B. R. THOMAS, of Frisco, will leave or Washington to-morrow, via the D. R. G.

H. M. RITTER and wife left for Cargyle, Pa., this morning, via the Union Pacific.

SYLVESTER WALKER, for disturbing the peace, paid a $5 fine in the Police Court this morning.

SILVER quotations, corrected daily by Wells Fargo & Co.: New York, $1.03; London, 47 7-16d.

J. S. TEBBETS, of the Union Pacific office in this city, has returned from his trip through the north country.

FRANK HALL was taken in custody last evening for stealing a ride on a Utah Central train. He was fined $7.50 this morning.

PROF. J. E. CLAYTON, of this city, will start to-morrow for Huntington, the terminus of the Oregon Short Line Railway.

ELDER WM. N. ANDERSON, who left recently on a mission to the Southern States, has been appointed to labor in South Carolina.

IT was expected the suit of U. J. Wenner vs. Probate Judge Smith, in the Third District Court, would be concluded to-day.

CAPT. SPRINGER, superintendent and part owner of the marble quarry and works near Midway, Wasatch County, is in the city for a few days.

YESTERDAY, Fred R. Hays, an eleven year-old boy residing at Harrisville, Weber County, was thrown from a horse and had his left arm broken.

MCCORNICK & Co. to-day received two car Hanauer ore, value, $4,600; Queen of the Hills ore, value, $2,800; Crescent ore, value, $3,750; total, $11,150.

LOCAL politicians are taking some interest in next Tuesday's election. Odds are given on New York going republican, the chances taken on Virginia being about even.

L. G. RICE, of Farmington, left his team unhitched on the street yesterday. He next found it at the City Hall, where he was required to pay $1 for his carelessness.

LAST evening, in the case of the People vs. Fred Hopt, convicted of murder, ten days further time was allowed Hopt's counsel in which to file their bill of exceptions.

IN the matter of the petition of the Iron Mining Company of Utah, for an order of disincorporation, in the Third District Court to-day, there was no objection made to the decree.

THE officers of the Primary Associations of this Stake are requested to meet at the residence of Mrs. E. C. Clawson, at 75 First St., Eighteenth Ward, at 2 p. m. to-morrow (Thursday).

IN the case of Thomas McBride vs. James Baker et al., before the Third District Court, the defendants were allowed until November 15th, 1885, to file a statement on motion for new trial.

JOHN JENSON was taken to the City Hall in a state of helpless intoxication to-day. It may prove fortunate for John that the police picked him up, as quite a sum of money was found in his pockets.

WE are pleased to be able to announce that Brother James Needham of Teasdale's Store, who was stricken with a sudden sickness on Monday, and had to be taken home in a hack, is recovering and able to set up.

Two strong attractions at the same time in a city the size of ours are more than we ought to be expected to support strongly; but we came very close to it last evening, both the Theatre and the Opera House being comfortably filled.

A man named Cook, the mate of the steamer Almota, shot Civet Johnson, a deck hand, in a saloon, at Lewiston, Idaho, on Saturday night, the ball passing through the victim's abdomen. Johnson was drinking and imposed on Cook. Cook surrendered himself. Johnson was fatally injured.

FOLLOWING are the officers elected by the 9th Ward Improvement Association for the ensuing year: Imri Brown, president; J. Reese and L. O. Taft, counselors; H. Smith, Secretary; Miss Mamie Evans, assistant secretary; H. Smith, treasurer; Levi Phillips, chairman of programme committee. Meetings of the Association are held every Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the ward meeting house.

THE trial of the case of U. J. Wenner vs. Elias Smith was continued before a jury in the Third District Court to-day. Wenner brings suit against Judge Smith for $4,000, which the former alleges he should have received as salary for work he did not do, under an appointment as probate judge of Salt Lake County, made by Gov. Murray. As Wenner was appointed to fill a vacancy which did not exist, it is hardly probable that he will obtain what he is not entitled to.

LOCAL NEWS.

"Mormon" Arrivals and Departures.—The Daily Commercial, of Chattanooga, Tennessee, announces in its issue of the 19th, "Fifteen more Mormon Elders arrived yesterday. They will be sent to their fields of labor in different parts of the South." Again, on the 21st, the same paper says, "Seven Mormon Elders arrived in the city yesterday from Salt Lake City, to engage in missionary labors. After taking needful rest they will disperse to different points to engage in their work. Six Mormon converts also arrived in the city last night from North Alabama, en route to the City of the Saints. This is the beginning of the exodus, and it is said that a number will leave this locality for the Mormon settlements this year."

CITY COUNCIL.

The City Council met in regular session last evening, Mayor Sharp presiding.

A petition was received from Herman Hill and others, asking that an asphaltum sidewalk, ten feet wide, be laid on the north side of Third South Street, between the Clift House and the Metropolitan Hotel. Referred to the committee on streets and alleys.

