and faithful to the last.

D. A. & M. SOCIETY.—The Directors of the D. A. & M. Society are requested to meet at the Historian's Office, to-morrow, Tuesday evening, at 7 o'clock. A full attendance is particularly requested.

MESSAGES.—There are telegrams at the Deseret Telegraph office for Jane Williams, Samuel F. Hatch and W. A. Simons.

MARBLE AND JAPANNED SLATE MANTEL PIECES.—For beautiful specimens of marble, and japanned iron and slate mantel pieces, in imitation of marble, go to the store of Morris & Evans, of East Temple Street, near Stayner's music store. They have just received a very beautiful assortment of fire grates, with mantel pieces, from the east. The japanned iron are a very neat article, but the slate, in imitation of marble, are, to the uneducated eye at least, fully equal to the natural marble or to the best specimens of the grainer's art. They have the following varieties of imitation marble on hand: Plymouth Black, Green and Red Pyrenees, Porphyry, Egyptian, Breccia, Brocatelle, Dark and Light Spanish, and Galway Green; also natural vein marble, and some of wood—rose wood and black walnut. Parties desirous of purchasing articles of this kind will almost be sure to find something at the store of Morris & Evans to please their taste; and the great advantage of the imitation slate mantles is that their beauty will, it is said, last a life time.

OUR FATHER'S HOUSE—THE UNWRITTEN WORD.
BY DANIEL MARCH, the Author of "Night Scenes in the Bible."

THIS Earth is one of the Mansions of OUR FATHER'S HOUSE and all the forms and forces of the physical universe are revelations of God's UNWRITTEN WORD. The author, in this new volume, goes from room to room in the great house that God has built, showing us the riches and splendors stowed in every department, making the whole journey of life a happy walk of children with their Father, as he cut in open fields, listening to the singing birds, the whispering winds and murmuring forests; looking with ceaseless delight on green landscapes and grazing flocks, on beautiful flowers and springing grass, gazing with awe at the wonders of the mighty deep, walking beneath the shade of ancient mountains and climbing sacred heights. Wondering at the fire at Perth wheel turning beneath our feet, at the storm with cloud on cloud in billowy darkness rolled, lightnings answered in thundering voices, and again the beautiful bows hung out on the retiring cloud.