M. Cullen's liquor license was transferred to J. E. Duffey.

Maria Worblesa, poor and a cripple, asked relief of her dog tax, which the collector had demanded as a condition of permitting her dog to live. The Council appropriated $3 for the purpose.

One auctioneer's license and one retail liquor dealer's license were granted.

The Mayor reported that the purchase of the City Creek property had been effected, and a full title given to the city by J. C. Kingsbury, the payment therefor having been $20,000 and three corporation notes of $10,000 each, for one, two and three years, at 6 per cent. per annum.

The police justice's report for September was presented and referred to the committee on police.

The committee on enrollment reported that the ordinance relating to peddlers had been enrolled, and the recommendation that it be published was adopted.

The committee on finance reported the city auditor's report for the quarter ending Aug. 31, 1885, to be correct, and it was ordered published.

The sum of $126.20 was appropriated to pay J. M. Hoffman for blacksmithing done; also $2,000 for interest on a $50,000 note given by the corporation.

Adjourned for one week.

Off for the Sandwich Islands.—A little party of missionaries leave this city this evening for the Sandwich Islands, each of the brethren, called to preach the Gospel to the natives of that land and lead them from their present degraded condition to a higher life, being accompanied by his wife, who will help to swell the little colony located on the Church plantation at Laie and beside encouraging her husband in his labors by her presence, will also aid by example and precept in reclaiming the Hawaiians.

The party consists of Jacob F. Gates, wife and four children, from Provo; Elihu Barrell and wife, Mathew Noall and wife, and Fred Beesley and wife, of this city; and Enoch Farr, Jr., of Ogden, whose father is now on the Islands presiding over the mission.

The last three couples mentioned are newly married, Elders Barrell and Noall having been united to their spouses only in June last, while the wedding of Brother Beesley only occurred since he received his appointment for a mission; in fact, only on Friday last, the brave young lady who assumed at once the responsibility of wedlock and a protracted residence in a distant mission being Miss Nellie Solomon, of the 19th Ward.

The party will be joined on reaching San Francisco by Mrs. Lucy B. Young and her daughter Mabel, they having proceeded that far on their way to the Sandwich Islands on a visit before learning of Brother Gates, whose wife is also a daughter of Sister Young's, being called to go to the Islands upon a mission. On receiving that news they immediately decided to remain there until the party arrived, and sail in company on the Pacific.

Elder Gates filled a lengthy mission to the Islands some years ago, and is familiar with the Hawaiian language and customs, and his wife is partially so from having been there on a visit; but to the others of this party everything they see after leaving Utah to proceed westward will appear new and strange, and when they arrive at their destination they will have to commence the study of a language, of which at present they know almost nothing.

The readers of the NEWS will be favored, during the absence of the party, with occasional letters from the prolific and talented pen of Sister Susie Y. Gates.

We wish our friends a prosperous journey, a successful mission and a safe return.

Snake River Products.—Brother Henry T. Cowburn, of the 19th Ward, who has recently been on a visit to the Snake River Valley, and who is interested in that region, having some time since made a start towards securing a home there by entering a tract of land in the neighborhood of Lewisville, under the Timber Act, called upon us this morning and exhibited some of the products of that part. They consisted of potatoes of very good quality, white turnips, one of which measured twenty-four inches in circumference, and rutabagas, also very large. These were raised by Brothers Heywood and Parks formerly of the 15th Ward of this city, who are now residents of Lewisville, a fine settlement located on the south shore of the south fork of Snake River, 18 miles from Rexburg, the capital of the Stake, and about 17 miles from Eagle Rock.

That country is quite as well adapted for the raising of small grain as vegetables, but some of the grain crops were a partial failure this year through the farmers having sown spring wheat in the fall for want of any other kind, and it having been winter-killed. With the ordinary winter varieties they would have succeeded well; comparatively speaking, they did well as it was, and are not by any means discouraged. Brother Park, already mentioned, harvested about 300 bushels of wheat of a very good quality.

The settlers in that locality are nearly all poor, and are oblized to move slowly, but they are a good people, full of faith and united in their undertakings, and they will soon transform that country which was so recently a wilderness into a veritable garden of loveliness.

The people of Lewisville already have one canal, but it is insufficient for their wants, and before winter sets in they expect to have another about five miles in length completed, ready for use next year, which will irrigate some thousands of acres of new land.

Between Lewisville and Eagle Rock there is a considerable quantity of good land not yet claimed, that people in this region who desire to locate in the country will do well to secure, for it is really one of the most desirable places for agricultural purposes in Idaho.

Examination Waived. — At 10 o'clock this morning, the time set for the preliminary examination in the case of Henry Grow, before Commissioner McKay, the accused and a number of witnesses were present. The prosecution, however, had changed their plan, and the case was sent to the grand jury, Mr. Grow being placed under $1,500 bonds, which were furnished by T. V. Williams and George Bourne. Those of the witnesses who were present, with the exception of Mrs. Julia Grow, were placed under $200 bonds, to appear before the grand jury on Wednesday, Nov. 4th.

Death From an Unusual Cause.—By letter from a St. George correspondent we learn of the death of a twelve-year old boy at that place, named Thomas John Hall, under peculiar circumstances: He was riding on a bare-backed horse, which, in jumping, is supposed to have dislocated the boy's spinal column, for in a few minutes after he lowered himself from the animal's back, he died.

He was a grandson of Thomas Hall, of this city, the old-time Salt Lake policeman.

Fatal Accident.—A shocking occurrence took place at Willard, Box Elder County, on Monday. Cyrus J. Call, a boy fifteen years of age, was oiling the rollers of Wood's molasses mill, when his jumper caught and he was drawn into the machine. A large wound, reaching nearly half through the body, was made in the side, causing death in a few moments.

Earthquake Shocks.—Brother W. Wood, writing to us from Minersville, October 26th, says: "Last night at 10 minutes past 11 o'clock this place experienced a pretty severe shock of earthquake, lasting some eight or ten seconds, two more in the latter part of the night and one at 9 o'clock this morning. The rumbling was heard in the mountains northeast of us after it had passed here. Old Californians say the first was nearly as hard as the one in San Bernardino in 1857."

The "Mikado" Chorus.—Following is the complete personnel of the chorus of this famous comic opera, to be presented at the Theatre next week:

Japanese Maidens—Florence Whitney, Nellie Hardy, Jennie Keate, Maggie Crismon, Lottie Martin, May Allen, Rena Keate, Tacy Young, Millie Pack, Lute Whitney, Lillie Taylor, Louie Dowden, Emma Crismon, Ivie Clawson, Louisa Simmons, Josephine Spencer, Nettie Raleigh, Euphelia Latimer, Laura Whitney, Lizzie Latimer, Lutie Thatcher, Louisa Mayer, Lutie Young, Hattie Chambers, Addie Careless, Bell Clayton, Annie Simpson.

Noble Lords.—Jno. S. Barnes, J. A. Croft, D. H. McAllister, D. S. Spencer, C. A. Granger, Chas. A. Lambourne, Saml. M. Barratt, Jno. P. Meakin, George S. Savage, Jas. A. Jennings, W. D. Pyper, Geo. W. Clarke, Henry M. Dinwoodey, R. A. Pyper, H. Kirkman, W. B. Dougall, Jr., James G. Gallacher, F. D. Richards, Jr.

Bishop Follett Dead.—The Provo Enquirer has the following:

"By letter received by Mrs. John W. Turner, of this city, from Smithville, Graham Co., Arizona, we learn of the death of W. A. Follett, which occurred on the 19th inst. The deceased was a former resident of this city and well known and highly respected. He was at one time Bishop of the Fourth Ward. He was taken sick last August with malarial fever and confined to his bed. About a month ago he was stricken with paralysis, which affected the whole of his left side and partly deprived him of speech, which continued until death relieved him from his sufferings. The deceased was about 65 years of age and leaves a wife, 7 children, 15 grandchildren and a numerous circle of relatives and friends to mourn his loss. The mother of Bishop Follett, over 90 years of age, is still living in the State of Iowa. The relatives and friends of the deceased residing in this city unite with us in sympathy to the family in their great bereavement."

"Three of a Kind."—There was more laughter and applause in the Theatre last evening than we have heard there for a long time, and each in most instances was properly bestowed. The farcical comedy, "Three of a Kind," went with a rush from beginning to end, as fast as one joke was disposed of, another taking its place. The company is without exception first-class, everything done is executed easily yet effectively, the jokes and "gags" are nearly all new and telling, and there is, in short, nothing that is not enjoyable. The piece made a decided hit, and will be repeated this evening.

To-morrow evening there will be a change of bill, "Tom, Dick and Harry" taking the place of the present attraction. Those who enjoy the ludicrous, pure and simple, should not miss the opportunity of seeing the Troubadours in one or the other or both these specialties.

Bridal Veil Falls.—Mr. George Beard, of Summit County, has painted and presented to Mr. L. Goldberg, of this city, a magnificent picture of "Bridal Veil Falls," Provo Cañon. The natural view is one of surpassing loveliness, and the artist has produced on canvass a scene instantly recognizable. The water representation, as it falls over the precipice about seventy feet in height, has a very pleasing effect. The upper part of the painting presents to one who has viewed the beautiful work of nature—the falls and rugged cliffs themselves—rather too gloomy an aspect, as though a storm were threatening; but the lower part—the foaming water as it dashes over the rough bed of the river, the wagon road, with the plodding ox team swinging along, the shrubbery, and the base of the brown, bare cliffs—is exhibited with a faithfulness of detail and harmony of coloring that is almost perfection. The painting is at Savage's Art Bazar awaiting a handsomely gilded frame.
